ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In accordance with our Code of Regulations, the number of directors has been fixed at eight. At the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, you will elect seven directors to hold office until our next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. The Company has retained a search firm to identify a candidate for consideration by the Company's nominating and corporate governance committee and the Board of Directors to fill the one remaining vacancy that will continue to exist after the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. If that vacancy is filled after the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders by the Board of Directors, the person filling the vacancy, if nominated by the Board of Directors, will be a candidate for election as a director at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Mr. Cloyd Abruzzo resigned from the Board of Directors on December 31, 2003. Messrs. Corey and Lasky were appointed by the Board of Directors on January 16, 2004 to fill two of the vacancies that existed on the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors proposes that the nominees described below, all of whom are currently serving as directors, be elected to the Board of Directors. At the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the shares represented by proxies, unless otherwise specified, will be voted for the election of the seven nominees hereinafter named.

The director nominees are identified in the following table. If for any reason any of the nominees is not a candidate when the election occurs (which is not expected), the Board of Directors expects that proxies will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee designated by management. The following information is furnished with respect to each person nominated for election as a director.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the following nominees.

Nominees for Election at the Annual Meeting

Name and Age	Principal Occupation and Business Experience	Period of Service as a Director	Expiration of Term for Which Proposed
Richard E. Cheney 82	Psychoanalyst in private practice, retired in 1995 as Chairman of Hill & Knowlton, Inc., a public relations firm	1988 to date	2005
Avery S. Cohen 67	Partner, Baker & Hostetler LLP, a law firm	1988 to date	2005
John C. Corey 56	President and Chief Executive Officer of Safety Components International, a supplier of air bags and components	2004 to date	2005
D.M. Draime 70	Interim President and Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Assistant Secretary of the Company	1988 to date	2005
Sheldon J. Epstein 65	Managing Member, Epstein, Weber & Conover, P.L.C., an independent public accounting firm	1988 to date	2005
William M. Lasky 56	Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of JLG Industries, Inc., a diversified construction and industrial equipment manufacturer	2004 to date	2005
Earl L. Linehan	President, Woodbrook Capital Inc., a venture capital and investment firm	1988 to date	2005

Each of the nominees for election as a director has engaged in the principal occupation or activity indicated for at least five years, except for Mr. Corey who was the president and chief operating officer of Safety Components International from 1999 to 2000, when he became the company's president and chief executive officer; and Mr. Epstein who was (1) the managing member of Epstein, Woods & Dwyer, P.L.C., an independent public accounting firm, from 1994 until June 1999 and (2) a principal in the independent public accounting firm Gaintner, Bandler & Reed, P.L.C., from June 1999 to December 2001.

Legal Proceedings. On April 10, 2000, Safety Components International, the company for which Mr. Corey was the president and chief operating officer, and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries (collectively, the Safety Filing Group), filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (Chapter 11) with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the Bankruptcy Court). On October 11, 2000, the Safety Filing Group emerged from Chapter 11 pursuant to a plan of reorganization confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and at that time Mr. Corey became the president and chief executive officer.

Directorships. Mr. Cheney is a director of Rowe Furniture, Inc. and Chattem, Inc. Mr. Corey is a director of Safety Components International. Mr. Lasky is the chairman of the board of directors of JLG Industries, Inc.

Independent Directors. The new New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) rules require listed companies to have a Board of Directors with at least a majority of independent directors. Under the NYSE rules, a director qualifies as independent upon the affirmative determination that the director has no material relationship with the company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the company). The Board has determined that Messrs. Cheney, Corey, Epstein, Lasky and Linehan are independent. The Board considered Mr. Linehan's ownership interest in Industrial Development Associates LP (IDA) (see Certain Relationships and Related Transactions), a company that owns a building that we lease, and determined the lease to be immaterial and that Mr. Linehan's independent judgment has not been and will not be compromised by his investment in IDA. The lease will expire in March 2004.

Committees of the Board and Meeting Attendance. In 2003, our Board of Directors held seven meetings and took action by unanimous written consent on one occasion. Our Board of Directors has appointed a compensation committee, an audit committee, a nominating and corporate governance committee, and an executive committee. Each member of the compensation, audit, and nominating and corporate governance committees is independent as defined under the current listing standards of the NYSE. The Board of Directors does not currently have a finance committee. In 2003, each Board member, except for Messrs. Corey and Lasky who were not directors in 2003, attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees on which he serves. In addition, all directors are expected to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All current directors who were directors at the time attended the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Beginning this year, the NYSE rules require that non-management directors meet in regularly scheduled executive sessions. The NYSE rules further state that the independent directors should meet at least once a year in executive session. Mr. Lasky has been appointed as the presiding director by the non-management directors to preside at these sessions.

Compensation Committee. The compensation committee is comprised of Messrs. Cheney, Lasky and Linehan. This committee held four meetings during 2003. The compensation committee reviews employment, development, reassignment and compensation matters involving corporate officers and other executive level employees, including issues related to salary, bonus and incentive arrangements. The compensation committee also administers our Long-Term Incentive Plan. Our Board of Directors has adopted a charter for this committee, which is available on our website at www.stoneridge.com.

Audit Committee. The audit committee is comprised of Messrs. Cheney, Corey, and Epstein. This committee held two meetings during 2003. Information regarding the functions performed by the audit committee is set forth in the Audit Committee Report, included in this proxy statement. The audit committee is governed by a written charter, which was approved by the Board of Directors. A copy of this charter is attached as Appendix A. The charter is also available on our website at www.stoneridge.com.

The Board of Directors has determined that all audit committee members are financially literate under the current listing standards of the NYSE. The Board also determined that Mr. Epstein qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the SEC rules adopted pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. In addition, under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the new NYSE rules mandated by the SEC, members of the audit committee must have no affiliation with the issuer, other than their Board seat, and receive no compensation in any capacity other than as a director or committee member. Each member of our audit committee meets this additional independence standard applicable to audit committee members of NYSE listed companies.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The nominating and corporate governance committee is comprised of Messrs. Epstein, Lasky and Linehan. This committee was established in March 2004. The purpose of the nominating and corporate governance committee is to evaluate and recommend candidates for election as directors, make recommendations concerning the size and composition of the Board of Directors, develop and implement the Company's corporate governance policies and assess the effectiveness of the Board of Directors. Our Board of Directors has adopted a charter for this committee, which is available on our website at www.stoneridge.com.

It is the policy of the nominating and corporate governance committee to consider individuals recommended by shareholders for membership on the Board. If a shareholder desires to recommend an individual for membership on the Board, then that shareholder must provide a written notice (the Recommendation Notice) to the Secretary of the Company at Stoneridge, Inc., 9400 East Market Street, Warren, Ohio 44484, on or before January 15 for consideration by this committee for that year's election of directors at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

In addition, in order for a recommendation to be considered by the nominating and corporate governance committee, the Recommendation Notice must contain, at a minimum, the following: the name and address, as they appear on the Company's books, and telephone number of the shareholder making the recommendation, including information on the number of common shares owned and date(s) acquired, and if such person is not a shareholder of record or if such shares are owned by an entity, reasonable evidence of such person's ownership of such shares or such person's authority to act on behalf of such entity; the full legal name, address and telephone number of the individual being recommended, together with a reasonably detailed description of the background, experience and qualifications of that individual; a written acknowledgment by the individual being recommended that he or she has consented to that recommendation and consents to the Company's undertaking of an investigation into that individual's background, experience and qualifications in the event that this committee desires to do so; any information not already provided about the person's background, experience and qualifications necessary for the Company to prepare the disclosure required to be included in the Company's proxy statement about the individual being recommended; the disclosure of any relationship of the individual being recommended with the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, whether direct or indirect; the disclosure of any relation of the individual being recommended with the shareholder, whether direct or indirect, and, if known to the shareholder, any material interest of such shareholder or individual being recommended in any proposals or other business to be presented at the Company's next Annual Meeting of Shareholders (or a statement to the effect that no material interest is known to such shareholder).

The nominating and corporate governance committee determines, and reviews with the Board on an annual basis, the desired skills and characteristics for directors as well as the composition of the Board as a whole. This assessment considers the directors' qualifications and independence, as well as diversity, age, skill and experience in the context of the needs of the Board. At a minimum, directors should share the values of the Company and should possess the following characteristics: high personal and professional integrity; the ability to exercise sound business judgment; an inquiring mind; and the time available to devote to Board activities and the willingness to do so. In addition to the foregoing considerations, generally with respect to nominees recommended by shareholders, the committee will evaluate such recommended nominees considering the additional information regarding them contained in the Recommendation Notices. When seeking candidates for the Board, this committee may solicit suggestions from incumbent directors, management and third-party search firms. Ultimately, the nominating and corporate governance committee will recommend to the Board prospective Board members who the nominating and corporate governance committee believes will be effective, in conjunction with the other members of the Board, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the Company's shareholders.

Executive Committee. The executive committee is comprised of Messrs. Cohen, Draime and Linehan. This committee met once during 2003. The executive committee, during the intervals between the meetings of the Board of Directors, possesses and may exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of our business and affairs, except as otherwise provided (i) by law, (ii) in our Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, or in our Code of Regulations, or (iii) by action of the Board of Directors.

Directors' Compensation. Each director who is not an employee of ours receives $25,000 per year for being a director, $1,000 for attending each meeting of the Board of Directors and $500 for each telephonic meeting of the Board of Directors. There is no additional fee received for attending committee meetings unless such meeting takes place on a day other than the same day as a meeting of the Board of Directors, in which case committee members receive $1,000 for attending such meetings and $500 when the meetings are held telephonically. The audit committee chairman receives an extra $5,000 and the compensation committee chairman receives an extra $2,500. Directors who are also employees of ours are not paid any director's fee. We reimburse out-of-pocket expenses incurred by all directors in connection with attending Board and committee meetings. Each non-employee director also received an option to purchase 6,500 shares at a price equal to the fair market value of the common shares on the date of grant. These option grants to non-employee directors were made on May 14, 2003 at an exercise price of $11.64. These options expire in ten years and become exercisable in one year.

Communications with the Board. Our Board of Directors believes that it is important for shareholders to have a process to send communications to the Board. Accordingly, shareholders who wish to communicate with the Board or a particular director may do so by sending a letter to the Secretary at 9400 East Market Street, Warren, Ohio 44484. The mailing envelope must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a Stockholder-Board Communication or Stockholder-Director Communication. All such letters must identify the author as a shareholder and clearly state whether the intended recipients are all members of the Board of Directors or certain specified individual directors. The Secretary will make copies of all such letters and circulate them to the appropriate director or directors. The directors are not spokespeople for the Company and shareholders should not expect a response or reply to any communication.

Compensation Committee Report

Introduction. The compensation committee (the Committee) is responsible for determining the compensation to be paid to our executive officers and for administering our Long-Term Incentive Plan (the LTIP). The Committee's philosophy with respect to the compensation of our executive officers is (1) to provide a competitive total compensation package that enables us to attract and retain qualified executives and align their compensation with our overall business strategies, and (2) to provide each executive officer with a significant economic stake in our success. To this end, the Committee determines executive compensation with a focus on compensating executive officers based on their responsibilities and performance as well as our performance. The primary components of our executive compensation program are (1) base salaries, (2) bonuses, and (3) equity awards, including share options under the LTIP. The overall objectives of this strategy are not only to attract and retain the best possible executive talent but also to motivate our executives to achieve the goals inherent in our business strategy, to link executive and shareholder interests through equity-based plans and, finally, to provide a compensation package that recognizes individual contributions and overall business results.

Each year the Committee conducts a review of our executive compensation program. In connection with the review of base salary compensation for 2003, the Committee considered a comprehensive report prepared by Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) in October 2002 (the 2002 Compensation Report). The report compared the compensation of our top executive officers to a peer group of public corporations. The Committee also received a second similar and comprehensive report prepared by Ernst & Young in December 2003 (the 2003 Compensation Report). The Committee reviewed and considered the 2002 Compensation Report in determining base salaries for 2003 and considered the 2002 Compensation Report and the 2003 Compensation Report in determining bonuses for 2003.

The Committee reviews the selection of peer companies used for compensation analysis. The peer groups used for compensation analysis are generally not the same as the peer group index in the Performance Graph included in this proxy statement. The Committee believes that our most direct competitors for executive talent are not necessarily all of the companies that would be included in the peer group established for comparing shareholder returns.

The Committee determines the compensation of the most highly compensated corporate executives, including the individuals whose compensation is detailed in this proxy statement, and sets policies for and reviews the compensation awarded to other highly compensated corporate executives. This is designed to ensure consistency throughout the executive compensation program. In reviewing the individual performance of the executives whose compensation is detailed in this proxy statement (other than Mr. Draime), the Committee takes into account the views of Mr. Draime.

Base Salaries and Other Annual Compensation. The Committee sets base salary levels for our executive officers on the basis of the executives' responsibilities. However, in each case, due consideration is given to personal factors, such as the individual's experience and record and the responsibility associated with his position. Also considered are external factors, such as salaries paid to similarly situated executive officers by peer companies and prevailing conditions in the geographic area where the executive's principal services will be performed. In the case of executive officers with responsibility for a particular business unit, that unit's financial results are also considered.

Annual adjustments to each executive officer's salary are determined based on the foregoing factors but with due consideration also being given to prevailing economic conditions, to the relationship of such adjustments to those being given to other employees, to the performance of the executive's duties and responsibilities and to other individual performance-related criteria that may be relevant with respect to such executive officer at the time. Finally, the Committee, where appropriate, also considers non-financial performance measures. These include increase in market share, manufacturing efficiency gains, improvements in product quality and improvements in relations with customers, suppliers and employees.

When determining the appropriate level of Mr. Abruzzo's 2003 base salary, the Committee considered the 2002 Compensation Report and the same factors that it considers when fixing compensation levels for our other executive employees and sought to achieve the same corporate goal. The Committee also considered that no base salary increase was given to Mr. Abruzzo in 2002 as part of a company wide wage freeze. Mr. Abruzzo was granted a base salary of $480,000 for 2003.

Bonuses. Our executive officers are eligible for annual cash bonuses. Bonuses are viewed as a reward for individual contributions to our performance and are based not only on our short-term results but also on the investments for the future growth of our business. In addition, consideration is given to the achievement of selected financial goals (i.e., operating performance, asset management and business growth development) and progress in meeting other long-term objectives and the executive's leadership role in these activities. In order to understand our performance and link that performance to bonus awards the Committee usually does not make bonus awards until the end of the year or shortly thereafter.

Except as noted below with respect to Mr. Abruzzo, the Committee considered the 2002 Compensation Report and the 2003 Compensation Report in determining the appropriate bonuses for executives whose compensation is detailed in this proxy statement. The bonuses granted to our executive officers (except for Cloyd Abruzzo, as described below, and Sten Forseke, who resigned as a vice president of ours and as president of Berifors on December 4, 2003) for 2003 were in large part based on the existing bonus program. In 2004 the Committee intends to complete a review of our bonus programs with the goal of making awards less discretionary and more predictable and, therefore, more transparent to our officers and shareholders.

Mr. Abruzzo's 2003 bonus of $150,000 was not set by the Committee. Rather, the 2003 bonus was part of a negotiated Separation and Consulting Agreement, dated November 28, 2003 (the "Abruzzo Agreement"), which was approved by our Board of Directors, in connection with Mr. Abruzzo's resignation from the Board of Directors and as our president and chief executive officer. The Abruzzo Agreement is attached to our Form 8-K filed with the SEC on December 9, 2003. Our performance in 2003 was not linked to Mr. Abruzzo's bonus award.

Edgar Filing: STONERIDGE INC - Form DEF 14A

Share Options. All of our executive officers are eligible to receive equity awards, including options, to purchase our common shares under the LTIP. We believe that share option grants are a valuable motivating tool and provide a long-term incentive to management. As customary, the Committee granted options for 2003 in February 2003. The Committee granted Mr. Abruzzo 60,000 share options in early 2003. In 2004, in conjunction with its review of the bonus program, the Committee plans on analyzing the potential benefit of granting other types of equity compensation under the LTIP, such as restricted shares.

Conclusion. Through the programs described above, a significant portion of our executive compensation is linked directly to individual and Company performance and share price appreciation. The Committee intends to continue the policy of linking executive compensation to performance and returns to shareholders, recognizing that the fluctuations of the business cycle from time to time may result in an imbalance for a particular period.

Audit Committee Report

The Board of Directors adopted a written charter for the audit committee (the "Audit Committee") on March 4, 2004. In accordance with its written charter, the Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility relating to corporate accounting, reporting practices of the Company, and the quality and integrity of the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Company to any governmental body or to the public. Management is responsible for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal controls. The independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. Our Audit Committee is comprised of three directors, all of whom are independent for audit committee purposes under the current listing standards of the NYSE.

In discharging its oversight responsibility as to the audit process, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2003, with the Company's management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles; the reasonableness of significant judgments; and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90, "Communication with Audit Committees." The Audit Committee also obtained a formal written statement from the independent auditors that described all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditor's independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committee," as amended or supplemented. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors any relationships that might impact their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee also considered whether the provision of non-audit services by Ernst & Young is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young's independence. Management has the responsibility for the preparation of the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors have the responsibility for the examination of those statements.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets with the internal and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal control, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

Based on the above-referenced review and discussions with management and the internal and independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the
