Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 19, 2014, Laboratory Corporation of America® Holdings (the Company) entered into an amendment and restatement of its existing senior revolving credit facility, which was originally entered into on December 21, 2011 and for which Bank of America, N.A. served as swing line lender, letter of credit issuer and administrative agent for a group of financial institutions. The senior revolving credit facility, as amended and restated, is referred to in this report as the new revolving credit facility. The new revolving credit facility consists of a five-year revolving facility in the principal amount of up to $1.0 billion, with the ability to increase the facility by up to an additional $250 million, subject to the agreement of one or more new or existing lenders to provide such additional amounts and certain other customary conditions. The new revolving credit facility also provides for a subfacility of up to $100 million for swing line borrowings and a subfacility of up to $125 million for issuances of letters of credit. Bank of America, N.A., is acting as swing line lender and a letter of credit issuer and as administrative agent for a group of financial institutions providing the revolving credit facility. The new revolving credit facility is permitted to be used for general corporate purposes, including working capital, capital expenditures, funding of share repurchases and certain other payments, and acquisitions and other investments.

On December 19, 2014, the Company also entered into a five-year term loan credit facility in the principal amount of $1.0 billion (together with the new revolving credit facility, the New Credit Facilities). Bank of America, N.A. will act as administrative agent for a group of financial institutions providing the term loan facility. The term loan credit facility is permitted to be used to pay all or a portion of the cash consideration of the Company's proposed acquisition (the Acquisition) of Covance Inc., a Delaware corporation (Covance), and to pay related fees and expenses. The term loan credit facility will be advanced in full on the date of the Company's completion of the Acquisition (the Acquisition Closing Date), with such advances being subject only to certain customary funds provisions. If the Acquisition does not close on or before June 2, 2015, then the commitments under the term loan credit facility will automatically terminate.

Under the New Credit Facilities, which have affirmative and negative covenants that are substantially identical to each other, the Company is subject to negative covenants limiting subsidiary indebtedness and certain other covenants typical for investment grade-rated borrowers and the Company is required to maintain a leverage ratio that varies depending on whether the Acquisition Closing Date has occurred. Prior to the Acquisition Closing Date, the leverage ratio must be no greater than 3.75 to 1.00, which prior to the Acquisition Closing Date is calculated excluding the principal amount of certain senior notes issued for the purpose of funding the Acquisition. From and after the Acquisition Closing Date, the leverage ratio must be no greater than 4.75 to 1.00 with respect to the last day of each of the first four fiscal quarters ending on or after the Acquisition Closing Date, 4.25 to 1.00 with respect to the last day of each of the fifth through eighth fiscal quarters ending after the Acquisition Closing Date, and 3.75 to 1.00 with respect to the last day of each fiscal quarter ending thereafter.

When advanced, the term loan credit facility will accrue interest at a per annum rate equal to, at the Company's election, either a LIBOR rate plus a margin ranging from 1.125% to 2.00%, or a base rate determined according to a prime rate or federal funds rate plus a margin ranging from 0.125% to 1.00%. Advances under the new revolving credit facility will accrue interest at a per annum rate equal to, at the Company's election, either a LIBOR rate plus a margin ranging from 1.00 to 1.60%, or a base rate determined according to a prime rate or federal funds rate plus a margin ranging from 0.00% to 0.60%. Fees are payable on outstanding letters of credit under the new revolving credit facility at a per annum rate equal to the applicable margin for LIBOR loans, and the Company is required to pay a facility fee on the aggregate commitments under the new revolving credit facility, at a per annum rate ranging from 0.125% to 0.40%. In each case, the interest margin applicable to the New Credit Facilities, and the facility fee and letter of credit fees payable under the new revolving credit facility, are based on the Company's senior credit ratings as determined by Standard & Poor's and Moody's, which are currently BBB+ and Baa2, respectively. Until the earlier of the Acquisition Closing Date or the date the term loan credit facility commitments are terminated, a ticking fee shall accrue on the unfunded term loan credit facility commitments in an amount equal to 0.15% per annum of such unfunded commitments.

On December 19, 2014, there were no outstanding borrowings under the new revolving credit facility and existing letters of credit totaling approximately $42 million were continued under the facility.
