Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

As previously disclosed, a small group of independent sales contractors have made a number of false allegations about the Company. On January 16, 2018, the Company made available the first report of a special litigation committee (SLC) of independent Board members. At that time, the Company indicated that it would release the second report of the SLC before the filing of the Annual Report on Form 10-K prior to the end of February 2018.

The second report of the SLC can now be viewed on investors.aflac.com by clicking under “Corporate Governance” and “Special Litigation Committee.”

On January 31, 2018, these independent sales contractors again raised additional but related allegations, which will now be investigated. The Company expects to release the SLC’s third report upon the completion of this investigation.

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a “safe harbor” to encourage companies to provide prospective information, so long as those informational statements are identified as forward-looking and are accompanied by meaningful cautionary statements identifying important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those included in the forward-looking statements. We desire to take advantage of these provisions. This Current Report on Form 8-K contains cautionary statements identifying important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected herein, and in any other statements made by Company officials in communications with the financial community and contained in documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

Forward-looking statements are not based on historical information and relate to future operations, strategies, financial results or other developments. Furthermore, forward-looking information is subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties. In particular, statements containing words such as “expect,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “goal,” “objective,” “may,” “should,” “estimate,” “intends,” “projects,” “will,” “assumes,” or similar words generally qualify as forward-looking. Aflac undertakes no obligation to update such forward-looking statements. We caution readers that the following factors, in addition to other factors mentioned from time to time, could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements: the scope and timing of the investigation being conducted by the Special Litigation Committee under the direction of the independent Board members directing the investigation; the inherent uncertainties of litigation; and other similar factors.
