Suncor's CEO: about our offer for Canadian Oil Sands shares

Steve Williams

president and CEO, Suncor

I'm here today to talk about the offer that Suncor is making to Canadian Oil Sands shareholders. I wanted to speak to you personally.

We have sent you a letter giving you the details, but the summary of all of that is I want you to have your say.

The offer has a significant premium in it; that premium now is approaching 60 per cent in terms of the shareholder value immediately prior to the offer being made. There's a 45 per cent improvement in dividend so I think it's a very fair offer.

If you look at the track record of Canadian Oil Sands, it's one of over promise and under deliver.

Suncor is quite the opposite.

In fact, over the last 5 years, we've increased our dividends to shareholders by 190 per cent. And that's been part of the reason we've attracted world-class investors.

The Canadian Oil Sands Board is saying, do nothing. Doing nothing is equivalent to rejecting the offer. If that happens, the offer may well go away. So the premiums we've talked about, the dividends we've talked about will not be available to you.

These are challenging times for all investors. I think this offer is fair, particularly when you consider it still gives Canadian Oil Sands shareholders exposure to crude price as it increases.

But it is complex, and I do recommend everyone takes independent financial advice.
