Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13 1

President's Letter

Dear Shareowner,

When we look at the U.S. economy heading into the final quarter of 2013, we continue to see slow, but steady, growth. Employment has also been rising steadily, but only modestly. Consumer incomes, savings, wealth, and debt-servicing capacity have been solid buttresses for the recovering housing and auto industries. Industrial activity is growing only modestly, but current corporate profits are generally solid and balance sheets appear able to support needed capital spending and dividend* payouts. The scaled-back "fiscal cliff" tax increases and spending cuts have meaningfully cut the budget deficit without driving the economy into recession. In addition, we feel that continuing slack in labor markets and capacity utilization offers the potential for continuing growth without bottlenecks and rising inflation.

After observing the strengthening economic trends, the Federal Reserve (the Fed) hinted that it might begin scaling back its "QE" quantitative easing program later in 2013 and could terminate its bond purchases altogether sometime in 2014. In September, however, the Fed surprised many market participants by deciding not to start scaling back QE yet. The Fed has also said that short-term interest rates are likely to remain near zero for some time to come, given that inflation remains subdued and unemployment remains too high.

As September ended, Congress had not yet passed a continuing resolution to prevent a government shutdown, nor had it raised the debt ceiling, and a quick resolution to the impasse appeared unlikely. The U.S. government's partial shutdown in October rattled the markets to a degree, but did not immediately have a significant negative impact on the economy or capital markets.

There are certainly risks and uncertainties that continue to plague the global economy as we head into the final months of the year. The European economy remains weak, though it is beginning to show signs of stabilization, and a number of countries in the emerging markets have experienced difficulties. Still, a potential ending of the European recession, continuing economic improvement in Japan in response to the new government's easing policies, and a "soft landing" of 7% growth in China could very well result in an improving global outlook over the remainder of 2013 and in 2014.

There are also geopolitical worries abroad and the aforementioned political fights at home, and while most of the widely recognized risks we've outlined may already be "priced into" the market, we believe investors should continue to expect market volatility.

* Dividends are not guaranteed.

2 Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13

The Fed's aggressive monetary policies and fears about economic growth had helped drive long-term Treasury yields to unsustainably low levels; the return to more normal levels has resulted in disappointing returns for bond investors during the first nine months of 2013, but the stock market has delivered double-digit returns to equity investors who were willing to brave the "wall of worry".

At Pioneer, we have long advocated the benefits of staying diversified and investing for the long term. And while diversification does not assure a profit or protect against loss in a declining market, we believe there are still opportunities for prudent investors to earn attractive returns. Our advice, as always, is to work closely with a trusted financial advisor to discuss your goals and work together to develop an investment strategy that meets your individual needs, keeping in mind that there is no single best strategy that works for every investor.

Pioneer's investment teams have, since 1928, sought out attractive opportunities in global equity and bond markets, using in-depth research in an effort to identify undervalued individual securities, and using thoughtful risk management to construct portfolios which seek to balance potential risks and reward in an ever-changing world.

We encourage you to learn more about Pioneer and our time-tested approach to investing by consulting with your financial advisor or visiting us online at

Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13 3

Portfolio Management Discussion | 10/31/13

The environment for investing in fixed-income securities generally, including the credit-sensitive sectors, became more unsettled during the six-month period ended October 31, 2013, although signs of stabilization appeared late in the period. In the following interview, Andrew Feltus, Charles Melchreit and Jonathan Sharkey discuss the factors that affected the performance of Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust during the six-month period. Mr. Feltus, a senior vice president and portfolio manager at Pioneer, Mr. Melchreit, a senior vice president and portfolio manager at Pioneer, and Mr. Sharkey, a senior vice president and portfolio manager at Pioneer, all are members of Pioneer's Fixed-Income Team and are responsible for the day-to-day management of the Trust.

Q How did the Trust perform during the six-month period ended October 31, 2013?

A Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust returned 2.91% at net asset value and 2.91% at market price during the six-month period ended October 31, 2013. During the same six-month period, the Trust's custom benchmark returned 1.48%. The custom benchmark is based on equal weightings of the Bank of America Merrill Lynch (BofA ML) Global High Yield and Emerging Markets Plus (GHY and EMP) Index, which returned 1.07% during the six-month period, and the Credit Suisse Leveraged Loan Index, which returned 1.89%. Unlike the Trust, the custom benchmark does not use leverage. While the use of leverage increases investment opportunity, it also increases investment risk. During the same six-month period, the average return (at market price) of the 36 closed-end funds in Lipper's High Current Yield Closed End Funds category (which may or may not be leveraged) was 2.39%.

The shares of the Trust were selling at a 5.51% premium to net asset value at the end of the period on October 31, 2013.

On October 31, 2013, the Trust's standard 30-day SEC yield was 8.44*.

* The 30-day SEC yield is a standardized formula that is based on the hypothetical annualized earning power (investment income only) of the Trust's portfolio securities during the period indicated.

Edgar Filing: Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust - Form N-CSR

Q How would you describe the investment environment for fixed-income investors during the six-month period ended October 31, 2013?

A Although the period started amid general optimism about prospects for continued improving conditions in both the domestic and global economies, market conditions became more challenging during the period amid uncertainty over how long the easy money policies of the U.S. Federal Reserve System (the Fed) would continue, and whether political bickering in Washington might undermine the economic recovery.

Interest rates rose during the summer of 2013, although short-term rates remained low by historical standards. The rising interest-rate environment negatively affected most fixed-income investments, with U.S. Treasuries significantly underperforming. Investment-grade corporate bonds posted negative returns during the six-month period, but U.S. high-yield corporate bonds were able to deliver modestly positive returns. Although most fixed-income securities produced disappointing results, floating-rate securities such as bank loans and event-linked bonds tended to hold up better and ended the period in positive territory.

Elsewhere, emerging markets investments and currencies were especially affected by market conditions, as investors saw those securities as particularly vulnerable to rising interest rates. On currency markets, the U.S. dollar (USD) remained strong, while the euro rose against most other currencies, including the USD. The Japanese yen depreciated during the six-month period.

Near the end of the six-month period, a series of perceived positive developments affected sentiment in the bond market, and Treasuries even staged a modest improvement in performance. The first development was the growing expectation that U.S. Federal Reserve System (Fed) Vice Chairman Janet Yellen would be nominated to succeed Ben Bernanke as chairman--an expectation that was later confirmed by President Obama's official nomination of Ms. Yellen to succeed Mr. Bernanke. Ms. Yellen is not viewed by most as someone who would move aggressively to end the Fed's accommodative policies. Second, the Fed met in mid-September and announced that it would not yet begin tapering its quantitative easing program--to the relief of the bond market. Finally, the debates in Washington over U.S. fiscal policy and raising the government's debt ceiling rattled the capital markets in general, but also led to a brief comeback in the values of Treasury securities, which were seen as the safest asset class during a time of uncertainty.

Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13 5

With these factors in the background, the high-yield bond market stabilized and then rose briskly during the final month of the period. In October alone, the BofA ML GHY and EMP Index returned 2.51%.

Despite the volatility in the fixed-income market, the economic fundamentals in the United States continued to strengthen, with non-farm payrolls adding an average of 160,000 new jobs per month over the six-month period. Corporate profits remained strong, while companies continued to generate new cash flows. In fact, stock prices maintained their upward climb, with the Standard & Poor's 500 Index returning 11.15% (non annualized) for the six months ended October 31, 2013.

Q How did you manage the Trust's portfolio in that environment during the six-month period ended October 31, 2013, and how did your investment decisions affect the Trust's performance?

Edgar Filing: Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust - Form N-CSR

A Our focus on the credit sectors, especially domestic high-yield corporate bonds, helped the Trust's performance considerably during the period. The emphasis on credit in the Trust's portfolio also included significant exposures to floating-rate debt, including bank loans and event-linked bonds issued by property and casualty insurers. Because the interest rates on such securities increase as market interest rates rise, they tend to be more resilient during periods when rates rise and bond prices decline. At the end of the six-month period on October 31, 2013, more than one-third of the Trust's total investment portfolio was invested in floating-rate securities and U.S. high-yield corporate debt accounted for more than 32% of the Trust's total investment portfolio.

Positive security selection results also made a significant contribution to the Trust's performance during the six-month period. Among the better performers in the Trust's portfolio were bonds that bounced back after the issuing companies of the securities underwent corporate restructurings. Those holdings included the bonds of CEVA, a logistics and shipping company significantly involved in shipping to Europe, and of KB Pharmaceuticals, a specialty pharmaceuticals firm. While emerging markets corporate debt in general produced poor results during the period, one notable exception was the portfolio's investment in bonds of Transporte Energia, an energy company based in Argentina.

Event-linked bonds also performed well during the period, helped by a mild storm season that resulted in relatively few weather-related property insurance claims. Holdings of event-linked bonds in the Trust's portfolio that fared well included bonds issued by Altair Reinsurance.

6 Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13

Some of the holdings in the Trust's portfolio did perform poorly during the period, however, including bonds issued by Codere, a Spanish casino company with significant operations in Latin America, and by mining company Mirabela Nickel. A floating-rate loan issued to Preferred Proppants, a company supplying materials for natural gas drilling operations, also detracted from results.

Q How did the level of leverage in the Trust change during the six-month period ended October 31, 2013?

A At the end of the six-month period, 29.0% of the Trust's total managed assets were financed by leverage, which remained constant, compared with 28.7% of assets at the start of the fiscal period on May 1, 2013. The increase was due to a decrease in the value of securities in which the Trust had invested.

Q What is your investment outlook?

A We are relatively optimistic about the prospects for continued economic expansion and we believe U.S. credit markets are well positioned to outperform Treasuries. Monetary policy remains accommodative and recent corrections in the prices of some credit-linked securities have increased their value relative to alternative investments, especially given that default rates remain low by historical standards. We believe corporate bonds and other credit-sensitive securities have the potential to deliver moderately positive returns.

The U.S. economy showed its resilience in 2013, continuing to strengthen despite several tax hikes as well as increases in market interest rates. In this durable economic recovery, American corporations have been able to continue to grow their profits and clean up their financial balance sheets. The nation's job market has shown improvement, the housing industry has been able to recover, and inflation remains under control. Default rates for corporate debt remain low by historical standards. Corporate bonds are not inexpensive, however, and we believe investors will need to pay close attention to company fundamentals when selecting individual securities.

Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13 7

We have doubts, however, about the potential of European corporate bonds to be able to sustain their recent rally. We have a more positive view about emerging markets debt, where relative values appear attractive but investors will need to be highly selective in choosing individual bonds in the emerging markets.

Going forward, we expect to keep the Trust's portfolio well diversified among different sectors, including high-yield corporate bonds, event-linked bonds, floating-rate bank loans and emerging markets debt.

Please refer to the Schedule of Investments on pages 13-42 for a full listing of Trust securities.

Investments in high-yield or lower-rated securities are subject to greater-than-average risk. The Trust may invest in securities of issuers that are in default or that are in bankruptcy.

Investing in foreign and/or emerging markets securities involves risks relating to interest rates, currency exchange rates, economic, and political conditions.

When interest rates rise, the prices of debt securities in the Trust will generally fall. Conversely, when interest rates fall the prices of debt securities in the Trust generally will rise. Investments in the Trust are subject to possible loss due to the financial failure of the issuers of the underlying securities and the issuers' inability to meet their debt obligations.

The Trust may invest up to 50% of its total assets in illiquid securities. Illiquid securities may be difficult to dispose of at a fair price at the times when the Trust believes it is desirable to do so and their market price is generally more volatile than that of more liquid securities. Illiquid securities also are more difficult to value, and investment of the Trust's assets in illiquid securities may restrict the Trust's ability to take advantage of market opportunities.

The Trust is authorized to borrow from banks and issue debt securities, which are forms of leverage. Leverage creates significant risks, including the risk that the Trust's incremental income or capital appreciation will not be sufficient to cover the cost of leverage, which may adversely affect the return for shareholders.

 Diversification does not assure a profit nor protect against loss in a declining market.

Risks of investing in the Trust are discussed in greater detail in the Trust's original offering prospectus and in shareowner reports issued from time to time.

These risks may increase share price volatility.

Performance data shown represents past performance. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Investment return and market price will fluctuate, and your shares may trade below NAV due to such factors as interest rate changes and the perceived credit quality of borrowers.

Total investment return does not reflect broker sales charges or commissions. All performance is for common shares of the Trust.

Closed-end funds, unlike open-end funds, are not continuously offered. There is a one-time public offering and, once issued, shares of closed-end funds are sold in the open market through a stock exchange and frequently trade at prices lower than their NAV. NAV per common share is total assets less total liabilities, which includes bank borrowing, divided by the number of common shares outstanding.

When NAV is lower than market price, dividends are assumed to be reinvested at the greater of NAV or 95% of the market price. When NAV is higher, dividends are assumed to be reinvested at prices obtained under the Trust's dividend reinvestment plan.

The performance table and graph do not reflect the deduction of fees and taxes that a shareowner would pay on Trust distributions.

The BofA ML Global High Yield and Emerging Markets Plus Index is an unmanaged index that tracks the performance of the below-and border-line investment-grade global debt markets denominated in the major developed market currencies. The Index includes sovereign issuers rated BBB1 and lower along with corporate issues rated BB1 and lower. There are no restrictions on issuer country of domicile. The CS Leveraged Loan Index is unmanaged and is designed to mirror the investible universe of the U.S. dollar-denominated leveraged loan market. The CS Leveraged Loan Index consists of tradable term loans with at least one year to maturity and rated BBB or lower.

Index returns are calculated monthly, assume reinvestment of dividends and, unlike Trust returns, do not reflect any fees, expenses or sales charges. The indices do not use leverage. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

48 Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13

Notes to Financial Statements | 10/31/13 (unaudited)

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust (the Trust) was organized as a Delaware statutory trust on January 30, 2007. Prior to commencing operations on May 30, 2007, the Trust had no operations other than matters relating to its organization and registration as a diversified, closed-end management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The investment objective of the Trust is to provide a high level of current income and the Trust may, as a secondary objective, also seek capital appreciation to the extent that it is consistent with its investment objective.

The Trust's financial statements have been prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles that require the management of the Trust to, among other things, make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of income, expenses and gain or loss on investments during the reporting year. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Trust in the preparation of its financial statements, which are consistent with those policies generally accepted in the investment company industry:

A. Security Valuation

Edgar Filing: Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust - Form N-CSR

Security transactions are recorded as of trade date. Investments in loan interests are valued in accordance with guidelines established by the Board of Trustees at the mean between the last available bid and asked prices from one or more brokers or dealers as obtained from Loan Pricing Corporation, an independent pricing service. If price information is not available from Loan Pricing Corporation, or if the price information is deemed to be unreliable, price information will be obtained from an alternative loan interest pricing service. If no reliable price quotes are available from either the primary or alternative pricing service, broker quotes will be solicited. Fixed-income securities with remaining maturities of more than sixty days are valued at prices supplied by independent pricing services, which consider such factors as market prices, market events, quotations from one or more brokers, Treasury spreads, yields, maturities and ratings. Valuations may be supplemented by dealers and other sources, as required. Equity securities that have traded on an exchange are valued at the last sale price on the principal exchange where they are traded. Equity securities that have not traded on the date of valuation or securities for which sale prices are not available, generally are valued using the mean between the last bid and asked prices. Short-term fixed income securities with remaining maturities of sixty days or less generally are valued at amortized cost. Shares of money market mutual funds are valued at such funds' net asset value.

Trading in foreign securities is substantially completed each day at various times prior to the close of the NYSE. The values of such securities used in computing the net asset value of the Trust's shares are determined as of such times.

Securities or loan interests for which independent pricing services are unable to supply prices or for which market prices and/or quotations are not readily available or are considered to be unreliable are valued at the direction or with the approval of the Valuation Committee using fair value methods pursuant to procedures adopted by the Board of Trustees. The Valuation Committee is comprised of certain members of the Board of Trustees. Inputs used when applying fair value methods to value a security may include credit ratings, the financial condition of the company, current market conditions and comparable securities. The Trust may use fair value methods if it is determined that a significant event has occurred after the close of the exchange or market on which the security trades and prior to the determination of the Trust's net asset value. Examples of a significant event might include political or economic news, corporate restructurings, natural disasters, terrorist activity or trading halts. Thus, the valuation of the Trust's securities may differ significantly from exchange prices and such difference could be material. Pioneer Investment Management, Inc., (PIM), the Trust's investment adviser, is responsible for monitoring developments that may impact fair valued securities and for discussing and assessing fair values on an ongoing basis, and at least quarterly, with the Valuation Committee.

At October 31, 2013, one security was valued using fair value methods (in addition to securities valued using prices supplied by independent pricing services), representing 2.0% of net assets.

Discounts and premiums on debt securities are accreted or amortized, respectively, daily, into interest income on an effective yield to maturity basis with a corresponding increase or decrease in the cost basis of the security. Premiums and discounts related to certain mortgage-backed securities are amortized or accreted in proportion to the monthly paydowns. Interest income, including interest on income bearing cash accounts, is recorded on an accrual basis, net of unrecoverable foreign taxes withheld at the applicable country rates.

Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except that certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed are recorded as soon as the Trust becomes aware of the ex-dividend data in the exercise of reasonable diligence.

50 Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13

Gains and losses on sales of investments are calculated on the identified cost method for both financial reporting and federal income tax purposes.

B. Foreign Currency Translation

The books and records of the Trust are maintained in U.S. dollars. Amounts denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using current exchange rates.

Net realized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions, if any, represent, among other things, the net realized gains and losses on foreign currency contracts, disposition of foreign currencies and the difference between the amount of income accrued and the U.S. dollars actually received. Further, the effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates on investments are not segregated in the Statement of Operations from the effects of changes in the market prices of those securities but are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments.

C. Forward Foreign Currency Contracts

The Trust may enter into forward foreign currency contracts (contracts) for the purchase or sale of a specific foreign currency at a fixed price on a future date. All contracts are marked to market daily at the applicable exchange rates, and any resulting unrealized gains or losses are recorded in the Trust's financial statements. The Trust records realized gains and losses at the time a portfolio hedge is offset by entry into a closing transaction or extinguished by delivery of the currency. Risks may arise upon entering into these contracts from the potential inability of counterparties to meet the terms of the contracts and from unanticipated movements in the value of foreign currencies relative to the U.S. dollar (see Note 5).

D. Federal Income Taxes

It is the Trust's policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income and net realized capital gains, if any, to its shareowners. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. As of October 31, 2013, the Trust did not accrue any interest and penalties with respect to uncertain tax positions, which if applicable, would be recorded as an income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. Tax returns filed within the prior three years remain subject to examination by federal and state tax authorities.

The amount and character of income and capital gain distributions to shareowners are determined in accordance with federal income tax rules, which may differ from U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Distributions in excess of net investment income or net realized gains are temporary overdistributions for financial statement purposes resulting from differences in the recognition or classification of income or distributions for financial statement and tax purposes. Capital accounts within the financial statements are adjusted for permanent book/tax differences to reflect tax character, but are not adjusted for temporary differences.

Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13 51

The tax character of current year distributions payable to common and preferred shareowners will be determined at the end of the current taxable year. The tax character of distributions paid during the year ended April 30, 2013 was as follows:

Distributions paid from:
Ordinary income	$16,884,599
Total	$16,884,599

The following shows the components of distributable earnings (losses) on a federal income tax basis at April 30, 2013:

	2013
Distributable earnings:
Undistributed ordinary income	$ 2,655,775
Capital loss carryforward	(27,137,926)
Unrealized appreciation	2,322,129
Total	$ (22,160,022)

The difference between book-basis and tax-basis unrealized appreciation is primarily attributable to the tax deferral of losses on wash sales, the realization for tax purposes of unrealized gains on investments in passive foreign investment companies, the book/tax difference in the accrual of income on securities in default, the difference between book and tax amortization methods for premiums and discounts on fixed income securities and other temporary book/tax differences.

E. Risks

Information regarding the Trust's principal risks is contained in the Trust's original offering prospectus, with additional information included in the Trust's shareowner reports issued from time to time. Please refer to those documents when considering the Trust's principal risks. At times, the Trust's investments may represent industries or industry sectors that are interrelated or have common risks, making the Trust more susceptible to any economic, political, or regulatory developments or other risks affecting those industries and sectors.

The Trust invests in below investment grade (high yield) debt securities, floating rate loans and event-linked bonds sometimes referred to as "catastrophe" bonds or "insurance-linked" bonds. The Trust may invest in securities and other obligations of any credit quality, including those that are rated below investment grade, or are unrated but are determined by the investment adviser to be of equivalent credit quality. Below investment grade securities are commonly referred to as "junk bonds" and are considered speculative with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal. Below investment grade securities, including floating rate loans, involve greater risk of loss, are subject to greater price volatility, and are less liquid and more difficult to value, especially during periods of economic uncertainty or change, than higher rated debt securities. The Trust may invest in securities of issuers that are in default or that are in bankruptcy. The value of collateral, if any, securing a floating rate loan can decline or may be insufficient to meet the issuer's obligations or may be difficult to liquidate. No active trading market may exist for many floating rate loans, and many loans are subject to restrictions on resale. Any secondary market may be subject to irregular trading activity and extended settlement periods. Additionally, the Trust may invest in "event-linked" bonds, which sometimes are referred to as "insurance-linked" or "catastrophe" bonds. The return of principal and the payment of interest on event-linked bonds are contingent on the nonoccurrence of a pre-defined "trigger" event, such as a hurricane or an earthquake of a specific magnitude. In addition to the specified trigger events, event-linked bonds may expose the Trust to other risks, including but not limited to issuer (credit) default, adverse regulatory or jurisdictional interpretations and adverse tax consequences.

The Trust's investments in certain foreign markets or countries with limited developing markets may subject the Trust to a greater degree of risk than would investments in a developed market. These risks include disruptive political or economic conditions and the possible imposition of adverse governmental laws or currency exchange restrictions.

F. Repurchase Agreements

With respect to repurchase agreements entered into by the Trust, the value of the underlying securities (collateral), including accrued interest, is required to be equal to or in excess of the repurchase price. The collateral for all repurchase agreements is held in safekeeping in the customer-only account of the Trust's custodian or a sub-custodian of the Trust. PIM is responsible for determining that the value of the collateral remains at least equal to the repurchase price.

G. Automatic Dividend Reinvestment Plan

All common shareowners whose shares are registered in their own names automatically participate in the Automatic Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the Plan), under which participants receive all dividends and capital gain

Pioneer Diversified High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 10/31/13 53

distributions (collectively, dividends) in full and fractional common shares of the Trust in lieu of cash. Shareowners may elect not to participate in the Plan. Shareowners not participating in the Plan receive all dividends and capital gain distributions in cash. Participation in the Plan is completely voluntary and may be terminated or resumed at any time without penalty by notifying American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the agent for shareowners in administering the Plan (the Plan Agent), in writing prior to any dividend record date; otherwise such termination or resumption will be effective with respect to any subsequently declared dividend or other distribution.

If a shareowner's shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, the shareowner can ask the firm or nominee to participate in the Plan on the shareowner's behalf. If the firm or nominee does not offer the Plan, dividends will be paid in cash to the shareowner of record. A firm or nominee may reinvest a shareowner's cash dividends in common shares of the Trust on terms that differ from the terms of the Plan.

Whenever the Trust declares a dividend on common shares payable in cash, participants in the Plan will receive the equivalent in common shares acquired by the Plan Agent either (i) through receipt of additional unissued but authorized common shares from the Trust or (ii) by purchase of outstanding common shares on the New York Stock Exchange or elsewhere. If, on the payment date for any dividend, the net asset value per common share is equal to or less than the market price per share plus estimated brokerage trading fees (market premium), the Plan Agent will invest the dividend amount in newly issued common shares. The number of newly issued common shares to be credited to each account will be determined by dividing the dollar amount of the dividend by the net asset value per common share on the date the shares are issued, provided that the maximum discount from the then current market price per share on the date of issuance does not exceed 5%. If, on the payment date for any dividend, the net asset value per common share is greater than the market value (market discount), the Plan Agent will invest the dividend amount in common shares acquired in open-market purchases. There are no brokerage charges with respect to newly issued common shares. However, each participant will pay a pro rata share of brokerage trading fees incurred with respect to the Plan Agent's open-market purchases. Participating in the Plan does not relieve shareowners from any federal, state or local taxes which may be due on dividends paid in any taxable year. Shareowners holding Plan shares in a brokerage account may not be able to transfer the shares to another broker and continue to participate in the Plan.

2. Management Agreement

PIM, a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of UniCredit S.p.A. (UniCredit), manages the Trust's portfolio. Management fees payable under the Trust's Advisory Agreement with PIM are calculated daily at the annual rate of 0.85% of the Trust's average daily managed assets. PIONEER FUNDS

APPROVAL OF AUDIT, AUDIT-RELATED, TAX AND OTHER SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

SECTION I - POLICY PURPOSE AND APPLICABILITY

The Pioneer Funds recognize the importance of maintaining the independence of their outside auditors. Maintaining independence is a shared responsibility involving Pioneer Investment Management, Inc ("PIM"), the audit committee and the independent auditors.

The Funds recognize that a Fund's independent auditors: 1) possess knowledge of the Funds, 2) are able to incorporate certain services into the scope of the audit, thereby avoiding redundant work, cost and disruption of Fund personnel and processes, and 3) have expertise that has value to the Funds. As a result, there are situations where it is desirable to use the Fund's independent auditors for services in addition to the annual audit and where the potential for conflicts of interests are minimal. Consequently, this policy, which is intended to comply with Rule 210.2-01(C) (7), sets forth guidelines and procedures to be followed by the Funds when retaining the independent audit firm to perform audit, audit-related tax and other services under those circumstances, while also maintaining independence.

Approval of a service in accordance with this policy for a Fund shall also constitute approval for any other Fund whose pre-approval is required pursuant to Rule 210.2-01(c) (7) (ii).

In addition to the procedures set forth in this policy, any non-audit services that may be provided consistently with Rule 210.2-01 may be approved by the Audit Committee itself and any pre-approval that may be waived in accordance with Rule 210.2-01(c) (7) (i) (C) is hereby waived.

Selection of a Fund's independent auditors and their compensation shall be determined by the Audit Committee and shall not be subject to this policy.
