Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 2, 2007, Fiserv, Inc. ("Fiserv") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") by and among itself, Braves Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Fiserv ("Merger Sub"), and CheckFree Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("CheckFree"). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into CheckFree, with CheckFree continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fiserv (the "Merger").

At the effective time of the Merger, the issued and outstanding shares of CheckFree common stock, par value $0.01 per share, will be converted into the right to receive $48.00 per share in cash, totaling approximately $4.4 billion, and the surviving corporation will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fiserv.

Fiserv, Merger Sub and CheckFree have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, that CheckFree will (i) conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger (the "Closing"), (ii) not engage in certain types of transactions during such period, and (iii) cause a stockholder meeting to be held by CheckFree and, subject to certain exceptions, recommend approval by its stockholders of the Merger Agreement.

Each party's obligation to effect the Merger is subject to the fulfillment of customary conditions, including, among others, (i) approval by the CheckFree stockholders, (ii) the absence of any injunction or order prohibiting the closing, subject to certain limited exceptions, (iii) the expiration or termination of the Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period and receipt of other regulatory approvals, (iv) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of representations and warranties of the other party, and (v) material compliance of the other party with its covenants.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Fiserv and CheckFree and provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, CheckFree may be required to pay Fiserv a termination fee of $176 million plus certain expenses. To finance the transaction, Fiserv has obtained a commitment for bridge financing of up to $5 billion, which is exercisable at Fiserv's option, and anticipates raising long-term financing prior to closing. The transaction is expected to close following the satisfaction of all closing conditions, which is currently expected to occur by the end of the fourth quarter of 2007.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which Fiserv will file as an exhibit to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2007. There are representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement which were made by the parties to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in these representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the Merger Agreement and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that is different from certain standards generally applicable to shareholders or were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Based upon the foregoing reasons, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as statements of factual information.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in the accompanying conference call transcript constitute forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those projected or forecast in the forward-looking statements. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include the following: the possibility that the parties may be unable to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in the merger within the expected time-frames or at all and to successfully integrate CheckFree's operations into those of Fiserv; such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; revenues following the transaction may be lower than expected; operating costs, customer loss and business disruption (including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers) may be greater than expected following the transaction; the retention of certain key employees at CheckFree; the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Fiserv and others related to the merger agreement; shareholder approval or other conditions to the completion of the transaction may not be satisfied, or the regulatory approvals required for the transaction may not be obtained on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the merger and the execution of certain financings that will be obtained to consummate the merger; the parties' ability to meet expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the merger; Fiserv's ability to complete the sale of the Fiserv ISS business and the potential impact of the Fiserv 2.0 initiatives. Fiserv and CheckFree are subject to, among other things, changes in customer demand for their products and services, pricing and other actions by competitors, general changes in local, regional, national and international economic conditions and the impact they may have on Fiserv and CheckFree and their customers and Fiserv's and CheckFree's assessment of that impact; proposed or enacted legislation affecting the financial services industry as a whole, and/or Fiserv and CheckFree and their subsidiaries individually or collectively; regulatory supervision and oversight; rapid technological developments and changes; Fiserv's and CheckFree's ability to continue to introduce competitive new products and services on a timely, cost-effective basis; the mix of products/services; containing costs and expenses; protection and validity of intellectual property rights; the outcome of pending and future litigation and governmental proceedings; acts of war and terrorism; and the other factors discussed in Risk Factors in Fiserv's Annual Report or Form 10-K for the most recently ended fiscal year and Fiserv's other filings with the SEC, which are available at <http://www.sec.gov>. Fiserv assumes no obligation to update the information in the accompanying conference call transcript, except as otherwise required by law. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof.
