PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced on March 15, 2007, Silicon Storage Technology, Inc. ("SST") is conducting a voluntary review of its historical stock option grant practices covering the time from SST's initial public offering in 1995 through the current fiscal year. The chairman of the audit committee of the board of directors is conducting this review with the assistance of independent outside counsel. SST has voluntarily contacted the Securities and Exchange Commission staff to inform them of the review.

As previously announced on July 20, 2007, the chairman of the audit committee has preliminarily determined that SST's previously-issued financial statements for the fiscal years 1997 through 2005 and for the quarters ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 will need to be restated to correct errors related to accounting for stock-based compensation expense. At this time, the chairman has not completed the forensic review of the option grants and the financial impact of using incorrect measurement dates has not been finalized. Any additional non-cash stock-based compensation expense that may be recorded will not affect SST's cash position or reported revenue for the recently completed quarter or previous periods.

As a result of the review, SST is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 by the required filing date of November 9, 2007 and does not currently anticipate that it will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the required due date according to Rule 12b-25.

If answer is no, identify report(s). " Yes ý No

SST has not filed its: (1) Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, (2) Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 and (3) Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2007.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Net revenues for the third quarter of 2007 were $107.5 million, compared with $99.3 million in the second quarter of 2007 and $116.0 million in the third quarter of 2006. SST finished the third quarter 2007 with $160.2 million in cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments, a decrease of $7.0 million from the prior quarter

As previously announced on July 20, 2007, the chairman of the audit committee has preliminarily determined that SST's previously-issued financial statements for the fiscal years 1997 through 2005 and for the quarters ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 will need to be restated to correct errors related to accounting for stock-based compensation expense.
