the election of the four nominees for Class II directors named in the Proxy Statement;

the approval of the amendment to the FTI Consulting, Inc. 2009 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan to increase by 4,500,000 shares the number of shares of common stock authorized and reserved for issuance under the plan; and the ratification of the retention of KPMG LLP as FTI Consulting, Inc.'s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010; that are being presented for approval by stockholders at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders on June 2, 2010. FTI commenced the distribution of the Notice of Availability of Proxy Materials, as well as paper copies of the Proxy Statement, on or about April 23, 2010 to stockholders of record on April 1, 2010.

The text of the email communication appears below:

On April 23, 2010, FTI Consulting, Inc. filed its 2010 Proxy Statement with the SEC for its Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on June 2, 2010. As set forth in the Proxy Statement, FTI's Board of Directors is recommending that you vote your shares FOR the following proposals:

the election of the four nominees for Class II directors named in the Proxy Statement;

the approval of the amendment to the FTI Consulting, Inc. 2009 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan to increase by 4,500,000 shares the number of shares of common stock authorized and reserved for issuance under the plan; and the ratification of the retention of KPMG LLP as FTI Consulting, Inc.'s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010.

We urge you to please take the time to vote your shares early. The Proxy Statement includes important information regarding the above proposals and other matters, which you should read carefully. If you haven't already received your Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials or copies of the proxy materials in the mail or by email, that information should be coming very soon, so please look for it.

The materials also contain information regarding how you can vote your shares. You can vote in three ways. If you received a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials or materials by email, you may submit proxies over the Internet by following the directions in the Notice or email. If you are a record holder and received proxy materials by mail, you can vote by calling 1-800-690-6903, toll-free, and following the instructions or by completing, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction card and returning it in the accompanying pre-addressed envelope.

FTI has engaged Georgeson, a proxy solicitation firm, to contact stockholders by telephone to encourage voting. Stockholders who do not vote early may receive calls from Georgeson on behalf of FTI prior to the meeting.
