Proxy statements are first being sent to stockholders on or about February 23, 2004. All properly executed proxies in the accompanying form received by us prior to the Annual Meeting will be voted at the Annual Meeting. Any proxy may be revoked at any time before it is exercised by giving notice in writing to our Secretary, by granting a proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person.

Unless context otherwise requires, the terms the Company, we, our and us refer to Grand Toys International, Inc., its U.S. subsidiaries, which include Grand Toys (U.S.) Ltd. (Grand U.S.), Sababa Toys Inc. (Sababa) and Ark Puzzles, Inc. (Ark); and our Canadian subsidiaries, which includes Grand Toys Ltd. The closing sale price of Common Stock as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market on the Record Date was $ 3.58 per share.

A shareholder may revoke any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person, or by delivering to the Company's Corporate Secretary at the Company's principal executive offices referred to above, prior to the Annual Meeting, a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a date later than that of the previously submitted proxy.

Attendance at the Annual Meeting is limited to shareholders. Admission to the meeting will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of the quorum for the transaction of business, but will not be counted for purposes of determining the number "represented and voting" with respect to a proposal.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on February 23, 2004 will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

General. The Compensation Committee is composed of non-employee Directors who review recommendations as to senior executive officer compensation which, upon the approval of the Compensation Committee, are submitted to the Board of Directors. The members of the Compensation Committee also administer the Stock Option Plan of the Company under which options have been granted on a discretionary basis to senior executive officers. The Compensation Committee's overall compensation policy applicable to executive officers is to provide a compensation package that is intended to attract and retain qualified executives for us and to provide them with incentives to achieve our goals and increase shareholder value. The Compensation Committee implements this policy through salaries, bonuses, stock options, a retirement savings plan, and employment agreements and miscellaneous personal benefits.

CEO Compensation. Mr. Bradley was employed as Chief Executive Officer and President, and had agreed to devote his full time and efforts to our business. We agreed to pay Mr. Bradley a base salary of Canadian $182,500 (approximately U.S. $116,000 as of December 31, 2002). Mr. Bradley resigned on June 7, 2002.

Salaries. The Compensation Committee's policy is to provide salaries (i) that are approximately at the median of the salaries paid to similar executive officers in similar companies, adjusted in the Compensation Committee's subjective judgment to reflect differences in duties of the officers and differences in the size and stage of development of the companies, in order to attract and retain qualified executives and (ii) that compensate individual employees for their individual contributions and performance.

The Compensation Committee determines comparable salaries paid by other companies similar to us through its subjective evaluation of its members' knowledge of salaries paid by other companies, salary requests of individuals interviewed by us for open positions and recommendations of management.

Bonuses. The Compensation Committee's policy is to recommend bonuses that compensate executive officers for achieving our goals. In addition, the Compensation Committee's policy is to pay discretionary bonuses, determined near the end of the fiscal year, to compensate executive officers for performance or achievements during the fiscal year not covered by bonuses paid earlier in the year.

Stock Options. The Compensation Committee's policy is to award stock options to each of our officers, employees and directors in amounts reflecting the participant's position and ability to influence our overall performance, determined based on the Committee's subjective judgment after reviewing the number of options previously granted to such person, the number of options granted to persons in similar positions both with us and at other companies deemed comparable to us (based on the members' knowledge of options granted by other companies), the number of options remaining available for grant and management's recommendations.

Options are intended to provide participants with an increased incentive to make contributions to our long-term performance and growth, to join the interests of participants with the interests of our shareholders and to attract and retain qualified employees. The number of options granted to an executive in 2002 were granted as an inducement for employment.

The Compensation Committee's policy is to grant options with a term of ten years to provide a long-term incentive and to fix the exercise price of the options at the fair market value of the underlying shares on the date of grant. Such options only provide compensation if the price of the underlying shares increases. The Committee's policy is also to provide new executives with options to attract them to us based on negotiations with new executives, management's recommendations and the Committee's subjective judgment primarily after reviewing the number of options granted to similar executives.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally provides that publicly held companies may not deduct compensation paid to certain of its top executive officers to the extent such compensation exceeds $1 million per officer in any year. However, pursuant to regulations issued by the Treasury Department, certain limited exemptions to Section 162(m) apply with respect to "qualified performance-based compensation." The Company is currently monitoring the applicability of Section 162(m) to its ongoing compensation arrangements. The Company does not expect that amounts of compensation paid to its executive officers will fail to be deductible by reason of Section 162(m).

Retirement Savings Plan. We have adopted a group retirement savings plan for our Canadian employees. We contribute to this plan the lesser of (a) 50% of the employee's contribution to this plan; (b) 3% of the employee's gross earnings; or (c) Canadian $3,000 per employee. During the year ended December 31, 2002, we contributed approximately $12,000 to the plan.

Employment Agreements and Miscellaneous Personal Benefits. The Compensation Committee's policy has been to have employment agreements with each of its executive officers to provide them with specified minimum positions, periods of employment, salaries, fringe benefits and severance benefits, although there are no agreements at this time. These benefits are intended to permit the executive officer to focus his attention on performing his duties to us, rather than on the security of his employment, and to provide the officer with benefits deemed by the Compensation Committee to be suitable for the executive's office.

This report is provided in accordance with federal securities law requirements and is not intended to create any contractually binding employment rights for the benefit of any employee of the Company or its subsidiaries.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

The directors and executive officers of the Company, and the owners of more than ten (10%) percent of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, are required to file reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with NASDAQ, reporting changes in the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock beneficially owned by them and provide the Company with copies of all such reports. Based solely on its review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations from the executive officers and directors, the Company believes that all reports were timely made for the year ended December 31, 2002, with the exception of the following:

During the fiscal 2002, the following individuals were late with their Form 4 filings: Each of Messrs. Elliot Bier, Stephen Altro, David Mars, James B. Rybakoff, Michael Kron, Earl Azimov and Michael Seltzer were required to file a Statement of Changes in Beneficial Ownership in connection with automatic grants of 125 options per quarter to non-employee directors of Registrant pursuant to the Company's Stock Option Plan. As of the date of this report, to our knowledge, each of the foregoing persons has filed a Form 4 reporting receipt of the automatic quarterly option grants.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is composed of three non-employee directors. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, and is responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. The members of the Audit Committee are Michael Kron, Earl Azimov and Michael Seltzer. Each year, the Audit Committee recommends to the Board of Directors, subject to stockholder ratification, the selection of the Company's independent auditors.

Management is responsible for the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process, including internal controls. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and for issuing a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee has held discussions with management and KPMG LLP, the Company's independent auditors. Management represented to the Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with KPMG LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). These matters included a discussion of KPMG LLP's judgments about the quality (not just the acceptability) of the Company's accounting principles as applied to financial reporting.

KPMG LLP also provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures and letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with KPMG LLP that firm's independence. The Audit Committee further considered whether the provision by KPMG LLP of the non-audit services described elsewhere in this Proxy Statement is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussion with management and the independent auditors and the Audit Committee's review of the representation of management and the disclosures by the independent auditors to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors have also recommended the selection of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors for 2002, subject to stockholder ratification.

OVERVIEW OF PROPOSALS

This Proxy Statement contains four proposals requiring shareholder action. Proposal No. 1 requests the election of seven directors to the Company's Board. Proposal No. 2 requests ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent auditors.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The election of Directors will be by a plurality vote which means that the seven nominees for directors receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares entitled to be voted for them shall be elected as directors. Pursuant to our By-laws, the number of directors constituting the full Board of Directors is determined from time to time by the Board of Directors or by the stockholders at any meeting. The number of Directors is currently fixed by the Board at seven. At the Annual Meeting, action will be taken to elect a Board consisting of the four incumbent directors, Stephen Altro, David Mars, Elliot L. Bier and James B. Rybakoff and the following director nominees: Michael Kron, Earl Azimov and Michael Seltzer. All directors will serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their respective successors shall be duly elected and shall qualify.

Each of the incumbent directors and each other nominee has consented to be named a nominee in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a director if elected. It is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy, unless shareholders otherwise specify by their proxies, to vote for the election of the nominees named below. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any of the persons named will be unable or unwilling to serve as a director. Should any of the nominees be unable or unwilling to serve, it is intended that the proxies will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee or nominees selected by the Board of Directors or the Board of Directors may be reduced in accordance with our By-laws. There are no arrangements or understandings between any director or executive officer and any other person pursuant to which he is or was selected as a director or officer.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE ELECTION TO THE BOARD OF ALL NOMINEES NAMED ABOVE.

PROPOSAL 2

RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

Upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors selected KPMG LLP as our principal independent auditors to audit the Company's accounts for the year ending December 31, 2002, subject to ratification by the shareholders.

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees for professional services rendered by KPMG LLP in connection with its audit of our consolidated financial statements and reviews of the consolidated financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the 2002 fiscal year was approximately $ 75,154.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation. The Company incurred no expense in respect of professional services rendered by KPMG LLP relating to designing, implementing managing and/or operating the Company's information systems or local area network for the 2002 fiscal year.

All Other Fees. The aggregate fees for professional services rendered by KPMG LLP relating to all other non-audit services, including tax-related services for the 2002 fiscal year was approximately $29,281.

A representative of KPMG LLP is expected to be present at the meeting and to be available to respond to appropriate questions. The representative also will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she chooses.

Vote Required and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Once a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of our common stock of the Company present in person or represented by proxy voting at the Meeting is required for ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP.
