Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 5, 2014, Autoliv, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) held on May 4, 2014, the Board elected Mr. Jan Carlson to serve as its new Chairman, effective immediately. Since April 3, 2014, Mr. Carlson has been serving as Interim Chairman of the Board following the resignation of our previous Chairman, Lars Nyberg. Mr. Carlson is the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

In addition, at the same meeting, the Board approved amendments to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to require the Board to select a Lead Independent Director when the position of Chairman is held by an officer of the Company. The Lead Independent Director will generally be responsible for ensuring that the views of the non-management directors are adequately considered and weighed in the Board's decision-making process, and to perform the specific duties set forth in the amended Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Because Mr. Carlson serves as both an officer of the Company and the Chairman, in accordance with the amended Corporate Governance Guidelines, at the same meeting, the independent members of the Board selected Mr. George Lorch to serve as the Lead Independent Director, effective immediately. Mr. Lorch has been a director of the Company since June 2003 and currently is the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

A full copy of the amended Corporate Governance Guidelines is available at the Company's website at the following address: <http://www.autoliv.com/AboutUs/Governance/Pages/Ethics-and-Policies.aspx>.

A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

EXHIBIT INDEX

Exhibit No.	Description
99.1	Press Release of Autoliv, Inc. dated May 5, 2014.

Autoliv appoints Chairman of the Board and Lead Independent Director

(Stockholm, Sweden, May 5, 2014) The Board of Directors of Autoliv, Inc. (NYSE: ALV and SSE: ALIVsdb), the worldwide leader in automotive safety systems, at a meeting on May 4, 2014, elected Mr. Jan Carlson to serve as its new Chairman of the Board, effective immediately. Since April 3, 2014, Mr. Carlson has been serving as Interim Chairman following the resignation of the previous Chairman Mr. Lars Nyberg.

Mr. Carlson is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Autoliv, a position he has held since 2007. The Board believes that Mr. Carlson's long experience with Autoliv, including the extensive knowledge of the Company he has gained through his service as President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as his deep knowledge of the auto industry, make him the best choice for Chairman at this time.

Jan Carlson joined Autoliv in 1999. Prior to becoming the President and CEO he has held the positions of President Europe, President Electronics and Vice President Engineering. He is additionally a board member of BorgWarner Inc. and Trelleborg AB.

At the same meeting, the Board approved amendments to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to provide for a Lead Independent Director if the position of Chairman is held by an officer of the Company. The Lead Independent Director will generally be responsible for ensuring that the views of the independent directors are adequately considered and weighed in the Board's decision-making process, and to perform the specific duties set out in the amended Corporate Governance Guidelines. Consistent with the Company's commitment to strong corporate governance, the Board believes that appointing a Lead Independent Director will counterbalance any issues and concerns related to the Board having a non-independent Chairman.

Because Mr. Carlson is both an officer of the Company and the Chairman, pursuant to the amended Corporate Governance Guidelines, at the same meeting, the independent members of the Board selected Mr. George Lorch to serve as the Lead Independent Director, effective immediately. Mr. Lorch has been a director of the Company since June 2003 and currently is the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

A copy of the amended Corporate Governance Guidelines is available at the Company's website at the following address:

<http://www.autoliv.com/AboutUs/Governance/Pages/Ethics-and-Policies.aspx>.

Safe Harbor Statement

This report contains statements that are not historical facts but rather forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements include those that address activities, events or developments that Autoliv, Inc. or its management believes or anticipates may occur in the future. All forward-looking statements, including without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends and data, as well as estimates of future sales, operating margin, cash flow, effective tax rate or other future operating performance or financial results, are based upon our current expectations, various assumptions and data available from third parties. Our expectations and assumptions are expressed in good faith and we believe there is a reasonable basis for them. However, there can be no assurance that such forward-looking statements will materialize or prove to be correct as forward-looking statements are inherently subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause actual future results, performance or achievements to differ materially from the future results, performance or achievements expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements. Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, the outcome could differ materially from those set out in the forward-looking statements for a variety of reasons, including without limitation, changes in global light vehicle production; fluctuation in vehicle production schedules for which the Company is a supplier, changes in general industry and market conditions, changes in and the successful execution of our capacity alignment, restructuring and cost reduction initiatives discussed herein and the market reaction thereto; loss of business from increased competition; higher raw material, fuel and energy costs; changes in consumer and customer preferences for end products; customer losses; changes in regulatory conditions; customer bankruptcies or divestiture of customer brands; unfavorable fluctuations in currencies or interest rates among the various jurisdictions in which we operate; component shortages; market acceptance of our new products; costs or difficulties related to the integration of any new or acquired businesses and technologies; continued uncertainty in pricing negotiations with customers, our ability to be awarded new business; product liability, warranty and recall claims and other litigation and customer reactions thereto; higher expenses for our pension and other postretirement benefits; work stoppages or other labor issues; possible adverse results of pending or future litigation or infringement claims; negative impacts of antitrust investigations or other governmental investigations and associated litigation (including securities litigation) relating to the conduct of our business; tax assessments by governmental authorities and changes in our effective tax rate; dependence on key personnel; legislative or regulatory changes limiting our business; political conditions; dependence on and relationships with customers and suppliers; and other risks and uncertainties identified under the headings Risk Factors and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in our Annual Reports and Quarterly Reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q and any amendments thereto. The Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements in light of new information or future events. For any forward-looking statements contained in this or any other document, we claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and we assume no obligation to update any such statement.
