The following are portions of a script that was prepared for purposes of the earnings conference call held by Alimentation Couche-Tard Inc. (Couche-Tard) on July 13, 2010:

[Portions of the script that are not related to Couche-Tard's proposed acquisition of Casey's General Stores, Inc. (Casey's) are omitted.]

Before we get into our fourth quarter results, I would like to make a few brief comments on our proposed transaction with Casey's General Stores. As you know, on June 2nd, Couche-Tard commenced a tender offer to acquire all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Casey's (including the associated preferred stock purchase rights) for $36.00 per share in cash.

We strongly believe that a combination of Casey's and Couche-Tard is compelling and would deliver superior value to the shareholders, employees, business partners and other constituencies of Casey's.

Our all-cash offer represents a premium of 14% over the closing price of Casey's common stock on April 8, 2010, the last trading day prior to the public disclosure of our offer.

Our offer also represents a premium of 17% over the 90-calendar day average closing share price, and a premium of 24% over the one-year average share price, Casey's common stock as of April 8th.

Our offer is also a premium of 9% to the all-time and 52-week high trading price of Casey's common stock prior to our announcement.

In stark contrast, since 1997, the mean initial offer price for all-cash unsolicited offers with a transaction value greater than $1 billion, is a 31% discount to the all-time high of the respective target companies' trading prices. It is also a 6% discount to the 52-week high.

Our $36 per share offer represented a multiple of 7.4x trailing EBITDA at the announcement, as reported by Casey's - an attractive multiple that is at the high-end of prior transactions in the convenience store space.

While it remains our strong preference to negotiate a mutually acceptable transaction with the Casey's Board, we are committed to pursuing a combination of our two companies. Given Casey's refusal to engage in any dialogue with us, we were left with no choice but to take our offer directly to the shareholders of Casey's. We commenced our tender offer on June 2nd, and we just extended our offer to August 6th.

To reinforce our commitment to this transaction, on June 7th, we nominated a full, alternate slate of nine director candidates for election to the Casey's Board at the next annual meeting of Casey's shareholders. We strongly believe that our director candidates, if elected, will exercise independent judgment in considering our tender offer and will serve the best interests of Casey's and its shareholders. We expect to file our preliminary proxy materials shortly.

Lastly, I would like to add that we strongly believe that Casey's lawsuit and claims against Couche-Tard are inappropriate and serve only to mislead the Casey's shareholders and deny them the opportunity to accept our all-cash premium offer. Why not give the choice to the true owners - the shareholders. We remain committed to making this combination a reality and will not be discouraged by Casey's efforts to distract its shareholders with these baseless claims. In order to set the record straight, on June 18th, we filed an answer and counterclaim in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Iowa, in response to the complaint filed by Casey's on June 11th with respect to our tender offer. On July 12th, Casey's filed a motion to dismiss our counterclaim. We believe Casey's motion is without merit and will vigorously oppose it.

Once again, we believe our offer price represents full and fair value for Casey's. Our tender offer was commenced to allow the Casey's shareholders to decide if they wish to accept an immediate premium in cash, and thereby avoid any uncertainty with respect to the future stock performance of Casey's a decision that the Casey's Board seeks to deny its shareholders. Worst, since the beginning, this process dispossessed value from shareholders with all these external fees and management contracts.

We will now answer questions you submitted earlier today.

Patricia Baker Scotia

Do you have a target debt to capitalization ratio that you would like to manage to and how might the proposed CASY transaction impact it in the near term? What is your current appetite or inclination to issue equity?

Raymond Paré Couche-Tard

We currently do not have any plan to issue equity, and we are managing the leverage of the Company appropriately.

Irene Nattel RBC

This is really the first opportunity you've had to speak publicly on the CASY bid. Can you talk about the benefits in this transaction for ATD shareholders, and how this acquisition advances your strategic objectives?

Raymond Paré Couche-Tard

We will not comment further on this. All public comments about our offer are available on SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

Jim Durran NB Financial

What do you read into the fact that 19% of Caseys shareholders have tendered? Do you see that as hopeful, or disappointing and why?

Raymond Paré Couche-Tard

We are encouraged by the support from the Casey's shareholders and hope that Casey's will remove the impediments that they have put in place and allow the shareholders to decide freely.
