Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On June 5, 2003, the Thermo Electron Corporation Choice Plan (the "Plan") engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC") as the Plan's independent certifying accountants. In connection with this engagement, the Plan dismissed Carlin, Charron & Rosen LLP ("CCR"), its prior independent certifying accountants, effective on that same day. The engagement of PwC and the dismissal of CCR were approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Thermo Electron Corporation (the "Company") and the Pension Committee of the Company.

Edgar Filing: THERMO ELECTRON CORP - Form 8-K

The Plan engaged CCR on June 4, 2002, when it dismissed Arthur Andersen LLP, its prior independent certifying accountants. The report of CCR with respect to the Plan for the last completed fiscal year of the Plan contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the last completed fiscal year and through June 5, 2003, there were no disagreements between the Plan and CCR on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of CCR, would have caused CCR to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in its report on the Plan's financial statements for such year.

During the last two completed fiscal years and through June 5, 2003, the Plan did not consult with PwC regarding either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Plan's financial statements or any matter that was the subject of a disagreement or reportable event with CCR.

Pursuant to Item 304(a)(3) of Regulation S-K, the Plan has requested that CCR furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not CCR agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter, dated June 5, 2003, is filed as Exhibit 16 to this Form 8-K.

Item 7. Financial Statements and Exhibits
