Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement*The Merger Agreement*

On January 9, 2017, Columbia Banking System, Inc., a Washington corporation, (Columbia) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Pacific Continental Corporation, an Oregon corporation (Pacific Continental). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, an Oregon corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Columbia (Merger Sub), will merge with and into Pacific Continental (the First Merger), with Pacific Continental continuing as the surviving corporation (the Surviving Corporation). Immediately following the First Merger and as a part of a single integrated transaction, the Surviving Corporation will merge with and into Columbia (the Subsequent Merger), with Columbia as the surviving entity. Immediately following the Subsequent Merger, Pacific Continental Bank, an Oregon state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Pacific Continental will merge with and into Columbia State Bank, a Washington state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Columbia (Columbia Bank), with Columbia Bank as the surviving bank (the Bank Merger, and together with the First Merger and the Subsequent Merger, the Mergers). The Merger Agreement was adopted by the board of directors of Columbia (the Columbia Board) and the board of directors of Pacific Continental (the Pacific Continental Board).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the date and time when the First Merger becomes effective (the Effective Time), the Pacific Continental shareholders will have the right to receive, in respect of each share of common stock of Pacific Continental (Pacific Continental Common Stock), a number of common shares of Columbia (Columbia Common Stock) equal to the Exchange Ratio (as defined below), subject to any adjustments set forth in the Merger Agreement (the Merger Consideration). Exchange Ratio means the following: (i) if the average daily closing price of Columbia Common Stock on Nasdaq (the Columbia Average Closing Price) for the twenty (20) consecutive trading days prior to the fifth (5th) business day immediately prior to the closing date (the Determination Period) is greater than or equal to $27.76 and less than or equal to $37.56, then the Exchange Ratio will be 0.6430; (ii) if the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period is greater than $37.56, and the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period outperforms the Keefe, Bruyette & Woods Regional Banking Index by greater than fifteen percent (15%), then the Exchange Ratio will be the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth, obtained by dividing (A) $24.151 by (B) the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period; (iii) if the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period is greater than $37.56, and the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period does not outperform the Keefe, Bruyette & Woods Regional Banking Index by greater than fifteen percent (15%), then the Exchange Ratio will be 0.6430; (iv) if the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period is less than $27.76, and the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period underperforms the Keefe, Bruyette & Woods Regional Banking Index by greater than fifteen percent (15%), then the Exchange Ratio will be (A) the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth, obtained by dividing $17.850 by the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period if Columbia does not choose to adjust the Merger Consideration in accordance with the Merger Agreement, or (B) 0.6430 if Columbia does choose to adjust the Merger Consideration as set forth in the Merger Agreement and described below; and (v) if the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period is less than $27.76, and the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period does not underperform the Keefe, Bruyette & Woods Regional Banking Index by greater than fifteen percent (15%), then the Exchange Ratio will be 0.6430. In connection with clause (iv) above, if Columbia chooses to adjust the Merger Consideration, which it may do in its sole discretion, the Merger Consideration will include an amount in cash equal to (A) $17.850 minus (B) (x) 0.6430 multiplied by (y) the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period, and the Exchange Ratio will be 0.6430.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances, including: (i) by mutual written consent of the parties; (ii) by either party in the event that any required regulatory approval is not obtained; (iii) by either party in the event that, under certain circumstances, the First Merger will not have been consummated by November 9, 2017 which may be extended to January 9, 2018 in certain circumstances; (iv) by either party in the event of a breach by the other party of any covenant or agreement or any representation or warranty that would result in the failure of certain conditions to the Merger Agreement; (v) by either party if the requisite Columbia shareholder approval or Pacific Continental shareholder approval is not obtained; (vi) by Columbia in the event Pacific Continental fails to recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to its shareholders; (vii) by Pacific Continental, prior to Pacific Continental shareholder approval, to enter into a superior proposal; and (viii) by either party in the event the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period is less than $26.13; provided, however, if Columbia exercises its termination right described in clause (viii), Pacific Continental will have the option of reinstating the First Merger by adjusting the Exchange Ratio to 0.6430 and adding to the per share Merger Consideration an amount in cash equal to $1.048.

The Merger Agreement provides that at the Effective Time, all outstanding restricted stock units of Pacific Continental (Pacific Continental Restricted Stock Units), whether vested or unvested, will automatically and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, be cancelled and will only entitle the holders of such Pacific Continental Restricted Stock Units to receive (without interest), an amount in cash equal to (i) the number of shares of Pacific Continental Common Stock subject to such Pacific Continental Restricted Stock Units immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (ii) (A) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by (B) the Columbia Average Closing Price for the Determination Period (the Equity Award Cashout Price), less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. The Merger Agreement provides that at the Effective Time, any vesting conditions applicable to any Pacific Continental outstanding restricted stock awards will automatically and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, accelerate in full and will be converted into, and become exchangeable for, the Merger Consideration (less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such vesting). The Merger Agreement provides that at the Effective Time, all outstanding stock options of Pacific Continental (Pacific Continental Stock Options), whether vested or unvested, will automatically and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, be cancelled and will only entitle the holders of such Pacific Continental Stock Options to receive (without interest), an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Pacific Continental Common Stock subject to such Pacific Continental Stock Options immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any of (A) the Equity Award Cashout Price over (B) the exercise price per share of Pacific Continental Common Stock of such Pacific Continental Stock Options less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. The Merger Agreement provides that at the Effective Time, all stock appreciation rights of Pacific Continental (Pacific Continental Stock Appreciation Rights), whether cash-settled or stock-settled, vested or unvested, will automatically and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, be cancelled and will only entitle the holders of such Pacific Continental Stock Appreciation Rights to receive (without interest) an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Pacific Continental Common Stock subject to such Pacific Continental Stock Appreciation Rights immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Equity Award Cashout Price over (B) the reference price per share of Pacific Continental Common Stock of such Pacific Continental Stock Appreciation Right less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment.

Consummation of the First Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, approval by the Pacific Continental shareholders and the Columbia shareholders and receipt of required regulatory approvals.

Upon consummation of the First Merger, the Columbia Board will consist of the directors serving on the Columbia Board prior to the Effective Time plus one community-based independent director from the Pacific Continental Board recommended by Columbia's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Pacific Continental, Columbia or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to
