Set forth below is a letter from Gerald H. Lipkin, Chairman, President and CEO of Valley National Bancorp (“Valley”) and Valley National Bank, which was sent to all employees of Greater Community Bancorp (“Greater Community” or “GCB”) on March 20, 2008.

Date: March 19, 2008

To: All Greater Community Bancorp Employees

From: Gerald H. Lipkin, Chairman, President and CEO
Valley National Bank

Valley National Bancorp and Valley National Bank have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated March 19, 2008 pursuant to which Greater Community Bancorp will be merged into Valley National Bancorp and Greater Community Bank will be merged into Valley National Bank. This merger with Greater Community is consistent with Valley’s continued strategy of highly focused growth within our market through new branches and acquisitions of other financial institutions with similar business culture. We are very excited about the opportunities it represents to our shareholders, customers and employees.

As we await regulatory and shareholder approval of the merger, maintaining business continuity and customer service levels are of utmost importance. It is, in fact, key to the ultimate success of the merger. Our plan is to retain all retail branch staff members and commercial lenders. Please be assured that, as we move toward the closing date and through the integration process, those employees in areas selected for consolidation will be given strong consideration for placement within the organization. As a point of reference, Valley’s hiring capacity is 110 positions per month. We anticipate that many of those positions will be filled with affected GCB employees. Valley is headquartered locally in Wayne and has a proud history of commitment toward placing affected staff members.

It is our intention to continue all Greater Community’s current benefit programs until at least January 2009; after which, GCB’s staff members will be covered by Valley’s benefit programs. Valley offers a wide range of competitive benefits including an employer-paid defined benefit pension plan. The plan’s normal eligibility requirement will be waived and all GCB employees with at least six (6) months of service as of January 1, 2009 will become plan participants at that time. In addition, your tenure at GCB will be considered for vacation, service awards and other Valley benefit plans.

We welcome you to the Valley family and look forward to working with you through the integration process and beyond.
