Item 4.02(a) Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

During the preparation of its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2017, management of Ballantyne Strong, Inc. (the “Company”) identified two misstatements in the Company’s previously issued consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016. Accordingly, investors should no longer rely upon the Company’s previously released financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016. The first misstatement related to approximately $477,000 of maintenance service revenue that was pre-billed at a customer’s request, but related to services not completed by December 31, 2016. This revenue was improperly recognized during the year ended December 31, 2016. The Company continues to evaluate revenue recognition for maintenance services as of December 31, 2016. The second misstatement related to earnings at one of the Company’s Canadian subsidiaries that would be subject to a withholding tax if repatriated to the U.S. The Company improperly excluded earnings to the extent of certain intercompany loans between its Canada and U.S. entities from its provision for deferred income taxes, resulting in an understatement of deferred income tax expense of approximately $238,000.

On May 9, 2017, the Company’s management and the Audit Committee of its Board of Directors decided to file an amended Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, to restate the Company’s Consolidated Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2016, and the related Consolidated Statement of Operations, Consolidated Statement of Comprehensive Income (Loss), Consolidated Statement of Stockholders’ Equity and Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended to correct the misstatements described above. The restated financial statements to be included in the amended Form 10-K should be relied on in lieu of the financial statements included in the Company’s original Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016. Although the Company cannot yet estimate when it will complete the restatement and file its amended report, it is diligently pursuing completion of the restatement and intends to file the amended report as soon as reasonably practicable. The Company expects to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2017 promptly after the restatement is concluded.

BDO USA, LLP (“BDO”), the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm, concurred with the Company’s conclusion to amend the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016. The Company’s management and its Audit Committee discussed with BDO the matters described in this Form 8-K.
