Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 5, 2005, RITA Medical Systems, Inc. (the Company) completed a private placement of subordinated Senior Convertible Notes with an aggregate principal amount of $9.7 million due in 2008 (the Notes). The Company will use the proceeds from the private placement to retire certain of its other outstanding debt obligations.

The Notes were issued pursuant to a Securities Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) among the Company and Atlas Master Fund, Ltd. (the Purchaser). The Purchase Agreement and form of note, which is attached as an exhibit to the Purchase Agreement, provide, among other things, that the Notes will bear interest at a rate of 6.5% per year, which interest is payable semi-annually on December 15 and June 15 each year, beginning December 15, 2005, and are due on August 5, 2008 (the Maturity Date). During the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Notes, the Notes will bear interest at a rate of 12% per year. The Notes are convertible into shares of common stock of the Company (the Common Stock) at an initial conversion price of $4.03 per share of common stock. The conversion price is subject to adjustment in certain circumstances.

If on the Maturity Date the closing price of the Common Stock has been at or above 102% of the then current conversion price for at least 10 consecutive business days immediately preceding the Maturity Date, then any remaining principal outstanding under the Notes shall automatically be converted into Common Stock, subject to certain conditions.

The Notes are subordinate in right of payment to the Company's existing Senior Debt, specifically (i) the Note Purchase Agreement by and among the Company, ComVest Venture Partners, L.P. and the Additional Note Purchasers dated as of March 1, 2002, as amended; (ii) the Agreement by and among Steven Picheny, Howard Fuchs and the Company dated as of March 14, 2002, as amended; and (iii) the Promissory Note by and among Comvest Venture Partners, L.P. and Banc of America Commercial Finance Corporation dated as of March 15, 2002. The Notes will also be subordinate in right of payment to a working capital line in an amount not to exceed $10 million into which the Company may enter in the future (the Future Senior Debt).

As long as the Notes are outstanding, the Company and its subsidiaries will not be permitted to incur any indebtedness other than the Notes, the Senior Debt or the Future Senior Debt. An Event of Default will be deemed to occur if the Company (i) fails to timely file or maintain the effectiveness of a registration statement for the common stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes, (ii) defaults in the payment of the principal or interest on the Notes, (iii) defaults in the performance of any of its obligations or breaches any of its representations or covenants upon ten days notice from the Purchasers, (iv) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or files a petition in bankruptcy, among other things, (v) is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction to, among other things, enter into receivership or liquidate, or (vi) fails to repay certain Senior Debt obligations. Promptly after the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Company may, upon notice from the holder of the Note, be required to offer to redeem all or any portion of the Notes then outstanding at a redemption price equal to the principal balance of the Notes plus all accrued and unpaid interest.

The securities sold pursuant to the Purchase Agreement have not yet been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be offered or sold in the United States in the absence of an effective registration statement or exemption from registration requirements. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company is required to file a registration statement on Form S-3 within 30 days after the closing of the transaction for purposes of registering the resale of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes. If (i) the registration statement is not declared effective within 60 days after the filing in the event that the SEC does not undertake a review of the registration statement, or (ii) such registration statement is not declared effective within 120 days after the filing in the event that the SEC does undertake a review of the registration statement, then the Company has agreed to make pro-rata payments to the Purchaser in an amount equal to 1% of the aggregate purchase price paid by the Purchaser for the Notes for each 30-day period following the applicable deadline or during any period in which sales cannot be made (the Default Fee ), provided that in no event shall the aggregate amount of cash to be paid as Default Fees exceed 12% of the aggregate purchase price paid by the Purchaser for the Notes.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the Purchaser, its affiliates and agents, against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Other than in respect of this transaction, there are no material relationships between the Company, the Purchaser or their respective affiliates, except that the Purchaser and its affiliates currently own 1,348,169 shares of common stock of the Company.

Copies of the Purchase Agreement, including the form of Note attached thereto as an exhibit, are attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.91, and are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein. The foregoing summary description of the Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the transactions contemplated therein is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Purchase Agreement and related exhibits.

Pursuant to the terms of the Notes, the Company must repay the 2002 Notes within 21 days of the issuance of the Notes, or August 26, 2005.
