Revocability of Proxies

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it any time before its use by delivering to the Company, before the meeting, a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Voting and Solicitation

Every shareholder voting at the Annual Meeting has one vote for each share on all matters. The Company's By-Laws do not provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors. Shares represented by valid, executed and dated proxies in the enclosed form will be voted if received in time for the meeting in accordance with the instructions thereon. Unless your proxy is otherwise marked, it will be voted FOR management's nominees for the Board of Directors.

For election of directors, the three individuals receiving the most votes will be elected for the term indicated. Approval of any other item of business to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of common shares at the meeting and entitled to vote. Abstentions, withheld votes and broker nonvotes will not be deemed votes cast in determining approval of any proposal, but will be counted in determining the number of common shares present or represented by proxy in determining whether a quorum is present.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. The Company has retained the services of American Stock Transfer & Trust to aid in the solicitation of proxies. The Company estimates that the cost of soliciting proxies will be less than $2,000 including out-of-pocket expenses. The Company may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners. Proxies may also be solicited by certain of the Company's directors, officers, and regular employees, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone, e-mail, facsimile or letter.

The options expire ten years after the date of grant and vest over three years in equal annual installments commencing with the first anniversary of the date of grant. All directors are eligible to receive reimbursement for all ordinary travel expenses related to attendance at Board or committee meetings.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

General. The Compensation Committee's overall compensation policy applicable to the Company's executive officers is to provide a compensation program that is intended to attract and retain qualified executives for the Company and to provide them with incentives to achieve Company goals and increase shareholder value. The Compensation Committee implements this policy through establishing salaries and bonuses. The Compensation Committee's current policy does not provide significant pension or other retirement benefits for the Company's employees.

Salaries. The Compensation Committee's policy is to provide salaries that are generally similar to those of similar executive officers in similar companies. The Compensation Committee determines comparable salaries through discussions with candidates for such positions, Company research and independent surveys concerning the salaries paid by similar companies.

Performance Bonuses. The payment of bonuses to executive officers is directly related to their achievement of corporate and individual performance goals established at the beginning of the year. The amount of the bonus paid, if any, varies among the executive officers depending on their success in achieving individual performance goals and on their contribution to the achievement of corporate performance goals.

Stock Options. Stock options are awarded by the Stock Option Committee of the Board of Directors. The Stock Option Committee's policy is to award stock options to the Company's officers in amounts reflecting the participant's position and ability to influence the Company's overall performance. Options are intended to provide participants with an increased incentive to make contributions to the long-term performance and growth of the Company, to join the interests of participants with the interests of shareholders of the Company and to attract and retain qualified employees. The Stock Option Committee's policy has been to grant options with terms of five to ten years to provide a long-term incentive and to fix the exercise price of the options at the fair market value of the underlying shares on the date of grant. As a result, such options will only have value if the price of the underlying shares increases.

Fiscal 2003 Compensation Decisions Regarding James Herbert. The compensation of James L. Herbert, President and Chief Executive Officer, is recommended by the Compensation Committee to the Board of Directors based on the Committee's knowledge of the level necessary to enable the Company to remain competitive and retain top management.

In addition, Mr. Herbert's compensation is based on the Committee's subjective assessment of his progress toward achieving Company goals and objectives pertaining to the development and marketing of products dedicated to food and animal safety. Particular consideration is given to progress toward enhancing long-term shareholder value that includes overall growth in sales and operating and net income for the Company's most recent fiscal year.

Incentive compensation payments to Mr. Herbert are made partially in the form of cash intended to reward Mr. Herbert for achievement of individual and corporate objectives, partially in the form of stock options, intended to provide Mr. Herbert with increased incentive to focus on long-term performance growth of the Company that will enhance shareholder value, and partially in the form of contributions to an annuity owned by the Company and payable to Mr. Herbert or his estate upon death, retirement or termination of employment.

Mr. Herbert did not participate in the approval of his own compensation, but did participate in discussion of the Company's performance for fiscal 2003 and the determination of bonuses for other executive officers of the Company.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to the Company's financial matters. The Board of Directors has adopted and approved a charter for the Audit Committee. Under the charter, the duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee include:

1. the annual review and recommendation to the Company's Board of Directors of the appointment or retention of the Company's independent auditors.
2. determination of the independence of the Company's independent auditors
3. review of the Company's significant accounting policies and internal controls, and
4. review of the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors and providing advice to the Company's Board of Directors as the financial statements to be included in the Company's Form 10-K.

At the Board of Directors meeting on October 9, 2002, Mr. Thomas Reed and Dr. Gordon Guyer were reappointed as committee members and Mr. Robert Book was appointed as a committee member. Mr. Reed was appointed as Audit Committee chairman. The Board of Directors has determined that all members of the Audit Committee are independent.

Following is the report of the Audit Committee:

Under the guidance of a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, that was included with the proxy materials for the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders, the Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors.

The Company's management has the primary responsibility for the system of internal controls and the financial reporting process. The Company's independent auditors have the responsibility to express an opinion on the financial statements based on an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. The Audit Committee has the responsibility to monitor and oversee these processes.

In fulfilling these responsibilities, the Audit Committee recommends to the Board of Directors the selection of the Company's independent auditors. The recommended and selected firm for 2003 was Ernst & Young (E&Y). The Audit Committee discussed with E&Y its independence from the Company and management, including the matters in Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees).

Additionally, consideration was given to whether non-audit services provided by E&Y were compatible with maintaining the auditors independence.

Edgar Filing: NEOGEN CORP - Form DEF 14A

Without management present the Audit Committee met separately with E&Y to review the results of the audit, their evaluation of the Company's internal controls and the quality of the Company's accounting and financial reporting. The Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with management and E&Y. Management and E&Y represented that the Company's audited financial statements were fairly stated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The matters covered by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees) were discussed with E&Y.

Following these actions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended May 31, 2003 for filing with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

OTHER MATTERS

Independent Public Accountant

On January 16, 2003, Neogen Corporation dismissed Deloitte & Touche, LLP (D&T) as its independent auditor. The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors recommended the change of auditors and the change was approved by the Company's Board of Directors.

The reports of D&T on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended May 31, 2002 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years, and subsequent interim periods through January 16, 2003, there were no disagreements with D&T on any matter of accounting principles or practice financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of D&T, would have caused it to make reference to such disagreements in its reports, nor were there any reportable events as defined in Regulation S-K Item 304(a)(1)(v).

Following review of proposals from several accounting firms, effective January 16, 2003 the Company engaged Ernst & Young LLP (E&Y) as its independent auditor. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and subsequent interim periods before engaging E&Y, the Company did not consult E&Y regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement, or of a reportable event as defined in Regulation S-K Item 304(a)(1)(v).

E&Y has reported on the 2003 consolidated financial statements included in the Annual Report of the Company that accompanies this proxy statement. The Company's independent auditors are appointed by the Board of Directors. Representatives of E&Y are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders and will be available to respond to appropriate questions and will have an opportunity to make a statement at the meeting if they so desire.

Fees for Audit and Other Services

During the year ended May 31, 2003, E&Y billed Neogen for its services as follows:

Audit Fees: The fees for the 2003 audit of Neogen's consolidated financial statements and review of the third quarter unaudited financial statements were $74,833.

Financial Information System Design and Implementation Fees: None

Other Accounting Services: The fees for consulting on accounting and auditing matters were $4,710.

Non-audit Services: The fees for advice on tax matters were $750.

Other Proposals

Neither the Company nor its Board of Directors intends to bring before the Annual Meeting any matters other than those set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting, and they have no present knowledge that any other matters will be presented for action at the Meeting by others. However, if any other matters properly come before such Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgement.

Neogen Corporation will furnish a copy of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended May 31, 2003, without exhibits, without charge to each person who forwards a written request including representation that he or she was a shareholder on August 5, 2003 to: Corporate Secretary, Neogen Corporation, 620 Leshar Place, Lansing, Michigan 48912.

QUARTERLY FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Notice to Neogen Shareholders

With the start of our 2004 fiscal year (June 1, 2003), Neogen will no longer be printing and distributing regular quarterly reports to our shareholders as we have for many years.

We've found that the vast majority of our shareholders have instant access via the Internet to our quarterly earnings press releases, as well as expanded financial information on our Web site, www.neogen.com. The distribution of printed financial results no longer provides the timeliness that investors have come to expect in the Internet age.

If you do not have access to the Internet, or would prefer to receive printed versions of our quarterly financial results, please contact our Investor Relations Manager, Rick Kanaby, at 800/234-5333 or 517/372-9200.

Sincerely,
