GOLD FIELDS SHAREHOLDERS DO NOT APPROVE IAMGold TRANSACTION

Johannesburg, 7 December 2004. The Board of Directors of Gold Fields Limited (GFI: NYSE and JSE) today announced that the proposed reverse takeover of IAMGold Corporation ("the transaction") has not received the required majority approval by its shareholders. The proposed transaction will therefore not be completed. The breakdown of the vote is as follows: shares voted in favour 170,617,459 (48.23% of total) shares voted against -181,955,004 (51.44% of total) abstentions -1,154,283 (0.33% of total)

Gold Fields Chief Executive Officer Ian Cockerill said, "This is a disappointing result, but we respect the decision of our shareholders. Gold Fields has outstanding assets and people, very profitable operations and a strong balance sheet. As we have stated before, we have a number of strategic options open to us. The key elements of our strategy for aggressive earnings growth are those we announced in May 2004:

continued organic growth of our existing assets, including through continual improvements of our operational efficiency; acquisitions to diversify geographic, technical and currency risk and to grow our international portfolio by 1.5 million ounces per year within five years; and exploration for new, high value opportunities in current and new territories.

The Board will be meeting over the next few days to consider our options. We will provide the market with an update on our strategic plans aimed at maximising the value of your company."

He concluded, "Whilst we were unable to convince a suitable number of shareholders to vote this transaction through, we respect the outcome and will continue to press on and do what we have demonstrated so well these past few years, and that is add value by running good quality mines in a safe, efficient and profitable manner. And we would urge you to continue to resist tendering your shares to any subsequent Harmony offer. Today's vote against IAMGold is not a vote for the Harmony offer."
