(“Sierra”) received a request for additional information from the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (“DOJ”) regarding the proposed merger between the two companies. The information request, also known as a “second request,” was issued under notification requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (“HSR”).

The effect of the second request is to extend the waiting period imposed by the HSR until 30 days after UnitedHealth Group and Sierra have substantially complied with the request for additional information, unless the period is extended voluntarily by the parties or terminated sooner by the DOJ.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 8-K and its exhibits may contain statements, estimates or projections that constitute “forward-looking” statements as defined under U.S. federal securities laws. Generally the words “believe,” “expert,” “intend,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “could,” “may,” “project,” “will” and variations thereof or similar expressions identify forward-looking statements which generally are not historical in nature. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future events. By their nature, forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or results and are subject to risks and uncertainties that cannot be predicted or quantified and, consequently, actual results may differ materially from our historical experience and our present expectations or projections. These risks and uncertainties include, among others, our ability to consummate the merger with UnitedHealth Group, whether operating costs, customer loss and business disruption, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers, may be greater than expected; the regulatory approvals required to complete the merger may not be obtained on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; our ability to meet expectations regarding the timing and completion of the merger; and those risks and uncertainties found in our filings and reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time, including our annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K. You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made. Except to the extent otherwise required by federal securities laws, we do not undertake to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.
