NOTICE OF MATERIAL FACT

Companhia Brasileira de Distribuição (“CBD”) and Via Varejo S.A. (“Via Varejo”, together with CBD, the “Companies”), in compliance with the provisions of Article 157, Paragraph Four, of Law No. 6,404, dated as of December 15th, 1976, and of CVM Rule No. 358, dated as of January 3rd, 2002, and in addition to the joint Notice of Material Fact released on May 6th, 2014 (“Notice of Material Fact”) hereby inform their shareholders and the market the following:

Favorable Recommendation of the Special Committees

After reviewing the project of combination of the eCommerce business developed by the Companies through Nova Pontocom Comércio Eletrônico S.A. (“Nova”) with the e-commerce business developed by the controlling shareholder Casino, Guichard-Perrachon, S.A. (“Casino”) through Cdiscount S.A. and Cdiscount affiliates (“Cdiscount”), as informed in the Notice of Material Fact (“eCommerce Business Combination”), the Special Committees of the Boards of Directors of the Companies, which were created on May 6th, 2014 (“Special Committees”), submitted to the respective Boards of Directors of CBD and Via Varejo their considerations and conclusions.

The Special Committees delivered a favorable recommendation with regards to the implementation of the eCommerce Business Combination considering the following elements: (a) the commercial interests of the Companies in the eCommerce activities will be preserved; and (b) the potential for creation of value for the Companies and their shareholders through the integration of the eCommerce activities currently developed by Nova and Cdiscount into one of the largest global eCommerce companies, organized under the laws of the Netherlands, as Cnova N.V. (“Cnova”).

Recommended Exchange Ratio

The Special Committees, following their review and analysis of the opinions issued by their respective financial advisors (Credit Suisse for CBD's Special Committee and Bank of America Merrill Lynch for Via Varejo's Special Committee), recommended that the respective weights of Nova and Cdiscount be 53.5% and 46.5% respectively. Thus, upon completion of the corporate reorganization necessary to implement the eCommerce Business Combination, CBD and Via Varejo will indirectly hold 28.0% and 23.5% of the outstanding and voting capital stock of Cnova, respectively, and Casino (including its Colombian subsidiary Almacenes Exito S.A.) will hold 46.5% of the outstanding and voting capital stock of Cnova. The remainder of the capital of Cnova will be indirectly held by certain minority shareholders of Nova.

Minimum Conditions

The Special Committees, after analysis and discussions with their respective legal counsel, also presented to the Boards of Directors their recommendation as to the minimum terms and conditions necessary to implement the eCommerce Business Combination, including, among other things:

- (i) preservation of the existing rights and relationships between the Companies and Nova through an amendment of the Operational Agreement entered into by the Companies and Nova, dated October 17, 2013 (the “Operational Agreement”), ensuring continuity of existing synergies and integration between eCommerce and the brick and mortar businesses;
- (ii) the right for CBD and Via Varejo to appoint two (2) and one (1) members, respectively, of the nine (9) members of the initial Board of Directors of Cnova. In addition to the foregoing members appointed by CBD and Via Varejo and one (1) of the Co-CEOs, the Board of Directors of Cnova shall also be composed of two (2) other additional members who will be independent directors and three (3) directors appointed by Casino. Among the members of Casino, Mr. Jean-Charles Naouri, Chairman of the Boards of Directors of CBD and Casino and CEO of Casino, shall be appointed Chairman of the Board of Directors of Cnova;
- (iii) the election of the current CEO of Nova, Mr. Germán Pasquale Quiroga Vilaro, to the position of co-CEO of Cnova. Cnova will have two (2) co-CEOs, with the other co-CEO being the CEO of Cdiscount. The co-CEOs will rotate as members of Cnova’s Board of Directors and the CEO of Nova will be the first co-CEO sitting on the Board of Directors of Cnova;
- (iv) the adoption by Cnova of an Audit Committee, formed of independent members, and a Nomination and Remuneration Committee; and
- (v) the obligation for Cnova to adopt a Policy on Related Party Transactions that ensures the compliance with the practices usually adopted for such transactions in order to ensure transparency and to manage situations of conflicts of interests.

Additional Conditions

Additionally, as a result of the discussions among the Special Committees, their advisors and the management of the companies involved and their advisors, it was agreed that the creation of Cnova will observe the following additional conditions:

- (i) CBD and Via Varejo shall license for a minimum period of twenty (20) years (and automatically renewable for an additional ten (10) year period) the use of the trademarks “Extra,” “Casas Bahia” and “Ponto Frio” and domain names “extra.com.br”, “casasbahia.com.br”, as well as certain other trademarks, domain names and rights related thereto, for use in the eCommerce activities developed by the Brazilian subsidiary of Cnova; and

(ii) the founding shareholders of Cnova (directly or indirectly) will be entitled to receive special voting depositary receipts which will effectively grant them one (1) additional vote for each ordinary share of Cnova held and continue to be held (directly or indirectly) by them (or certain permitted transferees), in relation to the voting rights of new ordinary shares to be issued in the future in the context of the potential initial public offering of Cnova. The special voting rights associated with the depositary receipts will be non-transferable to third-parties, subject to limited exceptions.

Resolutions of the Boards of Directors

Given the favorable recommendation of the Special Committees, the Boards of Directors of the Companies, on the date hereof, by unanimous decision (with the abstention of the legally prevented), (i) approved, upon completion of certain conditions precedent, namely obtaining the necessary authorizations with the competent authorities, the proposal for the eCommerce Business Combination under the terms recommended by the Special Committees; (ii) authorized the management of the respective Companies to take the necessary steps to implement the eCommerce Business Combination; and (iii) authorized the submission of the application for registration of Cnova as a foreign private issuer with the Securities and Exchange Commission - SEC, a regulatory agency that regulates the U.S. securities market, in order to permit, subject to market conditions and other factors, (a) the admission to trading of the shares issued by Cnova on a stock exchange in the U.S. and (b) the public offering of new shares of Cnova.

Also on this date, at the same meetings, in compliance with the provisions of the Operational Agreement, and based on (i) the study about business synergies prepared by a specialized consulting firm, and (ii) the recommendation from the management and competent advisory committees of the Companies, the Boards of Directors of CBD, Nova and Via Varejo approved the commercial parameters for the sharing of synergies between these companies. The sharing of synergies will bring significant benefits to all companies and their shareholders, including in the context of the eCommerce Business Combination.

Next Steps

Following the approval of the Boards of Directors of the Companies and of the other companies concerned, Cnova filed today a registration statement (Form F-1) with the SEC which is available on the SEC's website (www.sec.gov).

The Companies will take the necessary measures to implement the decisions approved by the Boards of Directors and will inform their shareholders and the market in due course about additional material facts related to the eCommerce Business Combination.

Additional information about the subject of this notice of material fact is available at www.gpari.com.br and www.viavarejo.com.br/ri.
