Item 8.01. Other Events.

We are reporting on a development that resolves tax matters with the IRS for the tax years 1997-2002, primarily relating to our remaining Legacy Tax Matter described below. This will result in D&B recognizing a net non-core gain of $31.2 million for the second quarter of 2007 and we expect to receive a cash refund of approximately $24 million as set forth below.

We previously reported in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending March 31, 2007 (the Form 10-Q) on a Legacy Tax Matter referred to as Amortization and Royalty Expense Deductions/Royalty Income 1997-2007 (the 1997 Transaction). As described more fully in the Form 10-Q, the Internal Revenue Service challenged certain amortization expense and royalty expense deductions taken with respect to the 1997 Transaction, and also allocated certain royalties received by the partnership established in connection with the 1997 Transaction as taxable income to the taxpayers, including D&B. On March 3, 2006, D&B and Moody's Corporation (Moody's/D&B2) each made a deposit to the IRS of $39.8 million in order to stop the accrual of statutory interest on additional taxes allegedly due for the 1997-2002 tax years.

As previously reported, we believe there are technical infirmities in the IRS' ability to assess and collect tax with respect to the 1997-2002 tax periods. Despite this, in June, 2007, we received three Notices of Deficiency (Notices) from the IRS relating to tax years 1997, 1998, 2001 and 2002. These Notices were sent to D&B, R.H. Donnelley Corporation (Donnelley/D&B1) and Moody's/D&B2, the taxpayers of record during these tax years for the matters addressed in the Notices. By these Notices, the IRS determined deficiencies against the taxpayers in the aggregate amount of $15.8 million in taxes and penalties for these tax years, all of which are for items unrelated to the 1997 Transaction. Because the taxpayers do not intend to appeal the deficiencies contained in the Notices to the Tax Court, no additional deficiencies can be assessed for the 1997-2002 tax years for any matter. With interest, the deficiencies total approximately $24 million, of which D&B's share is approximately $16 million and Moody's/D&B2's share is approximately $8 million.

We and Moody's/D&B2, on behalf of all three taxpayers, have asked the IRS to return those portions of the deposits that exceed the amount of the determined deficiencies in tax and penalties, plus interest. The balances will be left as deposits. Specifically, at this time we have asked for a return of approximately $24 million of our $39.8 million deposit and left approximately $16 million on deposit. Moody's has asked for a return of approximately $32 million of its $39.8 million deposit and left approximately $8 million on deposit. D&B also expects to ask the IRS for a return of the balance of its deposit (approximately $16 million). If and to the extent we are successful in this request, we will report a further non-core gain and a further return of cash.

In light of the foregoing developments, we are reversing $45.0 million of net reserves associated with the 1997-2002 tax years, predominantly related to the 1997 Transaction, and increasing our reserves by $13.8 million (net of taxes) for our share of the deficiencies. These actions result in a net non-core gain of $31.2 million.

These developments will be reflected in our June 30, 2007 financial statements to be timely filed with the SEC, and will not have an impact on our 2007 financial guidance.

After making the foregoing adjustments, we continue to believe that our remaining reserves for legacy tax matters are adequate.
