On November 10, 2005, eLong, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release regarding its unaudited financial results for its third quarter ended September 30, 2005. The Company's press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1. In addition, on November 10, 2005, the Company's management team hosted a conference call to discuss the earnings press release. The information herein and in the press release is intended to be furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

To supplement our consolidated financial statements presented herein in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), the Company also uses non-GAAP measures of adjusted net income and adjusted diluted income per ADS, which are adjusted from results based on GAAP to exclude the impact of non-cash charges related to certain stock based compensation, as well as the impact of charges related to intangibles. Management believes these non-GAAP financial measures enhance the user's overall understanding of our current financial performance and our prospects for the future and, additionally, uses these non-GAAP financial measures for the general purpose of analyzing and managing the Company's business. Specifically, we believe the non-GAAP financial measures provide useful information to both management and investors by excluding certain charges that we believe are not indicative of our core operating results. The presentation of this additional information is not meant to be considered superior to, in isolation from or as a substitute for results prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Any statements contained in this documents that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, forecast, intend, may, plan, project, and similar expressions as they related to the Company are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. The Company undertakes no obligations to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations. The factors that could affect the Company's future financial results are discussed more fully in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its Annual Report on Form 20-F filed for the year ended December 30, 2004. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates.

eLong Reports Third Quarter 2005 Unaudited Financial Results

BEIJING, China November 10, 2005 - eLong, Inc. (NASDAQ: LONG), a leading online travel service provider in China, today reported unaudited financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2005.

Business Highlights

Highlights for the third quarter 2005:

Total revenues increased 56% year-over-year and 15% sequentially to RMB59.4 million (US$7.3 million) and travel revenues increased 60% year-over-year and 15% sequentially to RMB54.2 million (US$6.7 million);

Hotel revenues increased 42% year-over-year and 15% sequentially to RMB42.7 million (US$5.3 million);

Air ticketing revenues increased 121% year-over-year and 50% sequentially to RMB7.5 million (US$927,000); air ticketing represented 13% of total revenues in the third quarter as compared to 9% in the same period one year ago as the Company continues to diversify from its lodging revenue base;

As of September 30, 2005, the Company's cash balance and restricted cash and cash equivalents were US$130.7 million, including restricted cash and cash equivalents of US$9.4 million; and

On July 7, 2005, the Company completed the acquisition of Fortune Trip, a hotel consolidator in China and became SINA's exclusive hotel bookings partner in China pursuant to a three-year strategic advertising cooperation agreement. Currently, eLong enjoys strategic partnerships with China's leading Internet portals SINA, Sohu and Yahoo! China.

We are pleased to report another solid quarter of topline performance with healthy growth in our hotel booking and a strong uptick in our air ticketing revenue. To achieve our long-term mission of becoming the biggest and most profitable seller of travel in China, we continue to focus relentlessly on executing our strategy of providing great products and services, developing a precision execution culture of operational effectiveness and building deep customer relationships, remarked Justin Tang, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of eLong.

Business Results

Total revenues for the third quarter ended September 30, 2005 were RMB59.4 million (US$7.3 million), an increase of 56% from RMB38.0 million (US$4.6 million) reported in the same period in 2004, and an increase of 15% from RMB51.9 million (US$6.3 million) reported in the second quarter.

The Company recorded a net loss of RMB40.5 million (US$5.0 million) for the third quarter, compared to a net loss of RMB723,000 (US$88,000) in the corresponding period a year ago, and a net loss of RMB3.3 million (US$396,000) in the second quarter. As described below, the third quarter net loss includes a one-time non-cash writedown of goodwill and intangibles of RMB17.5 million (US$2.2 million), which related to Ray Time, a company acquired in November 2004 and an unrealized foreign exchange loss of RMB23.4 million (US$2.9 million) as a result of revaluation of the Renminbi which was partly offset by interest income of RMB8.4 million (US$1.0 million). The US GAAP loss per ADS for the third quarter was RMB1.62 (US$0.200), compared to US GAAP loss per ADS of RMB0.10 (US$0.012) in the corresponding period a year ago and US GAAP loss per ADS of RMB0.14 (US$0.017) in the second quarter. Adjusted income for the third quarter (a non-GAAP measure) was RMB4.9 million (US$609,000), compared to adjusted income of RMB1.4 million (US$167,000) in the corresponding period a year ago and adjusted income of RMB0.4 million (US$49,000) in the second quarter. Diluted adjusted income per ADS for the third quarter (also a non-GAAP measure) was RMB0.18 (US$0.022), compared to diluted adjusted income per ADS of RMB0.08 (US$0.009) in the corresponding period a year ago and diluted adjusted income per ADS of RMB0.02 (US$0.002) in the second quarter. Please refer to the attached table for a reconciliation of net loss and loss per ADS under US GAAP to adjusted income/loss and basic and diluted adjusted income/loss per ADS.

Revenue from hotel commissions for the third quarter of 2005 totaled RMB42.7 million (US$5.3 million), an increase of 42% from RMB30.2 million (US$3.6 million) year-over-year, and an increase of 15% from RMB37.1 million (US$4.5 million) sequentially.

The increases in hotel commissions were primarily due to higher room volumes accompanied by higher hotel commission per room night. Hotel room nights booked through eLong increased to 684,000 in the third quarter, up 28% from 536,000 in the corresponding period a year ago, and up 11% sequentially from 615,000 in the second quarter.

Hotel commissions per room night were RMB62 in the third quarter of 2005, up 11% from RMB56 in the corresponding period a year ago and up 3% from RMB60 in the second quarter.

As of September 30, 2005, eLong offered its customers a choice of hotel rooms at discounted rates in almost 3,000 hotels in 280 cities across China as compared to almost 2,800 hotels in 230 cities at the end of the second quarter of 2005, which is evidence of management's continuing efforts to provide better products and services to its customers.

Revenues from air ticketing during the third quarter of 2005 totaled RMB7.5 million (US$927,000), an increase of 121% from RMB3.4 million (US$410,000) year-over-year, and an increase of 50% from RMB5.0 million (US$604,000) sequentially. Volume in air ticket sales continued to grow with 198,000 air tickets sold in the third quarter, more than double the air tickets sold in the corresponding period a year ago and 47% higher than the 135,000 sold in the second quarter. Growth in air ticketing revenues was primarily driven by increased sales of air tickets to eLong's hotel customer base, the acquisition of new air customers and better product offerings.

Other travel revenue in the third quarter of 2005 was RMB4.0 million (US$492,000), an increase from RMB322,000 (US$39,000) year-over-year, and a decrease of 22% from RMB5.1 million (US$617,000) sequentially. The year-over-year increase occurred because the revenues of Ray Time, an operator of hotel loyalty programs across China acquired by eLong in November 2004, were not included in the corresponding period a year ago. The sequential decrease in other travel revenue was a result of a decline in Ray Time's business due to the closing of certain unprofitable projects.

Gross margins in the third quarter were 80% as compared to 82% in the corresponding period a year ago and 78% in the second quarter. The year-over-year decrease in gross margins was a result of additional investment in eLong's hotel call center and the increased revenue contribution from the air ticketing business, which has lower gross margins than the hotel business. The sequential increase in gross margins was a result of improved call center efficiencies.

Operating expenses for the third quarter of 2005, excluding business taxes, writedown of goodwill and intangibles, stock-based compensation and amortization of intangibles, were RMB47.8 million (US$5.9 million), an increase of 70% from RMB28.0 million (US$3.4 million) year-over-year, and an increase of 6% from RMB45.0 million (US$5.4 million) sequentially. The increase in operating expenses from the third quarter of 2004 was mainly due to continuing investments in service development, sales and marketing, and general and administrative expenses.

Service development expenses were RMB9.4 million (US$1.2 million), an increase of 176% from RMB3.4 million (US$411,000) year-over-year, and an increase of 8% from RMB8.7 million (US$1.0 million) sequentially as eLong increased its investments in technology, the eLong.com website and the Company's air, hotel and vacation package products.

Sales and marketing expenses were RMB26.2 million (US$3.2 million) in the third quarter of 2005, an increase of 38% from RMB19.0 million (US$2.3 million) year-over-year, and remained almost flat from RMB26.1 million (US$3.2 million) in the second quarter. The year-over-year increase was due to increases in business volume in the third quarter. Sales and marketing expenses in the third quarter of 2005 were 44% of revenues as compared to 50% in both the corresponding period a year ago and in the second quarter.

General and administrative expenses were RMB12.2 million (US$1.5 million), an increase of 116% from RMB5.6 million (US$682,000) year-over-year, and an increase of 20% from RMB10.2 million (US$1.2 million) sequentially. The year-over-year and sequential increases were due to additional professional fees, headcount expenses and other expenditures associated with the expansion of our business.

During the third quarter eLong made a one-time non cash writedown of goodwill and intangibles of RMB17.5 million (US$2.2 million), which related to Ray Time, the company acquired in November 2004.

Third quarter other loss was RMB15.2 million (US$1.9 million), as compared to other income of RMB455,000 (US$54,000) in the corresponding period one year ago, and other income of RMB7.5 million (US$909,000) in the second quarter of 2005. The third quarter other loss was primarily due to the unrealized foreign exchange loss of RMB23.4 million (US$2.9 million) as a result of revaluation of the Renminbi which was partly offset by interest income of RMB8.4 million (US$1.0 million). The exchange loss of RMB23.4 million (US$2.9 million) arose on the translation of eLong's US$ denominated cash deposits into Renminbi for financial reporting purposes.

Third quarter adjusted income, a non-GAAP measure, was RMB4.9 million (US$609,000), an increase from an adjusted income of RMB1.4 million (US$167,000) year-over-year and an adjusted income of RMB398,000 (US$49,000) in the second quarter of 2005.

As of September 30, 2005, the Company's cash and cash equivalents balance was US$130.7 million, including restricted cash and cash equivalents of US$9.4 million.

eLong is still in the early stage of a promising and potentially huge online travel market. We believe our current level of investment in the business is appropriate as we expect it to further strengthen our leading position and drive long-term value for our shareholders. Along with our healthy revenue growth, we are pleased to note the improvement in our adjusted income, which demonstrates progress in our business operations, said Derek Palaschuk, eLong's Chief Financial Officer.

Management Additions

eLong welcomes Andy Clayton as Vice President of Air and Ken Guo as Vice President of Human Resources into its executive team.

Prior to joining eLong, Mr. Clayton has served as Vice President of Orient Home and as an Operations Controller of B&Q China. Mr. Clayton received his MA in Biological Sciences from Oxford University.

Prior to joining eLong, Mr. Guo has served as Human Resources Director of Infineon Technologies (Suzhou), and Country Human Resources Director of TPG (TNT Post Group China) and Maersk China. Mr. Guo received his bachelor degree from Beijing Normal University.

Business Outlook

eLong expects total revenues for the fourth quarter 2005 within the range of RMB59 million (US$7.3 million) to RMB62 million (US$7.7 million), an increase of 46% to 54% from the fourth quarter of 2004. Excluding the impact of the writedown in goodwill and intangibles in the third quarter of 2005, we expect an increase in operating loss in the fourth quarter of 2005 compared to the third quarter of 2005 as we continue to invest in our business.

Notes to the Financial Statements

Certain of the prior year comparative figures have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation.

Safe Harbor Statement

It is currently expected the Business Outlook will not be updated until the release of eLong's next quarterly earnings announcement; however, eLong reserves the right to update its Business Outlook at any time for any reason.

Statements in this press release concerning eLong's future business, operating results and financial condition are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, forecast, intend, may, plan, project, predict, should and will and similar expressions as they related to the Company are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward looking statements are based upon management's current views and expectations with respect to future events and are not a guarantee of future performance. Furthermore, these statements are, by their nature, subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance and results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors. Factors that could affect the Company's actual results and cause actual results to differ materially from those included in any forward-looking statement include, but are not limited to, eLong's historical operating losses, its limited operating history, declines or disruptions in the travel industry, the recurrence of SARS, an outbreak of bird flu, eLong's reliance on having good relationships with hotel suppliers and airline ticket suppliers, collection risk with respect to eLong's corporate travel accounts receivable, the possibility that eLong will be unable to timely comply with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the risk that eLong will not be successful in competing against new and existing competitors, risks associated with Expedia, Inc.'s (Nasdaq: EXPE) majority ownership interest in eLong and the integration of eLong's business with that of Expedia's, subsequent revaluations of the Chinese currency, the recent transfer of IAC's ownership interest in eLong to Expedia, Inc., a leading worldwide travel services provider with significantly less cash resources than IAC, changes in eLong's management team and other key personnel and other risks outlined in eLong's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (or SEC), including eLong's Form 20-F filed with the SEC in connection with the Company's fiscal year 2004 results and eLong's Form 6-K filed with the SEC in connection with this press release. eLong undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

To supplement our consolidated financial statements presented herein in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP), the Company also uses non-GAAP measures of adjusted net income/(loss) and adjusted diluted income/(loss) per ADS, which are adjusted from results based on US GAAP to exclude the impact of (1) amortization of non-cash compensation expense, (2) amortization and impairment of intangible assets and goodwill, and (3) unrealised foreign exchange gains and losses on the conversion of eLong's US$ denominated net monetary assets/liabilities into Renminbi. Management believes these non-GAAP financial measures enhance the user's overall understanding of our current financial performance and our prospects for the future and, additionally, uses these non-GAAP financial measures for the general purpose of analyzing and managing the Company's business. Specifically, we believe the non-GAAP financial measures provide useful information to both management and investors by excluding certain charges that we believe are not indicative of our core operating results. The presentation of this additional information is not meant to be considered superior to, in isolation from or as a substitute for results prepared in accordance with US GAAP.
