Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On September 15, 2010, Clearwater Paper Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Clearwater Paper), Cellu Tissue Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Cellu Tissue), and Sand Dollar Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Clearwater Paper (Merger Sub), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, Merger Sub will merge with and into Cellu Tissue (the Merger). As a result of the Merger, Merger Sub will cease to exist and Cellu Tissue will survive as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Clearwater Paper.

Upon the consummation of the Merger, each outstanding share of Cellu Tissue common stock (including shares of restricted common stock), other than any shares owned by Clearwater Paper or Merger Sub, by Cellu Tissue as treasury stock, or by any stockholders who are entitled to, and who properly exercise, appraisal rights under Delaware law, will be converted into the right to receive $12.00 in cash, without interest. In addition, all outstanding options to acquire Cellu Tissue common stock (each, a Cellu Option), whether or not vested, will be cancelled. In consideration for such cancellation, each holder of a Cellu Option will be entitled to receive a cash payment, without interest, in the amount (if any) equal to the excess of $12.00 over the exercise price per share of such Cellu Option.

The completion of the Merger is subject to conditions, including the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by Cellu Tissue's stockholders and the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. The Merger is not subject to a financing condition.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for Clearwater Paper and Cellu Tissue and further provides that, upon or following the termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, Cellu Tissue may be required to pay Clearwater Paper a termination fee of $9,480,000.

The above description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Voting Agreement

In connection with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, Clearwater Paper entered into a voting agreement with Weston Presidio V, L.P., Russell C. Taylor, the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of Cellu Tissue, and two investment entities controlled by Mr. Taylor (the Voting Agreement), pursuant to which such stockholders, who held approximately 56% of the outstanding Cellu Tissue common stock as of September 15, 2010, have agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and not to dispose of their shares of Cellu Tissue common stock. The Voting Agreement terminates upon the earliest to occur of (i) termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) upon any waiver, amendment or modification of the Merger Agreement that reduces the amount of, or changes the form or type of, consideration to be received by holders of Cellu Tissue common stock in the Merger and (iii) 11:59 p.m. on January 31, 2011 (unless otherwise agreed).

The above description of the Voting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Voting Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Commitment Letter

Pursuant to a commitment letter dated as of September 15, 2010 (the Commitment Letter), issued to Clearwater Paper by Banc of America Bridge LLC and Banc of America Securities LLC (together, the Commitment Parties), and subject to and upon the terms and conditions set forth therein, the Commitment Parties have agreed to lend Clearwater Paper $300 million of senior unsecured loans (the Bridge Facility). To the extent that Clearwater Paper does not obtain alternative debt financing prior to the closing of the Merger, it expects to use the proceeds of the Bridge Facility, together with cash on hand, to fund the Merger consideration, the retirement of approximately $255 million of Cellu Tissue s indebtedness, and the other costs and expenses of the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby.

The above description of the Commitment Letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Commitment Letter, which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

On September 15, 2010, Clearwater Paper entered into the First Amendment to the Loan and Security Agreement (the ABL Amendment) by and among Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent, the financial institutions party thereto and Clearwater Paper. The ABL Amendment amends Clearwater Paper s existing Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of November 26, 2008, among other things, (i) to permit the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and, in connection therewith, to issue up to $500 million principal amount of debt securities or, alternatively, to draw the committed amounts under the Commitment Letter, (ii) to permit the construction of the previously announced tissue manufacturing facility in Shelby, North Carolina, including capital expenditures of up to $150 million and debt to finance or refinance the construction thereof, up to $250 million, and (iii) to change the interest rate margins applicable to base rate loans and Libor loans in circumstances based on Clearwater Paper s fixed charge coverage ratio from time to time, and to reduce the fees paid by Clearwater Paper on undrawn amounts.
