 - (a) in favor of the approval of the terms of the Amalgamation Agreement, the Amalgamation, the transactions contemplated thereby and any other actions required in furtherance thereof, and
 - (b) against (I) any Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Amalgamation Agreement), (II) any proposal for any recapitalization, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, amalgamation, merger, sale of assets or business combination between the Company and any other person (other than the Amalgamation Agreement, the Amalgamation and the transactions contemplated thereby), (III) any material change in the capitalization or corporate structure of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than the Amalgamation Agreement, the Amalgamation or the transactions contemplated thereby), or any amendment to the Company's memorandum of association or bye-laws, or (IV) any action that would reasonably be expected to (A) result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company under the Amalgamation Agreement or of such Shareholder under the Voting Agreement, (B) preclude fulfillment of any condition under the Amalgamation Agreement to the obligations of any party thereto to consummate the Amalgamation, or (C) impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the transactions contemplated by the Amalgamation Agreement or the Voting Agreement.

The Voting Agreement also contains certain restrictions on transfer with respect to the Covered Shares and certain non-solicitation provisions with respect to the Shareholders, among other provisions. The Voting Agreement will terminate upon the earlier to occur of (i) the effective time of the Amalgamation and (ii) the date that is nine months following the termination of the Amalgamation Agreement, provided that if the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal during such nine month period, the Voting Agreement will terminate upon the consummation or termination of such definitive agreement.
