Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 7, 2018, Altra Industrial Motion Corp., a Delaware corporation (Altra), announced that it and McHale Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Altra (Merger Sub) had entered into definitive agreements with Fortive Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Fortive), and Stevens Holding Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Fortive (Newco), for a transaction pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions of certain definitive agreements, (1) Fortive will transfer certain assets, liabilities and entities within its Automation & Specialty platform, but excluding its Hengstler and Dynapar businesses (such businesses to be transferred, the A&S Business) to Newco, (2) Fortive will distribute to its stockholders all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Newco (the Newco Common Stock) held by Fortive, at Fortive's option, by way of an exchange offer or a pro rata dividend, or a combination thereof (the Distribution) and (3) immediately after the Distribution, Merger Sub will merge with and into Newco (the Merger) and the issued and outstanding shares of Newco Common Stock will be converted into shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Altra (Altra Common Stock) as provided in the Merger Agreement. In addition, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, prior to the effective time of the Merger, Fortive will transfer certain non-U.S. assets, liabilities and entities of the A&S Business to certain subsidiaries of Altra, and the Altra subsidiaries will assume substantially all of the liabilities associated with the transferred assets (the Direct Sales). Upon completion of the Merger, Newco (which at that time will hold the A&S Business) will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Altra and holders of Altra Common Stock immediately prior to the Merger are expected to own in the aggregate approximately 46% of the outstanding shares of Altra Common Stock and holders of Fortive's common stock participating in the Distribution are expected to own in the aggregate approximately 54% of the outstanding shares of Altra Common Stock, in each case immediately following the Merger, subject to adjustment as provided in the Merger Agreement.

The definitive agreements entered into include (1) an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of March 7, 2018 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Altra, Merger Sub, Fortive and Newco, (2) a Separation and Distribution Agreement, dated as of March 7, 2018 (the Separation Agreement), by and among Altra, Fortive and Newco and (3) an Employee Matters Agreement, dated March 7, 2018 (the Employee Matters Agreement), by and among Altra, Fortive and Newco. In connection with the transactions, Altra, Fortive and Newco will enter into additional agreements, including, among others:

Tax Matters Agreement among Altra, Fortive and Newco, which will govern the parties' respective rights, responsibilities and obligations with respect to taxes, tax attributes, the preparation and filing of returns, the control of audits and other tax proceedings and assistance and cooperation in respect of tax matters, in each case related to tax matters of Altra and the A&S Business after the transaction, and will restrict the parties from taking certain actions that could cause the transactions to fail to qualify as tax-free transactions;

a Transition Services Agreement among Altra, Fortive and Newco, pursuant to which Newco will, on a transitional basis, provide Fortive, and Fortive and its affiliates will, on a transitional basis, provide Newco with certain support services and other assistance after the transaction; and certain intellectual property licenses.

The Separation Agreement

The Separation Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions regarding the separation of the A&S Business from Fortive. The Separation Agreement identifies and provides for the transfer of certain assets and entities by Fortive to Newco and the assumption of certain liabilities by Newco from Fortive.

The Separation Agreement also governs the rights and obligations of Newco and Fortive regarding the distribution of Newco Common Stock to Fortive's stockholders. At Fortive's election, the Distribution may be effected by means of a pro-rata distribution of Newco Common Stock to Fortive's stockholders or through an exchange offer of common stock of Fortive for Newco Common Stock, which may be followed by a pro rata, clean-up distribution of unsubscribed shares, or a combination thereof.

Additionally, immediately prior to the effective time and as a condition to the Distribution, Newco will make distributions to Fortive of cash and debt instruments of Newco with an aggregate value of $400 million. The cash portion of such distribution is expected to be $150 million (the Cash Dividend). Fortive expects to exchange the Newco debt instruments (the Debt Exchange) for outstanding debt obligations of Fortive.

The Separation Agreement also sets forth other agreements between Newco and Fortive related to the Distribution, including provisions concerning the termination and settlement of intercompany accounts, obtaining the necessary governmental approvals and third-party consents. The Separation Agreement governs certain aspects of the relationship between Newco and Fortive after the Distribution, including provisions with respect to release of claims, indemnification and treatment of outstanding guarantees. The parties have mutual ongoing indemnification obligations following the Distribution with respect to losses related to the A&S Business.

Consummation of the Distribution is subject to various conditions, including the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions under the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement

As described above, the Merger Agreement provides that, immediately following the consummation of the Distribution, Merger Sub will merge with and into Newco and each share of Newco Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive 35 million shares of Altra Common Stock (the Altra Share Amount). The Merger Agreement provides that Fortive may elect to reduce the Altra Share Amount in the event that there is a shortfall in the A&S Business 2017 Adjusted EBITDA (as defined in the Merger Agreement) derived from audited financial statements of the A&S Business, but in no event may Fortive elect to reduce the Altra Share Amount such that it represents less than 50.1% of the outstanding shares of Altra Common Stock after giving effect to the Merger. After the Merger is completed, Newco will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Altra.

Additionally, the Merger Agreement provides that the Direct Sales will be completed for a purchase price of $1.0 billion. The Merger Agreement also provides that in connection with the Merger, one individual selected by Fortive will be appointed to Altra's Board of Directors.

Altra, Merger Sub, Fortive and Newco each make certain representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among other things, covenants by Altra to carry on its operations in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger and not to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger without the prior approval of Fortive. In addition, Fortive also agreed to cause the A&S Business to be conducted in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice during the interim period and not to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger without the approval of Altra. Altra and Fortive have also agreed to certain non-solicitation covenants in the Merger Agreement.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including, among others, approval of the issuance of the Altra Common Stock by the requisite vote of Altra's stockholders; the effectiveness of Altra's registration statement registering the Altra Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement; the Distribution having taken place in accordance with the Separation Agreement; the expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the receipt of certain required foreign antitrust approvals; receipt of certain tax rulings from the Internal Revenue Service; and consummation of the Debt Exchange in an amount equal to the Above-Basis Amount (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and receipt by Fortive of the Cash Dividend immediately before the Distribution.

The Merger Agreement contains specified termination rights for Altra and Fortive, including that either party may terminate in the event that the Merger is not consummated by December 7, 2018, which date may be extended by either Altra or Fortive to February 12, 2019 (the End Date) if either the Debt Exchange has not been consummated or regulatory approvals have not been received but all other closing conditions have been satisfied. Either party may also terminate the Merger Agreement if the approval of the issuance of the Altra Common Stock has not been obtained at a duly convened meeting of Altra's stockholders.

Altra will owe Fortive a termination fee equal to $40 million if (i) an Ainge Triggering Event (as defined in the Merger Agreement) (other than due to Altra breaching its non-solicitation covenant) occurs and Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement, (ii) the Merger shall not have been consummated by the End Date or Altra shall have breached either its non-solicitation or stockholders meeting covenants, a publicly known Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) was made prior to termination, either Altra or Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement and Altra enters into a definitive agreement or consummates the Acquisition Proposal within 12 months of termination of the Merger Agreement, (iii) Altra's stockholders do not approve the issuance of Altra Common Stock, a publicly known Acquisition Proposal was made prior to termination, either Altra or Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement and Altra enters into a definitive agreement or consummates the Acquisition Proposal within 12 months of termination of the Merger Agreement, (iv) Altra terminates the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement to consummate an Ainge Superior Offer (as defined in the Merger Agreement), (v) either Altra or Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement following the End Date and at the time of termination all conditions to closing other than the Distribution (as defined in the Merger Agreement), Debt Exchange (as defined in the Merger Agreement), Fortive's receipt of the Cash Dividend (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and conditions which by their nature are to be satisfied only at closing are satisfied and the Marketing Period (as defined in the Merger Agreement) has not ended because Altra has not provided to the Financing Sources (as defined in the Merger Agreement) the Required Ainge Financial Information that is Compliant (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or otherwise in satisfaction of the requirements of the Marketing Period or (vi) Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement because the Marketing Period shall have ended, all of Altra's closing conditions have been satisfied, the closing has not occurred by the End Date, Fortive has provided written notice to Altra of the satisfaction of Altra's closing conditions and Fortive's willingness to close and Altra fails to consummate the closing within the earlier of the End Date and three business days following receipt of Fortive's notice.

Fortive will owe Altra a termination fee equal to $40 million if Fortive determines that the Debt Exchange is not reasonably likely to be consummated at or prior to the End Date in an amount equal to the Above-Basis Amount and Fortive terminates the Merger Agreement.

In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that Altra will reimburse Fortive's expenses in an amount up to $5.0 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated because Altra's stockholders do not approve the issuance of Altra Common Stock.

The Separation Agreement and the Merger Agreement have been filed, and the above descriptions of the Separation Agreement and the Merger Agreement have been included, to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the Separation Agreement and the Merger Agreement. They are not intended to provide any other factual information about Altra, Merger Sub, Fortive, Newco, their respective subsidiaries and affiliates, or any of their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of Fortive and Newco solely for the benefit of Altra and Merger Sub and representations and warranties of Altra and Merger Sub solely for the benefit of Fortive and Newco. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure letters that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement as of a specific date. The disclosure letters contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Therefore, investors and security holders should not treat the representations and warranties as categorical statements of fact. Moreover, these representations and warranties may apply standards of materiality in a way that is different from what may be material to investors. They were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the Merger Agreement and they are subject to more recent developments. Accordingly, investors and security holders should read the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement not in isolation but only in conjunction with the other information about Altra and Fortive and their subsidiaries that the respective companies include in reports and statements they file with the SEC.

Employee Matters Agreement

The Employee Matters Agreement, among other things, allocates between the parties the pre-and post-closing liabilities in respect of the employees (Newco Employees) of the A&S Business transferred to Newco (including liabilities in respect of Fortive's employee benefit plans) and establishes certain required treatment of the Newco Employees by Altra.

The Employee Matters Agreement provides that, beginning on the closing and ending on December 31, 2019, Altra will generally provide each Newco Employee who is not covered by a collective bargaining agreement or similar arrangement with (i) base compensation at least equal to that provided to the Newco Employee immediately prior to the closing, (ii) short-term and long-term incentive compensation opportunities that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those in effect for the Newco Employee immediately prior to the closing and (iii) health, welfare, retirement and automobile allowance benefits with a value that is substantially similar in the aggregate to that provided to the Newco Employee immediately prior to the closing (or cash in lieu thereof), to the extent communicated to Altra, required by law or customary in the applicable jurisdiction. Each Newco Employee who is located in the United States and incurs a qualifying termination on or before December 31, 2019 will generally be entitled to receive the severance benefits that are substantially similar to those that would have been provided by Fortive upon a qualifying termination of employment immediately prior to the closing.

In addition, the Employee Matters Agreement provides that each stock option relating to shares of Fortive common stock that is held by a Newco Employee and is vested and exercisable as of immediately prior to the closing will generally remain outstanding for 90 days following the closing. Each restricted stock unit relating to shares of Fortive common stock that is held by a Newco Employee and is vested as of immediately prior to the closing will be settled in shares of Fortive common stock as soon as practicable after the closing.

All stock options and restricted stock units relating to shares of Fortive common stock that are held by a Newco Employee and that are not vested immediately before the closing will be cancelled by Fortive immediately before the closing and replaced by Altra with equity awards relating to shares of Altra Common Stock (or cash settled awards) in respect of the value of the cancelled Fortive stock options and restricted stock units held by the Newco Employee immediately before the closing, subject to certain offsets by Fortive as provided in the Employee Matters Agreement.

Altra Commitment Letter

On March 7, 2018, Altra entered into a commitment letter (the Altra Commitment Letter) with Goldman Sachs Bank USA (GS) pursuant to which GS commits to provide $1,340 million in aggregate principal amount of senior secured term loans (the Term Loans) and $300 million in aggregate principal amount of senior secured revolving loans (the Revolving Loans) and, together with the Term Loans, the Loans). The proceeds of the Term Loans will be used by Altra on the closing date to consummate the Direct Sales, to repay in full all outstanding indebtedness for borrowed money under Altra's existing credit agreement and to pay fees, costs and expenses in connection with the transactions. The commitments under the Altra Commitment Letter are subject to customary closing conditions. All obligations of Altra with respect to the Loans will be guaranteed by each direct or indirect wholly-owned domestic subsidiary of Altra, and following the effective time of the Merger, by Newco and its direct or indirect wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries, subject to customary exceptions.
