Annual Report

March 31, 2007

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

May 15, 2007

Dear Shareholder,

We are pleased to present you with the annual report for Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc. (the Fund) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007.

Performance

Over the one-year period, the Fund returned 6.31% on a net asset value basis and 8.83% on a market price basis. Over the same period, the median returns for the Fund's peer group, the Lipper Insured Municipal Debt Funds (Leveraged) category, were 5.95% and 5.61% based on net asset value and market price, respectively. Finally, the Fund's benchmark, the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index (the Index), returned 5.43% for the period. (For more performance information, please refer to Performance at a glance on page 6).

The Fund continued to use leverage during the period, which was approximately 39% of total assets as of March 31, 2007. While short-term rates rose at the beginning of the period and increased the Fund's borrowing costs, this leverage still had a positive effect on the Fund's income during the reporting period, as the yields on the Fund's longer-term bonds more than offset the borrowing costs. Leverage magnifies returns on both the upside and on the downside, creating a wider range of returns within the Fund's peer group.

The Fund traded at a discount to its net asset value (NAV) per share during the entire reporting period. A fund trades at a discount when the market price at which its shares trade is less than its NAV. Alternately, a fund trades at a premium when the market price at which its shares trade is more than its NAV per share. The market price is the price the market is willing to pay for shares of a fund at a given time, and may be influenced by a range of factors, including supply and demand and market conditions. NAV per share is determined by dividing the value of the Fund's securities, cash and other assets, less all liabilities, by the total number of common shares outstanding.

An interview with Portfolio Manager Kevin McIntyre

Q. How would you describe the economic environment during the reporting period?

A. After a prolonged period of overall solid growth, the US economy produced mixed results, with evidence of a slowdown apparent as the fiscal year drew to a close. Gross domestic product growth (or GDP the market value of all goods and services produced within a country in a given period of time) during the second quarter of 2006 came in at 2.6%, followed by third and fourth quarter numbers of 2.0% and 2.5%, respectively. The advance estimate for first quarter 2007 GDP growth fell to 1.3%.

Overall, the period of more moderate growth was attributed to several factors, including the delayed impact of rising short-term interest rates, high oil prices, the troubled automotive sector, and the cooling of the once red-hot housing market. However, employment growth and corporate earnings were relatively strong, and commodity prices decreased midway through the reporting period, easing some of the pressure on consumers. Late in the reporting period, a bout of volatility gripped the markets. On February 27, 2007, the Dow Jones Industrial Average declined over 400 points, and the Treasury market rallied significantly in response.

Q. How did the Federal Reserve Board (the Fed) react to these economic conditions?

A. At the beginning of the fiscal year in April 2006, the Fed continued its tightening campaign. It raised the federal funds rate (the interest rate banks charge each other for overnight loans) by 25 basis points (0.25%) twice, bringing it to 5.25% by July 2006. In early August, the Fed paused in what had been a series of 17 consecutive rate hikes stretching back to June 2004. The Fed then held rates steady for the duration of the review period, indicating that future rate movements would be data-dependent, as it attempts to keep the economy growing at a reasonable pace and to ward off inflation. While the Fed remains focused on the risks of rising inflation, we currently expect the pause to continue through at least the first half of 2007.

Q. How did the municipal bond market perform in this environment?

A. On the whole, the municipal bond market outperformed Treasuries throughout the reporting period. During the first half of the reporting period, Treasury yields rose, resulting in corresponding price declines, while municipal securities with maturities of 10 to 15 years and longer increased in price during the same period. The difference when comparing performance between municipals and Treasuries was greatest in securities with maturities of around 30 years; the yields on these municipal bonds rose less than Treasury yields, with lack of supply causing municipal bond issues to be relatively expensive.

During the second half of the reporting period, municipals generally maintained their value versus Treasuries, with some slight underperformance among securities with a shorter maturity date (the short end of the yield curve). The municipal curve maintained its relative steepness versus the Treasury curve during this time. Municipal bonds in general continued to be expensive relative to Treasury bonds, but moved closer to our fair value estimates during the latter half of the reporting period.

Q. In general terms, how did you position the portfolio?

A. In terms of duration, we kept a neutral position versus the Index at the beginning of the reporting period. (Duration is a measure of a fund's sensitivity to interest rate changes and is related to the maturity of the bonds comprising the portfolio.) We maintained a modified barbell strategy, concentrating on securities at both ends of the maturity spectrum. Our position in longer-term maturities benefited the portfolio on an absolute basis, as the longer end of the curve outperformed every other area on the yield curve.

We also diversified away from higher grade securities to a limited extent during this time, increasing the Fund's position in relatively lower-rated but still investment-grade securities. Additionally, we increased the Fund's position in securities subject to the alternative minimum tax (AMT) to bring the Fund's investment style more in line with that of its peers, with the goal of making it more competitive. Both of these strategies proved beneficial to Fund performance.

Toward the middle of the reporting period, we moved to a slightly shorter-than-neutral duration versus the Index, a stance which we maintained for the rest of the period. Although Treasury yields fell during this time, our moderate duration stance limited the impact that this event had on Fund performance. While we continued the modified barbell strategy, we did find opportunities in select areas. We sought to add A and BBB rated bonds where we believed the Fund would be compensated for taking on additional risk.

Q. Which sector positions were important for the Fund?

A. We focused our research on uncovering new opportunities in the water, airport and hospital sectors. This research indicates that the water sector tends to have stronger revenue and earnings stability than some other sectors of the municipal market, even in changing economic climates. We slightly increased the Fund's position in water related bonds during the period. As we continued to view the sector positively, it represented the Fund's largest sector position at period end.

Meanwhile, the airport sector continued to rebound, showing strong fundamentals throughout the period. A significant portion of airport sector bonds are subject to the AMT and tend to offer higher yields. The Fund owns NYC IDA revenue bonds for the Terminal One Group Association, which performed well over the period, helping us to diversify the credit quality of the portfolio.

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

While our long-term outlook for the healthcare sector as a whole generally remains on the negative side, we favor those issues that have benefited from the ongoing consolidation. With that in mind, we selectively added to our holdings in this sector, and performance has been solid in recent months.

Although the tobacco sector posted very strong performance yet again during the reporting period, we continued to avoid it, which detracted from performance during the period. We do not believe the potential rewards in the tobacco sector are commensurate with the risks our analysis indicates these bonds entail. In an attempt to concentrate Fund assets on risks we believe are likely to be compensated, we avoided exposure to this sector.

Q. Were there any states or regions that were an area of focus for the Fund?

A. As of March 31, 2007, the Fund had 67.1% of its assets invested in securities of issuers from five states. We continued to focus on states that exhibited improved fiscal health and offered what we considered to be attractively valued municipal bonds. Issues that we believe met that definition included long-term California bonds and New York securities. While we opportunistically reduced these positions at times to benefit performance, California remained our largest single state exposure at period end. During the period, we found Texas bonds attractive, and increased our exposure to New Jersey bonds, primarily with the purchase of New Jersey Transportation Trust Fund bonds, one of our best-performing bonds over the period. At the beginning of the reporting period, we maintained an underweight to Puerto Rico versus the Fund's benchmark, which we selectively lessened throughout the period as Puerto Rico's credit improved.

Q. What is your outlook for the economy and the municipal fixed income market?

A. Throughout the reporting period, corporate earnings appeared quite healthy, while employment and wage data appeared strong. We plan to continue to monitor a number of factors, including inflation and the overall strength of the economy, both of which will likely be primary factors in the Fed's future decisions on interest rates. We believe that it is likely that the economy will recover to trendlike growth, and we do not believe that the cooling housing market will likely cause a recession. With respect to the municipal bond market, we believe there continue to be pockets of attractive valuations along the yield curve and within certain sectors. Our in-house research should help position the Fund well in hopes of taking advantage of those investment opportunities we identify in the months and quarters that follow.

Past performance does not predict future performance. The return and value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The Fund's net asset value (NAV) returns assume, for illustration only, that dividends and other distributions, if any, were reinvested at the NAV on the payable dates. The Fund's market price returns assume that all dividends and other distributions, if any, were reinvested at prices obtained under the Fund's Dividend Reinvestment Plan. Returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder could pay on Fund dividends and other distributions, if any, or the sale of Fund shares.

The Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index is an unmanaged, unleveraged measure of the total return for municipal bonds issued across the United States. Index returns do not include reinvestment of dividends and do not reflect any fees or expenses.

Total investment return does not reflect brokerage commissions. Returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder could pay on Fund dividends and other distributions, if any, or the sale of Fund shares.

Notes to financial statements

Organization and significant accounting policies

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc. (the Fund) was incorporated in Maryland on February 18, 1993, and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a closed-end diversified management investment company. The Fund's investment objective is to achieve a high level of current income that is exempt from federal income tax, consistent with the preservation of capital. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objective will be achieved.

In the normal course of business the Fund may enter into contracts that contain a variety of representations or that provide indemnification for certain liabilities. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, the Fund has not had prior claims or losses pursuant to these contracts and expects the risk of loss to be remote.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with US generally accepted accounting principles requires the Fund's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies:

Valuation of investments The Fund calculates its net asset value based on the current market value, where available, for its portfolio securities. The Fund normally obtains market values for its securities from independent pricing sources and broker-dealers. Independent pricing sources may use last reported sale prices, current market quotations or valuations from computerized matrix systems that derive values based on comparable securities. A matrix system incorporates parameters such as security quality, maturity and coupon, and/or research and evaluations by its staff, including review of broker-dealer market price quotations, if available, in determining the valuation of the portfolio securities. If a market value is not available from an independent pricing source for a particular security, that security is valued at fair value as determined in good faith by or under the direction of the Fund's Board of Directors (the Board). Various factors may be reviewed in order to make a good faith determination of a security's fair value. These factors may include, but are not limited to, the type and cost of the security; contractual or legal restrictions on resale of the security; relevant financial or business developments of the issuer; actively traded similar or related securities; conversion or exchange rights on the security; related corporate actions; and changes in overall market conditions. If events occur that materially affect the value of securities between the close of trading in those securities and the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange, the securities are fair valued. The amortized cost method of valuation, which approximates market value, generally is used to value short-term debt instruments with sixty days or less remaining to maturity, unless the Board or its delegate determines that this does not represent fair value. Securities traded in the over-the-counter (OTC) market are valued at the last bid price available on the valuation date prior to valuation.

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

Notes to financial statements

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (FAS 157). This standard clarifies the definition of fair value for financial reporting, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and requires additional disclosures about the use of fair value measurements. FAS 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and interim periods within those fiscal years. As of March 31, 2007, management does not believe the adoption of FAS 157 will impact the amounts reported in the financial statements, however, additional disclosures will be required about the inputs used to develop the measurements of fair value and the effect of certain measurements reported on the Statement of operations for a fiscal period.

Investment transactions and investment income Investment transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized gains and losses from investment transactions are calculated using the identified cost method. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Discounts are accreted and premiums are amortized as adjustments to interest income and the identified cost of investments.

Futures contracts Upon entering into a financial futures contract, the Fund is required to deliver to a broker an amount of cash and/or securities equal to a certain percentage of the contract amount. This amount is known as the initial margin . Subsequent payments, known as variation margin , are made or received by the Fund each day, depending on the daily fluctuations in the value of the underlying financial futures contracts. Such variation margin is recorded for financial statement purposes on a daily basis as unrealized gain or loss until the financial futures contract is closed, at which time the net gain or loss is reclassified to realized gain or loss on futures. Variation margin calls could be substantial in the event of adverse price movements.

Using financial futures contracts involves various market risks. If the Fund was unable to liquidate a futures position due to the absence of a liquid secondary market or the imposition of price limits, it could incur substantial losses and would continue to be subject to market risk with respect to the position. In addition, the Fund would continue to be required to make variation margin payments and might be required to maintain the position being hedged or to maintain cash or securities in a separate account. Furthermore, certain characteristics of the futures market might increase the risk that movements in the prices of the financial futures contracts might not correlate perfectly with movements in the prices of the investments being hedged, including temporary price distortion. The separate account for margin will be maintained at the futures counterparty and may be subject to risks or delays if the counterparty became insolvent.

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

Notes to financial statements

Interest rate swap agreements The Fund may enter into interest rate swap agreements for hedging purposes. This type of swap is an agreement that obligates two parties to exchange a series of cash flows at specified intervals based upon or calculated by reference to a specified interest rate(s) for a specified amount. The payment flows are usually netted against each other, with the difference being paid by one party to the other.

Risks may arise as a result of the failure of the counterparty to the swap contract to comply with the terms of the contract. The loss incurred by the failure of a counterparty is generally limited to the net interest payment to be received by the Fund. Therefore, the Fund considers the creditworthiness of the counterparty to a swap contract in evaluating potential credit risk.

The Fund accrues for interim payments on swap contracts on a daily basis, with the net amount recorded within unrealized appreciation/depreciation of swap contracts on the Statement of assets and liabilities. Once interim payments are settled in cash, the net amount is recorded as realized gain/loss on swaps, in addition to realized gain/loss recorded upon the termination of swap contracts on the Statement of operations. Fluctuations in the value of swap contracts are recorded for financial statement purposes as unrealized appreciation or depreciation of swaps. At March 31, 2007, the Fund was not invested in any interest rate swap agreements.

Dividends and distributions The Fund intends to pay monthly dividends to common shareholders at a rate level that over time will result in the distribution of all of the Fund's net investment income remaining after the payment of dividends on any outstanding auction preferred shares. The dividend rate on the common stock is adjusted as necessary to reflect the earnings rate of the Fund. Dividends and distributions to common shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Dividends to auction preferred shareholders are accrued daily. The amount of dividends from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains is determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from US generally accepted accounting principles. These book/tax differences are either considered temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal tax-basis treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification.

Concentration of risk

The Fund follows an investment policy of investing primarily in municipal obligations of various states. Economic changes affecting those states and certain of their public bodies and municipalities may affect the ability of the issuers within those states to pay interest on, or repay principal of, municipal obligations held by the Fund.

Investment advisor and administrator

The Board has approved an Investment Advisory and Administration Contract (Advisory Contract) with UBS Global Asset Management (Americas) Inc. (UBS Global AM), under which UBS Global AM serves as investment advisor and administrator of the Fund. UBS Global AM is an indirect wholly owned asset management subsidiary of UBS AG, an internationally diversified organization with headquarters in Zurich and Basel, Switzerland and operations in many areas of the financial services industry. In accordance with the Advisory Contract, the Fund is obligated to pay UBS Global AM an investment advisory and administration fee, which is accrued weekly and paid monthly, at the annual rate of 0.90% of the Fund's average weekly net assets attributable to holders of common and auction preferred shares. For the period April 1, 2006 through July 31, 2006, UBS Global AM had agreed to waive 0.30% of the advisory and administration fee, so that the Fund's effective fee was 0.60% of average weekly net assets attributable to holders of common and auction preferred shares. Effective August 1, 2006, UBS Global AM agreed to further reduce the Fund's management fee so that the Fund's effective fee for the period August 1, 2006 through March 31, 2007 was 0.83% of the Fund's average weekly net assets attributable only to holders of common shares. (Since the Fund pays a fee that is now computed based only on a portion of the Fund's assets, the overall fee rate paid by the Fund for the period August 1, 2006, through March 31, 2007, declined to the equivalent of 0.49% of average weekly net assets attributable to holders of common and auction preferred shares.) This waiver will continue indefinitely unless the Board agrees to any change. At March 31, 2007, the Fund owed UBS Global AM $219,369 for investment advisory and administration fees, which is composed of $398,391 of investment advisory and administration fees less fees waived of $179,022. For the year ended March 31, 2007, UBS Global AM waived $1,914,331 of investment advisory and administration fees from the Fund.

Additional information regarding compensation to affiliate of a board member

Effective March 1, 2005, Professor Meyer Feldberg accepted the position of senior advisor to Morgan Stanley, resulting in him becoming an interested director of the Fund. The Fund has been informed that Professor Feldberg's role at Morgan Stanley does not involve matters directly affecting any UBS funds. Fund transactions are executed through Morgan Stanley based on that firm's ability to provide best execution of the transactions. During the year ended March 31, 2007, the Fund purchased and sold certain securities (e.g., fixed income securities) in principal trades with Morgan Stanley having an aggregate value of $44,877,046. Morgan Stanley received compensation in connection with these trades, which may have been in the form of a mark-up or mark-down of the price of the securities, a fee from the issuer for maintaining a commercial paper program, or some other form of compensation. Although the precise amount of this compensation is not generally known by UBS Global AM, UBS Global AM believes that under normal circumstances it represents a small portion of the total value of the transactions. In addition, Morgan Stanley may participate as a broker-dealer in auctions for the Fund's auction preferred shares and receive compensation therefore. Amounts received by Morgan Stanley, if any, will vary depending upon that firm's participation in an auction, and such amounts are calculated and paid by the auction agent from money provided by the Fund.

Auction preferred shares

The Fund has issued 800 shares of auction preferred shares Series A, 800 shares of auction preferred shares Series B, 800 shares of auction preferred shares Series C, 600 shares of auction preferred shares Series D, 600 shares of auction preferred shares Series E and 600 shares of auction preferred shares Series F, which are referred to herein collectively as the APS. All shares of each series of APS have a liquidation preference of $50,000 per share plus an amount equal to accumulated but unpaid dividends upon liquidation.

Dividends, and/or capital gain distributions, which are cumulative, are generally reset every 7 days for each Series of APS. Dividend rates as of March 31, 2007 for each Series of APS were as follows:

Series A	3.700%
Series B	3.750%
Series C	3.599%
Series D	3.750%
Series E	3.750%
Series F	3.500%

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

Notes to financial statements

The Fund is subject to certain restrictions relating to the APS. Failure to comply with these restrictions could preclude the Fund from declaring any distributions to common shareholders or repurchasing common shares and/or could trigger the mandatory redemption of APS at liquidation value.

The APS are entitled to one vote per share and, unless otherwise required by law, will vote with holders of common stock as a single class, except that the APS will vote separately as a class on certain matters, as required by law. The holders of the APS have the right to elect two directors of the Fund.

The redemption of the Fund's APS is outside of the control of the Fund because it is redeemable upon the occurrence of an event that is not solely within the control of the Fund.

Purchases and sales of securities

For the year ended March 31, 2007, aggregate purchases and sales of portfolio securities, excluding short-term securities, were $190,348,340 and $187,428,671, respectively.

Federal tax status

The Fund intends to distribute substantially all of its tax-exempt income and any taxable income and to comply with the other requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies. Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes is required. In addition, by distributing during each calendar year substantially all of its net investment income, net realized capital gains and certain other amounts, if any, the Fund intends not to be subject to a federal excise tax.

The tax character of distributions paid during the fiscal years ended March 31, 2007 and March 31, 2006 were as follows:

Distributions paid from:	2007	2006
Tax-exempt income	$19,708,281	$18,093,862
Ordinary income	77,910	763,385
Net long-term capital gains	1,061,574	5,008,254
Total distributions paid	$20,847,765	$23,865,501

At March 31, 2007, the components of accumulated earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Undistributed ordinary income	$546,384
Net unrealized appreciation of investments	6,120,561
Total accumulated earnings	$6,666,945

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

Notes to financial statements

The differences between book-basis and tax-basis unrealized appreciation/depreciation of investments is attributable to the realization for tax purposes of unrealized gains/losses on certain securities that were marked-to-market and premium amortization adjustments.

For federal income tax purposes, the tax cost of investments and the components of net unrealized appreciation of investments at March 31, 2007 were as follows:

Tax cost of investments	$514,565,575
Gross unrealized appreciation	6,986,804
Gross unrealized depreciation	(866,243)
Net unrealized appreciation	$6,120,561

To reflect reclassifications arising from permanent book/tax differences for the year ended March 31, 2007, the Fund's undistributed net investment income was increased by $71,832 and accumulated net realized losses from investments, futures and swaps was increased by $71,832. These differences are primarily due to the tax treatment of market discount and reclassification of dividends.

On July 13, 2006, FASB released FASB Interpretation No. 48 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (FIN 48). FIN 48 provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in the financial statements. FIN 48 requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing a fund's tax return to determine whether the tax positions are more-likely-than-not of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet a more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax expense in the current year. Adoption of FIN 48 is required for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006 and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the effective date. Based on the Securities and Exchange Commission's announcement on December 22, 2006, the implementation of FIN 48 must be incorporated into accounting practices no later than the last business day that occurs in the period covered by the Fund's September 30, 2007 semiannual report. Management continues to evaluate the application of FIN 48 to the Fund, and is not in a position at this time to estimate the significance of its impact, if any, on the Fund's financial statements.

The Board of Directors and Shareholders

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc. (the Fund), including the portfolio of investments, as of March 31, 2007, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets applicable to common shareholders for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund s management. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Fund s internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial highlights, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of March 31, 2007, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers or by other appropriate auditing procedures where replies from brokers were not received. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc. at March 31, 2007, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets applicable to common shareholders for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with US generally accepted accounting principles.

Dividend reinvestment plan

The Fund's Board has established a Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the Plan) under which all common shareholders whose shares are registered in their own names, or in the name of UBS Financial Services Inc. or its nominee, will have all dividends and other distributions on their shares of common stock automatically reinvested in additional shares of common stock, unless such common shareholders elect to receive cash. Common shareholders who elect to hold their shares in the name of another broker or nominee should contact such broker or nominee to determine whether, or how, they may participate in the Plan. The ability of such shareholders to participate in the Plan may change if their shares are transferred into the name of another broker or nominee.

Insured Municipal Income Fund Inc.

General information (unaudited)

A common shareholder may elect not to participate in the Plan or may terminate participation in the Plan at any time without penalty, and common shareholders who have previously terminated participation in the Plan may rejoin it at any time. Changes in elections must be made in writing to the Fund's transfer agent and should include the shareholder's name and address as they appear on the share certificate or in the transfer agent's records. An election to terminate participation in the Plan, until such election is changed, will be deemed an election by a common shareholder to take all subsequent distributions in cash. An election will be effective only for distributions declared and having a record date at least ten days after the date on which the election is received.

Additional shares of common stock acquired under the Plan will be purchased in the open market, on the NYSE or otherwise, at prices that may be higher or lower than the net asset value per share of the common stock at the time of the purchase. The number of shares of common stock purchased with each dividend will be equal to the result obtained by dividing the amount of the dividend payable to a particular shareholder by the average price per share (including applicable brokerage commissions) that the transfer agent was able to obtain in the open market. The Fund will not issue any new shares of common stock in connection with the Plan. There currently is no charge to participants for reinvesting dividends or other distributions. The transfer agent's fees for handling the reinvestment of distributions will be paid by the Fund. However, each participant pays a pro rata share of brokerage commissions incurred with respect to the transfer agent's open market purchases of common stock in connection with the reinvestment of distributions. The automatic reinvestment of dividends and other distributions in shares of common stock does not relieve participants of any income tax that may be payable on such distributions.

Experience under the Plan may indicate that changes are desirable. Accordingly, the Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan with respect to any dividend or other distribution if notice of the change is sent to Plan participants at least 30 days before the record date for such distribution. The Plan also may be amended or terminated by the transfer agent by at least 30 days written notice to all Plan participants. Additional information regarding the Plan may be obtained from, and all correspondence concerning the Plan should be directed to, the transfer agent at PFPC Inc., P.O. Box 43027, Providence, Rhode Island 02940-3027. For further information regarding the Plan, you may also contact the transfer agent directly at 1-800-331 1710.

The registrant's Audit Committee (audit committee) has adopted an Audit Committee Charter (Amended and Restated as of May 12, 2004-Revised as of November 6, 2006) (the charter). The charter contains the audit committee's pre-approval policies and procedures. Reproduced below is an excerpt from the charter regarding pre-approval policies and procedures:

The [audit] Committee shall:

2. Pre-approve (a) all audit and permissible non-audit services¹ to be provided to the Fund and (b) all permissible non-audit services to be provided by the Fund's independent auditors to UBS Global [Asset Management (Americas) Inc. In carrying out this responsibility, the Committee shall seek periodically from UBS Global [AM] and from the independent auditors a list of such audit and permissible non-audit services that can be expected to be rendered to the Fund, UBS Global [AM] or any Covered Service Providers by the Fund's independent auditors, and an estimate of the fees sought to be paid in connection with such services. The Committee may delegate its responsibility to pre-approve any such audit and permissible non-audit services to a sub-committee consisting of the Chairperson of the Committee and two other members of the Committee as the Chairperson, from time to Item 5. Audit Committee of Listed Registrants.

The registrant has a separately designated standing audit committee (the Audit Committee) established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Audit Committee is comprised of the following board members: Mr. Armstrong, Mr. Bernikow, Mr. Burt, Mr. Garil and Ms. Higgins.

Item 6. Schedule of Investments.

Included as part of the report to shareholders filed under Item 1 of this form.

Item 7. Disclosure of Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures for Closed-End Management Investment Companies.

The registrant's Board of Directors believes that the voting of proxies on securities held by the registrant is an important element of the overall investment process. As such, the Board has delegated the responsibility to vote such proxies to the registrant's advisor. Following is a summary of the proxy voting policy of the advisor.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PHILOSOPHY, VOTING GUIDELINES AND POLICY SUMMARY

The proxy voting policy of UBS Global Asset Management (Americas) Inc. (UBS Global AM) is based on its belief that voting rights have economic value and must be treated accordingly. Generally, UBS Global AM expects the boards of directors of companies issuing securities held by its clients to act as stewards of the financial assets of the company, to exercise good judgment and practice diligent oversight with the management of the company. While there is no absolute set of rules that determines appropriate corporate governance under all circumstances and no set of rules will guarantee ethical behavior, there are certain benchmarks, which, if substantial progress is made toward, give evidence of good corporate governance. UBS Global AM may delegate to an independent proxy voting and research service the authority to exercise the voting rights associated with certain client holdings. Any such delegation shall be made with the direction that the votes be exercised in accordance with UBS Global AM's proxy voting policy.

When UBS Global AM's view of a company's management is favorable, UBS Global AM generally supports current management initiatives. When UBS Global AM's view is that changes to the management structure would probably increase shareholder value, UBS Global AM may not support existing management proposals. In general, UBS Global AM (1) opposes proposals which act to entrench management; (2) believes that boards should be independent of company management and composed of persons with requisite skills, knowledge and experience; (3) opposes structures which impose financial constraints on changes in control; (4) believes remuneration should be commensurate with responsibilities and performance; and (5) believes that appropriate steps should be taken to ensure the independence of auditors.

UBS Global AM has implemented procedures designed to identify whether it has a conflict of interest in voting a particular proxy proposal, which may arise as a result of its or its affiliates' client relationships, marketing efforts or banking and broker/dealer activities. To address such conflicts, UBS Global AM has imposed information barriers between it and its affiliates who conduct banking, investment banking and broker/dealer activities and has implemented procedures to prevent business, sales and marketing issues from influencing our proxy votes. Whenever UBS Global AM is aware of a conflict with respect to a particular proxy, its appropriate local corporate governance committee is required to review and agree to the manner in which such proxy is voted.

Item 8. Portfolio Managers of Closed-End Management Investment Companies.

(a) (2) (iii) Accounts with respect to which an advisory fee is based on the performance of the account.

None

(a) (2) (iv) Conflicts.

The management of the registrant and other accounts by a portfolio manager could result in potential conflicts of interest if the registrant and other accounts have different objectives, benchmarks and fees because the portfolio manager and his team must allocate time and investment expertise across multiple accounts, including the registrant. The portfolio manager and his team manage the registrant and other accounts utilizing an approach that groups similar accounts by characteristics and objectives. The Advisor manages accounts according to their respective objectives, including where possible, those accounts that have specific investment restrictions. Accordingly, portfolio holdings, position sizes, and industry and sector exposures tend to be similar across accounts, which may minimize the potential for conflicts of interest.

If a portfolio manager identifies a limited investment opportunity that may be suitable for more than one account, the registrant may not be able to take full advantage of that opportunity due to an allocation of filled purchase or sale orders across all eligible portfolios and accounts. To deal with these situations, the Advisor has adopted procedures for allocating portfolio trades across multiple accounts to provide fair treatment to all accounts.

The management of personal accounts by a portfolio manager may also give rise to potential conflicts of interest. The Advisor and the registrant have adopted a Code of Ethics that governs such personal trading, but there is no assurance that the Code will adequately address all such conflicts.

(Information in Item 8(a)(2) is provided as of the Registrant's fiscal year end of March 31, 2007.)

(a) (3) Compensation.

The compensation received by portfolio managers at UBS Global AM, including Mr. McIntyre, includes a base salary and incentive compensation as detailed below. Overall compensation can be grouped into three categories: base salary, annual bonuses and UBS AG equity. Base salary is fixed compensation used to recognize the experience, skills and knowledge that the investment professionals bring to their roles. Annual bonuses are correlated with performance and are based on three components: 1) the firm's overall business success; 2) the performance of the respective asset class and/or investment mandate; and 3) an individual's specific contribution to the firm's results. Senior investment professionals may receive a portion of their annual performance-based incentive in the form of deferred or restricted UBS AG shares or employee stock options. Broader equity share ownership is encouraged for all employees through Equity Plus. This long-term incentive program gives employees the opportunity to purchase UBS stock with after-tax funds from their bonus or salary. Two UBS stock options are given for each share acquired and held for two years. The performance related component of the portfolio manager's bonus is based on the performance of the funds he manages as compared to each fund's broad-based index over one, two and three year periods. With respect to the Registrant, the benchmark is the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index. (Information in Item 8(a)(3) is provided as of the Registrant's fiscal year end of March 31, 2007, except as otherwise noted.)

(a) (4) Dollar Range of Securities of Registrant Beneficially Owned by Portfolio Manager.

Item 10. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.
