TELMEX ANNOUNCES ITS DECISION TO CONTINUE WITH ITS CASH TENDER OFFER FOR SHARES OF EMBRATEL

TELMEX reaffirms its commitment to Embratel and Brazil

Mexico City, June 7, 2006

. Teléfonos de México, S.A. de C.V. (BMV:TELMEX; NYSE:TMX; NASDAQ:TFONY; LATIBEX:XTMXL) (TELMEX) announced today that it will maintain its cash tender offer for any and all outstanding publicly held common and preferred shares of Embratel Participações S.A. (Embratel Holdings).

TELMEX announced on May 8, 2006 that it would pay 6.95 Brazilian reais per 1,000 shares, plus indexation, for both common shares and preferred shares, including preferred shares represented by American Depositary Shares (ADSs). TELMEX currently owns 72.4% of the outstanding shares of Embratel Holdings, including 97.3% of the common shares and 45.5% of the preferred shares. The proposed offer is still under review by the Brazilian securities regulatory authority, the Comissão de Valores Imobiliários (CVM).

The proposed offer is subject to a condition that would permit TELMEX to withdraw the offer if the dollar value of the BOVESPA Index, the leading measure of the broad Brazilian equity market, decreased by 20% or more from its value on May 8, 2006. Since then the Brazilian stock market has seen a decline in prices. On May 24, after the dollar value of the BOVESPA Index first fell more than 20% below its May 8 value, TELMEX announced that it would waive the condition until June 6.

Today TELMEX announced that it will maintain its request for CVM registration of the tender offer and that it is permanently waiving the condition. This waiver reaffirms TELMEX's commitment to Embratel and to Brazil.

Neither TELMEX nor any of its affiliates has commenced the tender offer to which this communication relates. Upon commencement of the tender offer, TELMEX will publish a tender offer statement and file it with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Holders of Embratel Holdings shares and ADSs should read the tender offer statement, because it will contain important information about the tender offer. The tender offer statement and other documents relating to the tender offer will be available free of charge on the SEC's website and from the information agent to be appointed in connection with the tender offer.
