The following press release was issued on June 7, 2007:

PRIVATE EQUITY CONSORTIUM INCREASES OFFER FOR BIOMET TO

$46.00 PER SHARE IN CASH THROUGH TENDER OFFER

Tender Offer to Commence on or Before June 14, 2007

WARSAW, Ind., June 7, 2007 The Board of Directors of Biomet, Inc. (NASDAQ: BMET), a worldwide leader in the orthopedic and musculoskeletal product industry, announced today that it has unanimously recommended to shareholders an increased offer from a private equity consortium to acquire Biomet for $46.00 per share in cash, or an equity value of $11.4 billion. Under the terms of the revised merger agreement, the consortium which includes affiliates of the Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners, Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. and TPG will commence a tender offer on or before June 14, 2007, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Biomet's common stock. Following completion of the tender offer, the consortium will complete a second-step merger in which any remaining common shares of Biomet will be converted into the right to receive the same per share price paid in the tender offer.

The $46.00 per share offer price represents a premium of 32.3% over the closing price of Biomet's common stock on April 3, 2006, the trading day prior to public speculation that the company was exploring strategic alternatives. Biomet subsequently confirmed on April 6, 2006 that it had retained Morgan Stanley to assist it in exploring strategic alternatives.

Morgan Stanley has provided the Board of Directors with its opinion that, as of June 6, 2007 and subject to the qualifications and assumptions therein, the consideration to be received pursuant to the revised merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view to holders of Biomet common stock.

We believe the proposed price for the transaction is fair to Biomet's shareholders. We also believe that the investor group's tender offer will deliver superior value to Biomet's shareholders in a more efficient and more immediate fashion than the process provided by the original merger agreement. Moreover, this revised offer provides greater certainty and visibility to completion of the transaction, said Niles L. Noblitt, Chairman of the Board.

In a statement, the sponsor group said: Our offer empowers current shareholders who have an economic interest in Biomet common shares to realize significant value in a timely manner and represents the absolute limit of our ability to structure an appropriate buyout of Biomet. We are pleased that the consortium will be in a position to provide the company with financial and operational resources to support its future growth.

Completion of the tender offer is subject to the condition that at least 75% of the Biomet common shares have been tendered in the offer the same percentage approval requirement as with the previous merger structure. The amended merger agreement permits the investor group to revise the condition regarding minimum acceptance of the tender offer to decrease the minimum acceptance threshold to a number that, together with shares whose holders have agreed to vote to approve the second-step merger, represents at least 75% of the Biomet common shares. The tender offer will expire at midnight, New York time, on the 20th business day following and including the commencement date, unless extended in accordance with the terms of the offer and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The tender offer and subsequent merger are subject to customary conditions for transactions of this type.

As a result of the revised merger agreement and tender offer, Biomet announced that it has cancelled the special meeting of shareholders previously scheduled for Friday, June 8, 2007 to consider and vote on the original merger agreement announced on December 18, 2006, and related transactions. Furthermore, as part of the revised merger agreement, Biomet has agreed not to pay its annual dividend.

Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated is acting as financial advisor to the Board of Biomet, Inc. and to Biomet, Inc. Kirkland & Ellis LLP is legal counsel to Biomet, Inc. and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP is legal counsel to the independent directors of the Board of Biomet, Inc. Banc of America Securities LLC is acting as lead M&A advisor and Goldman, Sachs & Co. is acting as M&A advisor to the private equity consortium. Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP is acting as legal advisor to the private equity consortium.
