EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Form 8-K/A amends the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Arbitron Inc. ("Arbitron" or the "Company") on December 27, 2004 to correct computational errors that were made in the calculation of the annual payments expected to be made by Clear Channel Communications, Inc. ("Clear Channel") under new agreements for various Arbitron services in 2005 and for radio networks in 2006, and to clarify the aggregate amount of payments expected to be made by Clear Channel to Arbitron under all agreements (including existing contracts that remain in place) in 2005.

Clear Channel is the Company's largest subscriber and represented approximately 21% of the Company's revenue in 2003. Certain of Clear Channel's existing licensing agreements with the Company were scheduled to expire on December 31, 2004. On December 27, 2004, the Company entered into new multi-year license agreements with Clear Channel to provide radio ratings and software services for Clear Channel's radio stations and networks through the Company's Fall 2008 survey.

Under the terms of the new agreements, the Company will provide its Radio Market Report Service, including the Company's Radio Market Report, MaximiSer, Arbitrends, PD Advantage, National Regional Database, Sample Surcharge, Retail Direct and Tapscan Software services, to Clear Channel. These services, which include new services as well as renewals of existing services, will be provided under agreements that generally expire on December 31, 2008. The annual payment for these services under the new agreements is expected to be approximately $54.0 million in 2005, based on the radio stations currently owned by Clear Channel.

Clear Channel also renewed its existing contracts for the Scarborough services. These services, which include new services as well as renewals of existing services, will be provided under agreements that expire on December 31, 2008. The annual payment for these services under the new agreements is expected to be approximately $3.4 million in 2005, based on the radio stations and networks currently owned by Clear Channel.

In addition, Clear Channel has existing contracts for other services described in this Form 8-K/A that remain in place. The annual payment for these services under these existing contracts is expected to be approximately $4.5 million in 2005. As a result, the aggregate amount of all payments to be made by Clear Channel to Arbitron under all agreements is expected to be approximately $61.9 million in 2005, based on the radio stations, networks and national radio representative firm currently owned by Clear Channel.

In addition, Clear Channel also renewed its existing agreements with the Company for its radio networks and national radio representative firm, including Radar, Nationwide and Radio Market Report, MaximiSer, Arbitrends and PD Advantage services, which were generally scheduled to expire on December 31, 2005 (or December 31, 2006, in the case of Radar). These services will be provided under agreements that generally expire on December 31, 2008. The annual payment for these services is expected to be approximately $4.1 million in 2006, based on the radio networks and national radio representative firm currently owned by Clear Channel.

A copy of the press release announcing the contracts is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein. Copies of the contracts entered into between the Company and Clear Channel will be filed as exhibits to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2004.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
