Brasil Telecom clarifies Bovespa's Inquiry

In compliance with the request made in correspondence dated December 13th, 2005, transcribed below:

In an article released by agência Estado Broadcast, on 12/12/2005, among other information, Brasil Telecom's new management informed that the previous management caused a loss of R$ 361 million.

We request clarification regarding the news referred above, as well as other information considered important, especially regarding possible future impacts on the Companies' financial statements.

As it was disclosed on Notice to Shareholders dated December 12, 2005, by Brasil Telecom Participações S.A. and Brasil Telecom S.A., which have filed a complaint at CVM - Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission) regarding the improper management of the Companies' funds in businesses and operations with traces of controlling shareholder's abuses, breaches of fiduciary duties, conflict of interests, violation of the Law and the By-Laws.

Preliminary studies have shown that such improper management of funds amounted to approximately R$ 362 million, of which, R$ 82 million refer to illegal expenses paid and accounted for in the Companies' previous years financial statements and R$ 280 million refer to not incurred gains due to cost of opportunity.

Brasil Telecom Participações S.A. and Brasil Telecom S.A. are taking all necessary legal actions to be refunded from the damages and losses suffered due to the acts denounced, which could generate positive impacts on its future financial statements.

The Companies are available for any clarifications that shall be made necessary.
