PART III — NARRATIVE

Super Micro Computer, Inc. (the "Company") could not complete the filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2015 due to delays in obtaining and compiling information to be included in its Form 10-Q, which delay could not be eliminated by the Company without unreasonable effort and expense. In connection with the completion of the Company's quarter-end closing and review procedures and the preparation of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the "10-Q"), the Company has determined that certain contracts for product extended warranties were recorded as revenue in prior periods instead of being deferred and amortized over the contractual period. The Company expects to make this adjustment in the Form 10-Q as the Company does not expect the change to be material to its previously filed financial statements. The Company expects to file the Form 10-Q no later than five calendar days after its original due date.

The Company's expectation regarding the timing of the filing of the Quarterly Report and the changes from the press release dated October 22, 2015 are forward looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and actual events may differ from those contemplated by these statements. These statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, including the Company's, or its independent auditors, inability to complete the work required to file the 10-Q in the time frame that is anticipated or due to unanticipated changes being required in its reported operating results. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof.
