FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements made herein contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The words "expect," "will," "look forward to" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

The expectations set forth in this filing regarding accretion, returns on invested capital, achievement of annual savings and synergies, achievement of strong cash flow, sufficiency of cash flow to fund capital expenditures and achievement of debt reduction targets are only the parties' expectations regarding these matters. Actual results could differ materially from these expectations depending on factors such as the combined company's cost of capital, the ability of the combined company to identify and implement cost savings, synergies and efficiencies in the time frame needed to achieve these expectations, prior contractual commitments of the combined companies and their ability to terminate these commitments or amend, renegotiate or settle the same, the combined company's actual capital needs, the absence of any material incident of property damage or other hazard that could affect the need to effect capital expenditures, any unforeseen merger or acquisition opportunities that could affect capital needs, the costs incurred in implementing synergies and the factors that generally affect both Yellow's and Roadway's respective businesses as further outlined in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in each of the companies' respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the Risk Factors outlined in Yellow's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 4, 2003 and its Registration Statement on Form S-4 filed on August 19, 2003. Yellow's plans regarding the maintenance of the separate Yellow and Roadway brands and networks, the continuation of the Roadway headquarters as a major operational center, the focus on administrative and back office synergies and workforce rationalizations are only its current plans and intentions regarding these matters. Actual actions that the combined company may take may differ from time to time as the combined company may deem necessary or advisable in the best interest of the combined company and its shareholders to attempt to achieve the successful integration of the companies, the synergies needed to make the transaction a financial success and to react to the economy and the combined company's market for its transportation services.

NEWS RELEASE

YELLOW CORPORATION

September 17, 2003

For Immediate Release

YELLOW CONFIRMS AND NARROWS THIRD QUARTER 2003 GUIDANCE

ØCertain costs of proposed Roadway acquisition recognized during third quarter 2003

ØRecord date established for Yellow stockholders

ØClosing of Roadway transaction targeted by year-end 2003

OVERLAND PARK, KAN. Yellow Corporation (NASDAQ: YELL) (Yellow) today updated third quarter 2003 earnings guidance and provided information on certain acquisition-related costs recognized during the quarter. Excluding these acquisition-related costs, earnings for third quarter 2003 are expected to range from $.72 to $.77 per share. Yellow had previously provided guidance for the third quarter of $.70 to $.80 per share, which excluded acquisition costs. Including these costs, third quarter 2003 earnings are expected to be in the range of $.56 to $.61 per share.

Third quarter 2003 acquisition-related costs total about $7.8 million, or $.16 per share, and are comprised primarily of $7.4 million, or $.15 per share, in financing and other expenses related to the proposed acquisition of Roadway Corporation (NASDAQ: ROAD) (Roadway). Financing costs include interest expense on $250 million of contingent convertible notes issued in early August, fees associated with committed financing arrangements and debt prepayment costs. Other costs are primarily related to employee, investor and media communications regarding the transaction. In addition, the third quarter of 2003 will include about $.4 million, or $.01 per share, in integration costs associated with the recent acquisition of certain domestic assets of global logistics service provider GPS Logistics.

Yellow Transportation and Meridian IQ continue their solid performance, enabling us to generate strong levels of profitability in the third quarter, said Bill Zollars, Chairman, President and CEO of Yellow Corporation. In addition, July and August 2003 business volumes at Yellow Transportation were approximately 10 percent above the levels experienced for the same months of 2002. As expected, September 2003 business volumes are nearer the 2002 levels, which benefited from a surge in business created by the closure of Consolidated Freightways.

Update on Proposed Acquisition of Roadway by Yellow

Yellow has declared October 16, 2003 as the record date for Yellow stockholders in connection with the Roadway acquisition. Stockholders of Yellow common stock as of the close of trading on October 16, 2003, will have the right to participate in a special meeting of stockholders to approve matters related to the acquisition of Roadway by Yellow. The shareholder meeting is expected to occur in December 2003.

All aspects of the Roadway acquisition are progressing as planned, Zollars stated. We expect to close the transaction by the end of this year.
