(iii) On January 17, 2006, the Company and William S. For purposes of the Retention Agreement, good reason is defined generally to include a material reduction of his base salary or bonus and incentive compensation, material adverse changes to Mr. Johnson's disability policies or life or disability insurance benefits, unless such changes affect all senior executives equally, and certain relocations.

The Retention Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.4 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
