Information on the Company

The business of the Bank is substantially the same as the business of Credit Suisse Group, which is described in “Item 4 –Information on the company” in the Group’s 2006 20-F. Substantially all of the Bank’s operations are conducted through the Investment Banking, Private Banking and Asset Management segments.

Certain other assets, liabilities and results of operations that are associated with the three segments are not included in the Bank’s condensed consolidated balance sheets and statement of income. In 2006 and prior years, these related principally to the activities of Clariden Leu and Neue Aargauer Bank. The results of operations of these entities, which are managed, but not legally owned, by the Bank are included in the Bank’s Private Banking segment but not reflected in the Bank’s consolidated statement of income. The results of operations of BANK-now, which are managed by the Bank and included in the Bank’s Private Banking segment, were included in the Bank’s consolidated financial statements through December 31, 2006. Effective January 3, 2007, BANK-now is a subsidiary of the Group and its results of operations are not included in the Bank’s consolidated financial statements.

Differences between the Group and the Bank businesses

Entity	Principal business activity
Clariden Leu ¹	Banking and securities
Neue Aargauer Bank	Banking (in the Swiss canton of Aargau)
BANK-now ²	Private credit and car leasing (in Switzerland)

Financing vehicles of the Group Special purpose vehicles for various funding activities of the Group, including for purposes of raising consolidated capital

1 Formed as of January 1, 2007 by the merger of the private banks Clariden Bank, Bank Leu, Bank Hofmann and BGP Banca die Gestione Patrimoniale, and the securities dealer Credit Suisse Fides. 2 Formed as of January 3, 2007 as a subsidiary of Credit Suisse Group. The operations comprising BANK-now were previously recorded in the Bank.

In addition, the Group has certain financing activities that are not in the Bank's consolidated balance sheet and statement of income. All of these activities vary from period to period and give rise to differences between the Bank's aggregate assets, liabilities and results of operations and those of the Group.
