Arbitration Court Partially Grants VimpelCom Claim Against Federal Tax Service

Moscow, November 24, 2006 - Open Joint Stock Company Vimpel-Communications ( VimpelCom or the Company ) (NYSE: VIP), today announced that the Moscow Arbitration Court heard on the merits the claim filed by VimpelCom against the Federal Tax Service ( FTS ) seeking to invalidate the previously disclosed decision of the FTS stating that the Company owed an additional 1.7 billion rubles (approximately US$64 million) as tax arrears for 2003-2004.

The court ruled to partially grant the claim of VimpelCom (for 490 million rubles or approximately US$18.5 million). VimpelCom does not agree with the court's judgment and will consider filing an appeal against such judgment with the court of appeals.

This press release contains forward-looking statements , as the phrase is defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including statements relating to VimpelCom's possible appeal against the judgment. There can be no assurance that VimpelCom will appeal the judgment and, if it does, that the appellate court will find for the Company. There can be no assurance that the Federal Tax Service will not also appeal against this judgment or that in the event the appeal is filed such judgment will not be reversed by the appellate court. In addition, there can be no assurance that the tax authorities will not claim on the basis of the same asserted tax principles or different tax principles that additional taxes are due from VimpelCom or other entities within the VimpelCom group for other tax years. Certain factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in any forward-looking statements include the risks described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005 and other public filings made by the Company with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, which risk factors are incorporated herein by reference. VimpelCom disclaims any obligation to update developments of these risk factors or to announce publicly any revision to any of the forward-looking statements contained in this Form 6K, or to make corrections to reflect future events or developments.
