Subject: Today's Announcement re: Ellie Mae's Proposed Acquisition by Thoma Bravo

Dear Ellie Mae Teammates

I am very excited to share with you the next important milestone in Ellie Mae's journey. Earlier today we announced via press release that Ellie Mae has agreed to be acquired by Thoma Bravo.

With this acquisition, Ellie Mae will once again be a private company, with added flexibility to further innovate on our Encompass Digital Lending Platform and focus on the growth of our customer base and partner ecosystem. The entire leadership team and I are truly excited by the opportunities our partnership with Thoma Bravo opens up for us. We remain deeply committed to our mission to automate everything automatable for the residential mortgage industry, to our customers' success and to providing you with an environment that truly makes us a best place to work.

Who is Thoma Bravo?

Thoma Bravo is a leading private equity firm focused on the software and technology-enabled services sectors. With a series of funds representing more than $30 billion in capital commitments, Thoma Bravo partners with a company's management team to implement operating best practices, invest in growth initiatives and make accretive acquisitions intended to accelerate revenue and earnings, with the goal of increasing the value of the business. Representative past and present portfolio companies include industry leaders such as ABC Financial, Blue Coat Systems, Deltek, Digital Insight, Frontline Education, Global Healthcare Exchange, Hyland Software, Imprivata, iPipeline, PowerPlan, Qlik, Riverbed, SailPoint, SolarWinds, SonicWall, Sparta Systems, TravelClick and Veracode. The firm has offices in San Francisco and Chicago. For more information, visit thomabravo.com.

Why now?

As a public company, one of the responsibilities of our board and management team is to maximize shareholder value. We decided that partnering with Thoma Bravo is our best option for shareholders, and a fantastic way to foster value for you and long-term growth for Ellie Mae. Thoma Bravo has agreed to acquire all outstanding Ellie Mae common stock for $99.00 per share, representing an approximately 47 percent premium compared to the closing price of our stock as of February 1, 2019.

What does this mean for you?

Today, we're announcing an acquisition agreement, not the acquisition itself. That's not yet complete. So, why announce now? Since we are a publicly traded company, any agreements that would be material to the company must be filed with the SEC and, as a result, made public. The acquisition is not complete until closing, which we expect to happen in the second quarter of 2019. Until we close, Ellie Mae is still a public company, and we'll continue to operate business as usual.

What can you say publicly?

Today, we issued a press release describing the details of the proposed acquisition. As a company, we will not be commenting publicly on the proposed acquisition, beyond what we will be filing with the SEC, until the transaction is complete.

To help you field questions from customers and partners, we've posted FAQs to Ellie Connect. If you receive questions from members of the media, please send them to Erica Harvill at Erica.harvill@elliemae.com. If you receive questions from financial analysts, please direct them to Alex Hughes at alex.hughes@elliemae.com.

How do I learn more?

You have questions. Join us for an All Hands Call today at 10 am PT where the Executive Leadership team and I will share more information about what this means for you and for Ellie Mae. The meeting will show up on your calendar shortly and will not be recorded, so please do your best to join. In the meantime, view the Employee FAQ on Corrs Corner that may answer some of your more immediate questions.

Additionally, we are going to refactor Thursday's Company Kickoff meeting to a one-hour Virtual Town Hall Meeting where we will discuss our product and technology strategy, roadmap and priorities for 2019 and our sales and marketing plan. Once the transaction is complete we will host a larger All Hands meeting. Stay tuned for a new meeting invite shortly.

I want to close by saying thank you. It is through your dedication, passion, hard work, innovation and team effort that we have arrived at this pivotal moment. We have built a leading brand with solutions that are shaping the mortgage industry and changing the way people buy and refinance homes. With Thoma Bravo, I am confident that we'll build upon our long history of success and accelerate our path to achieving our North Star.

I look forward to continuing to drive innovation home with you.

Sincerely,

Jonathan

STOCK/BENEFITS/EMPLOYMENT QUESTIONS

What will happen to my Ellie Mae stock options and restricted stock unit awards (RSUs)?

Stock Options will be cancelled and replaced with a right to receive, in cash, without interest, an amount equal to the number of shares underlying the option, multiplied by the excess of the per share price of the deal ($99.00) over the exercise price of the option. If your options are vested, then you will be paid this cash in connection with the closing of the transaction. If your options are unvested, then you will be paid this cash on the same schedule as your options would have vested.

RSUs will continue to vest on their current vesting schedule, subject to their prior terms. When the acquisition is completed, all unvested RSUs will be cancelled and replaced with a right to receive, in cash and without interest, an amount equal to the per share price of the deal ($99.00) multiplied by the number of RSUs. This right to receive cash for your unvested RSUs will vest and be payable at the same time as the unvested RSUs would have vested. Just as is currently the case, you will need to be employed on each vesting date in order to be paid. All cash payments will be reduced by applicable tax withholdings.

How will this affect our ESPP plan?

If you are already enrolled in the ESPP plan, you will continue to contribute at your current rate until the current purchase period ends unless you withdraw from the ESPP before that time. If the closing of the transaction occurs prior to the regularly scheduled end date of the offering period in which you are currently enrolled, your offering period will be shortened to a date that is prior to the closing of the transaction. At that time, your cumulative contributions will be used to purchase shares of Ellie Mae common stock and any leftover contributions will be promptly returned to you. There will be no further ESPP plan after this period ends.

Will this impact salary or bonus after the closing?

Thoma Bravo and Ellie Mae are committed to providing our team members with competitive compensation that rewards performance. We will endeavor to provide ongoing updates as information is available.

Can I continue to trade my Ellie Mae stock while the transaction is pending?

Generally, as long as the trading window is open you can continue to trade Ellie Mae common stock unless you have material non-public information or if you have been notified by our stock administrator that you have been restricted. Ellie Mae's Insider Trading policy continues to apply.

Will Ellie Mae's current employee benefits plans change?

For the foreseeable future we expect our employee benefits plans to remain unchanged. We will endeavor to provide updates as soon as information is available.

Will I still have a job? Are layoffs planned as a result?

You are what makes Ellie Mae a great place to work. Our people and our culture are critical to our ability to achieve our mission of automating everything automatable for the residential mortgage industry. We will endeavor to provide ongoing communication regarding the transaction as soon as information is available.

How does this acquisition impact new employees, outstanding offers or people who have accepted positions without a start date?

We expect new employees to be onboarded business as usual throughout the transaction.

What will happen with the Equity Refresh Program we typically launch in April?

Ellie Mae will work with Thoma Bravo to build a new long-term incentive program for employees. We will communicate the new program broadly once it is finalized.
