CALCULATION OF FILING FEE

Transaction Valuation(1)

$2,888,519,271

Amount Of Filing Fee(2)

$393,994.03

Edgar Filing: TITANIUM METALS CORP - Form SC TO-T/A

- (1) Estimated for purposes of calculating the amount of the filing fee only. This calculation assumes the purchase of 175,061,774 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Shares), of Titanium Metals Corporation (the Company) at a purchase price of $16.50 per Share, net to the seller in cash, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes. As of November 12, 2012, 175,061,774 Shares were issued and outstanding.
- (2) The amount of the filing fee was calculated in accordance with Rule 0-11 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Fee Rate Advisory #1 for fiscal year 2013, issued August 31, 2012, by multiplying the transaction value by 0.0001364.

This Amendment No. 2 (Amendment No. 2) further amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO originally filed on November 20, 2012 by (a) ELIT Acquisition Sub Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Purchaser) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Precision Castparts Corp., an Oregon corporation (Parent), and (b) Parent, as amended and supplemented by Amendment No. 1 filed on November 23, 2012 (together with any other amendments and supplements thereto, the Schedule TO). This Schedule TO relates to the offer (the Offer) by the Purchaser to purchase all of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Shares), of Titanium Metals Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), at a purchase price of $16.50 per Share, net to the seller in cash, without interest thereon, less any required withholding taxes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase dated November 20, 2012 (together with any amendments and supplements thereto, the Offer to Purchase) and in the related Letter of Transmittal, copies of which are attached to the Schedule TO as Exhibits (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B), respectively. Capitalized terms used in this Amendment No. 2 but not defined herein shall have the respective meaning given to such terms in the Schedule TO.

The items of the Schedule TO set forth below are hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

Item 11. Additional Information.

Section 16 Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals Legal Proceedings of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by deleting such section in its entirety and replacing it with the following paragraphs:

Between November 13, 2012 and November 27, 2012, the Company, members of the Company Board, and Parent were named as defendants in seven purported class action lawsuits brought by the Company's stockholders challenging the proposed transaction, which were filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and captioned Ira J. Gaines et al. v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 8029 (which we refer to as the Gaines Action); Edith Strom v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 8040 (which we refer to as the Strom Action); William Rackliffe v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 8041 (which we refer to as the Rackliffe Action); Alan Kahn Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 8042 (which we refer to as the Kahn Action); John Mahlke et al. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 8045 (which we refer to as the Mahlke Action); John Wolfner v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 8056 (which we refer to as the Wolfner Action); and Michael Eakle v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 8067 (which we refer to as the Eakle Action and all of which we refer to collectively as the Delaware Actions). Purchaser and a Company officer were also named defendants in certain of the Delaware Actions. On November 21, 2012, plaintiffs in the Gaines Action and the Kahn Action both filed amended complaints. The Delaware Actions seek certification of a class of the Company's stockholders and generally allege that, among other things, (i) each member of the Company Board (and in the Strom Action, a Company officer) breached his fiduciary duties in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (ii) the Company, Parent and Purchaser aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties, and (iii) the Schedule 14D-9 was false and misleading. The Delaware Actions seek, among other relief, an injunction prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and/or prohibiting defendants from initiating any defensive measures that would inhibit their ability to maximize value for the Company's stockholders, an order requiring defendants to disclose the information allegedly omitted from the Schedule 14D-9 and extending the close of the tender offer in order for that information to be fully disseminated to stockholders, rescission in the event the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are consummated, damages, disgorgement, and attorneys' fees and costs.

On November 14, 2012 and November 16, 2012, the Company, members of the Company Board, Parent, and Purchaser were named as defendants in two shareholder petitions challenging the proposed transaction and filed in the County Court of Dallas County, Texas, captioned Kristy Jane Flynn v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number CC-12-06855-A (which we refer to as the Flynn Action) and Kenneth Blew v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number CC-12-06915-B (which we refer to as the Blew Action and together with the Flynn Action, the Texas Shareholder Petitions). The Texas Shareholder Petitions include allegations substantially similar to each other that, among other things: (i) each member of the Company Board breached his fiduciary duties in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (ii) the Company, Parent, and Purchaser aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties by the Company Board. The Texas Shareholder Petitions seek, among other relief, an injunction prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, rescission in the event such transactions are consummated, and attorneys' fees and costs. On November 16, 2012 and November 19, 2012, the Company, members of the Company Board, Parent, and Purchaser were named as defendants in two purported class action lawsuits brought by the Company's stockholders challenging the proposed transaction, filed in the County Court of Dallas County, Texas, captioned Doug Gardner v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number CC-12-06941-D (which we refer to as the Gardner Action) and Sergio Grobler v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number CC-12-07000-E (which we refer to as the Grobler Action and together with the Gardner Action, the Texas Class Actions). The Texas Class Actions seek certification of a class of the Company's stockholders and contain allegations substantially similar to the allegations in the Texas Shareholder Petitions and seek substantially the same relief. On November 27, 2012, defendants filed joint motions to stay the Texas Shareholder Petitions and Texas Class Actions pending resolution of the Delaware Actions. Defendants argue, among other things, that Texas law requires a stay because the Gaines Action in Delaware was the first-filed action and the necessary and discretionary factors that courts consider all support a stay, including that the Texas Shareholder Petitions and Texas Class Actions are substantively identical to the Delaware Actions.

On November 27, 2012, the Company, members of the Company Board, a Company officer, Parent, and Purchaser were named as defendants in a purported class action lawsuit brought by the Company's stockholders challenging the proposed transaction and filed in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, captioned Empire State Supply Retirement Plan v. Titanium Metals Corp. et al., Case Number 1:99-mc-09999 (which we refer to as the Empire Action). The Empire Action seeks certification of a class of the Company's stockholders and generally alleges that, among other things, (i) all defendants violated Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act based on the allegedly false and misleading Schedule 14D-9, (ii) each member of the Company Board and the Company officer violated Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act as control persons of the Company, (iii) each member of the Company Board and the Company officer breached his fiduciary duties in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (iv) the Company and Parent aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties. The Empire Action seeks, among other relief, a declaratory judgment, an injunction prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, rescission in the event such transactions are consummated, an order invalidating and setting aside the break-up fee, compensatory and punitive damages, and attorneys' fees and costs.
