Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Extension of Subordinated Notes and Waiver

On June 25, 2010, Computer Software Innovations, Inc. (the Company) and each of the holders of certain Subordinated Promissory Notes dated February 11, 2005 (the Subordinated Notes) entered into an Extension of Subordinated Notes and Waiver dated June 24, 2010 (the Extension). Pursuant to the Extension:

the Company agreed to make, within five days of the date of approval of the Extension, principal payments on the notes totaling $875,200, $437,600 in the case of the Subordinated Note held by Barron Partners LP (Barron) and $87,520 each in the case of the other five note holders. These payments were made on June 29, 2010.

the maturity date of each Subordinated Note was extended from August 30, 2009 until no later than January 1, 2018, on which date all principal and accrued interest will be due and payable in full, if not earlier paid.

the Company, beginning October 1, 2010, will make quarterly payments on the Subordinated Notes of principal and accrued interest in the amount of $50,000 in the aggregate to be applied pro-rata among the note holders, $25,000 on the Barron Subordinated Note and $5,000 each on the other Subordinated Notes.

the Company expressed its intention to consider subsequent to each fiscal year end during the term of the Subordinated Notes whether it can make principal payments in addition to those expressly set forth in the Extension. Any such determination by the management and board of directors of the Company is in their sole discretion, and shall be based on factors they deem relevant, including but not limited to the financial performance of the Company during such fiscal year.

at the discretion of management and the board of directors of the Company, the remaining balance on the Subordinated Notes can be repaid in full at any time without penalty.

the Subordinated Notes will no longer be in default, and each note holder waived any existing or past default based upon the Company failing to make any payment of interest or principal when due.

despite the Subordinated Notes not being in default, they will continue to bear interest at the Default Rate of 15% until repaid.

except as modified by the Extension, all other terms and conditions of the Subordinated Notes were confirmed and shall remain in full force and effect.

The Subordinated Notes were issued on February 11, 2005 as a part of our reverse merger and recapitalization. The Subordinated Notes are unsecured and are subordinated to the Company's senior debt, including its revolving credit and term debt with its bank lender. The original principal of all of the Subordinated Notes aggregated $3,750,400. At June 25, 2010, principal and accrued interest on the Subordinated Notes totaled $1,750,400 and $61,863, respectively. The Company has paid interest at the default rate of 15% per annum since the original maturity date of May 9, 2006, when the Company, with the support of its management, board of directors and the Bank elected to defer the payment and pay the default interest rate to use the funds to support working capital needs and investments in acquisitions. The Subordinated Notes were extended several times, the latest being May 14, 2009, when the maturity date of the Subordinated Notes was extended until August 30, 2009. Subsequent to such date and until the date of the Extension, the Company was unable to reach an agreement for an additional extension with Barron. The history of the Subordinated Notes was previously disclosed in the Company's Form 8-K dated September 3, 2009, as well as in the Company's Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2010 in Item 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations G. Liquidity and Capital Resources, which disclosures are incorporated herein by reference.

In addition to Barron, which owns all of our preferred stock, the Subordinated Notes are held by the five shareholders of our predecessor, Computer Software Innovations, Inc., a South Carolina corporation. Four of these note holders are currently executive officers of the Company, and include: Nancy K. Hedrick, President and Chief Executive Officer; Thomas P. Clinton, Senior Vice President of Strategic Relationships; Beverly N. Hawkins, Senior Vice President of Software Development; and William J. Buchanan, Senior Vice President of Technical Delivery and Support. The fifth holder, Joe G. Black, formerly served as chief financial officer of the Company. The Extension and the related restructuring of the Subordinated Notes were approved by the Company's three outside directors, none of whom have any interest in the Subordinated Notes.

Edgar Filing: Computer Software Innovations, Inc. - Form 424B3

The restructuring of the Subordinated Notes permits the Company to repay the remaining $875,000 in principal over an approximate seven-year period. Although the Company may choose to repay the Subordinated Notes earlier, particularly as a result of superior financial performance, the arrangement removes a default and gives the Company flexibility in managing its future liquidity and capital needs. Such future needs might include future acquisitions, and increased working capital relating to significant sales growth as a result of a turnaround in the general economy or increased Federal funding of technology expenditures for education.

The Extension was formulated in cooperation with the Company's primary lender, RBC Bank (USA) (the Bank), which had previously waived any cross default under the Bank's revolving and other credit facilities as a result of the previous default under the Subordinated Notes. In conjunction with the Company entering into the Extension, it also entered into a related modification of its credit facilities with the Bank, as described below.

The Extension is filed as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Modification of Revolving Credit Arrangements with RBC Bank (USA)

On June 25, 2010, the Company and the Bank entered into a modification of the revolving credit facility provided by the Bank to the Company. Specifically, the Company issued to the Bank its Second Amended and Restated Commercial Promissory Note dated June 25, 2010 in the amount of $8,000,000 (the New Note), and the Company and the Bank entered into a Modification Agreement dated June 25, 2010 (the Modification) which modified the Second Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement between the Company and the Bank dated September 14, 2007, as well as other related agreements. The Modification and the New Note:

permit the Company to utilize advances under its revolving credit facility to make payments on the Subordinated Notes, as provided in the Extension.

provided for the amendment of the Subordinated Notes by the Extension.

increased the Bank's revolving line of credit from $7,000,000 to $8,000,000, for the purpose of accommodating the capital needed to fund the June 2010 payments of $875,000 on the Subordinated Notes as agreed in the Extension, while deferring any immediate impact on working capital line availability. The temporary $1,000,000 increase will be reduced annually as follows:

January 31, 2011	$ 7,800,000
January 31, 2012	$ 7,600,000
January 31, 2013	$ 7,400,000
January 31, 2014	$ 7,200,000
January 31, 2015	$ 7,000,000

extended the maturity date from August 31, 2011 until June 30, 2012.

The New Note and the Modification are filed as Exhibits 10.2 and 10.3, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

The disclosure under Item 2.03 below is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The disclosure contained in Item 1.01 above is incorporated herein by reference.

Edgar Filing: Computer Software Innovations, Inc. - Form 424B3

The revolving credit facility provided by the Bank is a facility under which we may borrow, repay and then re-borrow. Advances and repayments occur daily under the credit facility, reflecting cash receipts and the Company's working capital needs. Set forth below is the outstanding balance as of specific dates through June 29, 2010. The balances presented reflect aggregate advances and pay downs which the Company deems material, or significant. Such information through May 13, 2010 was previously disclosed in our Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on May 14, 2010.

Re: Extension of Subordinated Notes and Waiver
Ladies and Gentlemen:

Each of you is the holder of a separate Subordinated Promissory Note dated February 11, 2005 payable by Computer Software Innovations, Inc. (the Company) in the original principal amount of $1,875,200.00 in the case of Barron Partners LP (Barron) and $375,000.00 in the case of all individual holders (collectively, as amended by the Prior Extensions (as hereinafter defined), the Notes and each a Note). The remaining principal amount owing on the Notes as of the date of this letter is $875,200.00 in the case of Barron and $175,040.00 in the case of each of the individual holders. The Notes were originally due and payable in full on May 10, 2006, and pursuant to letter agreements (collectively, the Prior Extensions) dated April 23, 2008 and May 12, 2009 between the Company and the holders of the Notes (the Noteholders), the maturity date of the Notes was extended until March 31, 2009 and August 30, 2009, respectively. The principal amount of the Notes was not paid at the May 12, 2009 maturity and, accordingly, the Notes are currently in default. Pursuant to the Prior Extensions and the original terms of the Notes, the Company has paid all accrued interest due and payable to date at the default rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum (the Default Rate).

Following recent discussions with each of you, the Company is proposing the following amendments, payments and waiver with respect to the Notes (collectively, the Amendment and Waiver):

1. The Company within five (5) days of the date of this letter will make principal payments on the Notes (the Principal Payments), $437,600.00 in the case of the Note held by Barron and $87,520.00 each in the case of the other Noteholders.

2. The maturity date of each Note will be extended from August 30, 2009 until January 1, 2018 (the New Maturity Date), on which date all principal and accrued interest will be due and payable in full on each Note to the respective Noteholders, or paid previously as intended and allowed for under 4. below.

3. The Company, beginning October 1, 2010, will make quarterly payments on the Notes of principal and accrued interest in the amount of $50,000.00 in the aggregate to be applied pro-rata among the Noteholders, $25,000.00 on the Barron Note and $5,000.00 each on the other Notes, until such time as the Notes are repaid in full.

4. The Notes, pursuant to their terms, may be pre-paid without penalty. It is the intention of the Company to consider subsequent to each fiscal year end during the term of the Notes whether it can make principal payments in addition to those set forth in paragraph 3 above. Any such determination by the management and board of directors of the Company shall be in their sole discretion, and shall be based on factors they deem relevant, including but not limited to the financial performance of the Company during such fiscal year.

5. As a result of the extension of the Notes described in the paragraphs above, the Notes will not be in default with respect to principal payments. Further, each Noteholder hereby waives any existing or past default based on the Company failing to make any payment of interest or principal when due.

6. Despite the Notes not being in default, the Notes will continue to bear interest at the Default Rate until the New Maturity Date.

7. Except as expressly modified by this Amendment and Waiver, all other terms and conditions of the Notes (as previously amended) shall continue in full force and effect and unchanged and are hereby confirmed in all respects. No novation is intended.

8. The Notes, the Prior Extensions and this Amendment and Waiver (A) embody the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto and thereto relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, (B) supersede any and all prior agreements and understandings of such persons, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and (C) may not be amended, supplemented, contradicted or otherwise modified by evidence of prior, contemporaneous or subsequent oral agreements of the parties.

To evidence your agreement with the Amendment and Waiver of the Notes set forth above, please execute this letter in the signature space provided below and return the executed letter to me as soon as possible by facsimile or email. Upon receiving signed letters from all of the Noteholders, the Company will make the applicable Principal Payments to each of you. The Amendment and Waiver shall become effective with respect to a particular Note only when the Noteholder receives his or her agreed Principal Payment.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ David B. Dechant

Commercial Promissory Note

Second Amended and Restated Note

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, COMPUTER SOFTWARE INNOVATIONS, INC., a Delaware corporation (Borrower), promises to pay to RBC BANK (USA) (Bank), or order, the maximum sum of Eight Million and No/100 Dollars ($8,000,000.00), or so much thereof as shall have been disbursed from time to time and remains unpaid, together with interest at the rate and payable in the manner hereinafter stated. Principal and interest shall be payable at any banking office of Bank in the city or town indicated above, or such other place as the holder of this Note may designate. This Note evidences a revolving line of credit and during the term of this Note, so long as Borrower shall not be in default hereunder, Borrower shall have the right to borrow, make payments upon, and re-borrow monies hereunder.

Article I. Interest Rate.

Section 1. Rate of Accrual. Interest will accrue on the unpaid principal balance at the rate set forth in Section 1.2.1. until maturity of this Note, whether such maturity occurs by acceleration or on the Maturity Date. Interest will accrue on any unpaid balance owing under this Note, whether principal, interest, fees, premiums, charges or costs and expenses, after maturity at the rate set forth in Section 1.2.2. All accrual rates of interest under this Note will be contract rates of interest, whether a pre-default rate or a default rate, and references to contract rates in any loan documents executed and delivered by Borrower or others to Bank in connection with this Note shall be to such contract rates.

Section 2. Interest Rates.

2.1. Pre-Default Rate. Subject to the provisions of Section 1.2.2 below, interest payable on this Note per annum will accrue at two hundred fifty basis points (2.50%) plus the LIBOR Base Rate; provided, however, that in no event shall the total rate of interest payable on this Note be less than three percent (3%) per annum. The LIBOR Base Rate is the London Interbank Offer Rate for United States Dollars for a term of one month which appears on Telerate Page 3750, Bloomberg Professional Screen BBAM (or any generally recognized successor method or means of publication) as of 11:00 a.m., London time, two (2) London business days prior to the day on which the rate will become effective. The rate for the first month or part thereof will initially become effective on the date of the Note as shown on the face hereof. Thereafter, the rate will change and a new rate will become effective on the first calendar day of each succeeding month. If for any reason the London Interbank Offer Rate is not available, then the LIBOR Base Rate shall mean the rate per annum which banks charge each other in a market comparable to England's Eurodollar market on short-term money in U.S. Dollars for an amount substantially equivalent to the principal amount due under this Note as determined at 11:00 A.M., London time, two (2) London business days prior to the day on which the rate will become effective, as determined in the Bank's sole discretion. Bank's determination of such interest rate shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

2.2. Default Rate. Upon the nonpayment of any payment of interest described herein, Bank, at its option and without accelerating this Note, may accrue interest on such unpaid interest at a rate per annum (Default Rate) equal to the lesser of (i) the maximum contract rate of interest that may be charged to and collected from Borrower on the loan evidenced by this Note under applicable law or (ii) five percent (5.0%) plus the pre-default interest rate otherwise applicable hereunder, as set forth in Section 1.2.1. After maturity of this Note, whether by acceleration or otherwise, interest will accrue on the unpaid principal of this Note, any accrued but unpaid interest and all fees, premiums, charges and costs and expenses owing hereunder at the Default Rate until this Note is paid in full, whether this Note is paid in full, pre-judgment or post-judgment.

2.3. Variable Rate: Calculation of Interest.

2.3.1. Variable Rate. This is a variable rate note. Any change in the rate of interest payable under this Note will equal the change in the variable rate index to which such rate is tied, but the rate at which interest accrues under this Note shall never exceed the maximum contract rate which may be charged to and collected from Borrower on the loan evidenced by this Note under applicable law. Bank shall have no obligation to notify Borrower of adjustments in the rate of interest payable under this Note. Adjustments to the rate of interest will be effective on the date of change in the variable rate index.

2.3.2. Calculation of Interest. All interest payable under this Note shall accrue daily on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed and a year of three hundred sixty (360) days. In computing the number of days during which interest accrues, the day on which funds are initially advanced shall be included regardless of the time of day such advance is made, and the day on which funds are repaid shall be included unless repayment is credited prior to close of business. Payments in federal funds, immediately available in the place designated for payment, received by Bank prior to 2:00 p.m. local time at said place of payment, shall be credited as if received prior to close of business on the day the funds are immediately available; while other payments, at the option of Bank, may not be credited until such payments are immediately available to Bank, in federal funds, in the place designated for payment, prior to 2:00 p.m. local time at said place of payment on a day on which Bank is open for business.

Article II. Payment Terms.

Section 2.1. Interest Payment Terms. Payments under this Note include an interest component and a principal component. The principal component is set forth in Section 2.2 below. The interest component shall be paid as follows: interest shall be payable monthly, in arrears, beginning July 1, 2010 and continuing on the same calendar day of each consecutive month thereafter until the Maturity Date, when all accrued but unpaid interest is due and payable in full.

Section 2.2. Principal Payment Terms; Maturity Date. As stated in Section 2.1 above, payments under this Note include an interest component and a principal component. The interest component is set forth in Section 2.1 above. The principal component shall be paid as follows: Principal and interest shall be payable in one single payment on June 30, 2012 (herein referred to as the Maturity Date).

Section 2.3. Prepayment. This Note may be prepaid in whole, or in part at any time without penalty.

Section 2.4. Application of Payments. All payments made on this Note shall be applied first to payment of all late fees, charges, premiums and costs and expenses due but unpaid under this Note, then to accrued but unpaid interest and finally to principal, in the inverse order of the payment dates therefor, unless Bank determines in its sole discretion to apply payments in a different order or applicable law requires a different application of payments. The partial prepayment of this Note, if permitted, shall not result in a payment holiday or any other deferral of any regularly scheduled payments under this Note, all of which shall be made as and when the same are scheduled to be paid.

Article III. Loan Agreement and Security.

Section 1. Loan Agreement. The loan evidenced by this Note was made pursuant to a commitment letter (Commitment Letter) from Bank to Borrower dated September 10, 2007. Borrower and Bank have entered into a Second Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement dated September 14, 2007, as amended (Loan and Security Agreement). Borrower shall perform and abide by, as and when so required, each and all of the covenants, terms and conditions imposed upon or applicable to Borrower in the Loan and Security Agreement and all security documents and other agreements referenced in the Loan and Security Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Note and the terms of the Loan and Security Agreement, the terms of the Loan and Security Agreement shall prevail, except that the terms of this Note shall prevail with respect to the payment obligations of Borrower.

Section 2. Security Documents. This Note is secured by (1) the Loan and Security Agreement, (2) the security documents and other supporting obligations identified in the Loan and Security Agreement, (3) the security documents and other supporting obligations which reference that they secure this Note or the Loan and Security Agreement, (4) any security documents and other supporting obligations which reference that they secure all indebtedness or other obligations owing from time to time by Borrower to Bank, and (5) any security documents and other supporting obligations which reference that they secure all indebtedness from time to time owing from Borrower to Bank other than consumer credit as defined under the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Z (Truth-in-Lending) (12 CFR 226 et seq.) (security documents).

Article IV. Default and Acceleration.

Section 1. Late Charges and Expenses. Borrower agrees to pay, upon demand by Bank or if demand is not sooner made, on maturity of this Note, whether such maturity occurs by acceleration or on the Maturity Date, for each payment past due for fifteen (15) or more calendar days, a late charge in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) four percent (4%) of the amount of the payment past due or (2) the maximum percentage of the payment past due permitted by applicable law, or the maximum amount if not expressed as a percentage. If this Note is not paid in full whenever it becomes due and payable, Borrower agrees to pay all costs and expenses of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Borrower hereby stipulates that reasonable attorneys' fees shall be fifteen percent (15%) of the outstanding balance (principal, interest, fees, premiums, charges and costs and expenses) owing under this Note after default and referral to an attorney not a salaried employee of Bank.

Section 2. Default. Any Event of Default under the Loan and Security Agreement shall constitute an event of default (Event of Default) under this Note.

Section 3. Acceleration. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, (1) the entire unpaid principal balance of this Note, together with all other amounts owing and all other amounts to be owing under this Note, shall, at the option of Bank, become immediately due and payable, without notice or demand, and (2) the Bank may, both before and after acceleration, exercise any of and all of its other rights and remedies under this Note and the other loan documents, as well as any additional rights and remedies it may have at law and it may have in equity, to recover full payment of the balance (principal, interest, fees, premiums, charges and costs and expenses) owing under this Note. The failure by Bank to exercise any of its options shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise same in the event of any subsequent default.

Article V. Miscellaneous.

Section 1. Use and Application of Terms.
