On October 7, 2005 Denny's Corporation and its subsidiary Denny's, Inc. (the "Company" or "Denny's") finalized a settlement with the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement ("DLSE") of the State of California's Department of Industrial Relations regarding pending litigation between the Company and the DLSE.

On September 24, 2002, the DLSE filed a complaint in the Superior Court of California for the County of Alameda against the Company alleging violation of California law regarding payment of accrued vacation upon termination of employment. The complaint sought wage payments for employees who allegedly forfeited accrued vacation, waiting time penalties, interest, injunctive relief and costs. In order to avoid the time, expense and uncertainty of litigation of these matters, the parties agreed to settle all disputes related to the litigation pursuant to which Denny's has agreed to pay a sum of approximately $7,750,000 to former employees, payable in installments of $3,500,000 on November 30, 2005 and approximately $4,250,000 on January 6, 2006, in accordance with the instruction of the DLSE.

Through the second quarter of 2005, Denny's had accrued $3.0 million of liabilities related to this litigation and, accordingly, will take an additional $4.75 million charge to legal settlement costs in the third quarter of 2005. As a result of the settlement, the action by the DSLE against the Company will be dismissed with prejudice.
