Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 30, 2013, a judge in the Federal District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Marshall Division, issued a memorandum order finding enhanced damages to be appropriate in the patent infringement suit brought against Xilinx, Inc. (the "Company" or "Xilinx") by PACT XPP Technologies, AG ("PACT"). As previously disclosed by the Company, on May 18, 2012, a jury awarded PACT approximately $15.4 million as a reasonable royalty for past infringement and found that the Company had willfully infringed the patents in suit. The judge's order for enhanced damages adjusts that award to approximately $38.5 million on the basis of the judge's consideration of applicable factors. On September 3, 2013, the court also issued an order requiring the Company to pay approximately $2.5 million for PACT's costs and attorneys' fees and an order requiring the Company to pay approximately $3.0 million for pre- and post-judgment interest. The court denied without prejudice PACT's motion for ongoing royalties and ordered the parties to negotiate resolution of the future royalty rate on Xilinx sales subject to the patents in suit. Final judgment in the case was issued on September 4, 2013.

Xilinx intends to pursue all available legal options, including appealing the court's ruling. However, the Company expects to record a charge of approximately $28.5 million in its quarter ending September 28, 2013.
