FRANKLIN MUTUAL ADVISERS, LLC

This Proxy Statement (this "Proxy Statement") and the enclosed WHITE proxy card are being furnished to you, the shareholders of ICN Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("ICN" or the "Company"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Iridian Asset Management LLC ("Iridian") and Franklin Mutual Advisers, LLC ("FMA") who are acting together as a group (the "Shareholder Group," "us" or "we") for use at the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders of ICN, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the "2002 Annual Meeting").

The Shareholder Group is soliciting proxies to take the following actions at the 2002 Annual Meeting:

- (1) to elect Messrs. Richard H. Koppes, Robert W. O'Leary and Randy H. Thurman to the Board of Directors of ICN (the "Board"), each to serve until the 2005 annual meeting of ICN; and
- (2) to transact other business properly brought before the 2002 Annual Meeting.

ICN has announced that the 2002 Annual Meeting will be held in Costa Mesa, California on Wednesday, May 29, 2002. The time and the precise location of the 2002 Annual Meeting have not yet been announced by ICN. ICN has announced that the record date (the "Record Date") for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the 2002 Annual Meeting was April 9, 2002.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the members of the Shareholder Group are, in the aggregate, the record or beneficial owners of 8,450,030 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the "Common Stock"), which represents approximately 10.22% of the issued and outstanding Common Stock (82,677,075 shares as of March 21, 2002, based on information publicly disclosed by the Company in its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 27, 2002 (the "ICN 2001 Annual Report")).

INTRODUCTION

At the 2002 Annual Meeting, three persons will be elected as directors of ICN to hold office until the 2005 annual meeting and until their successors have been elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal.

In accordance with ICN's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, Mutual Shares Fund, a series of Franklin Mutual Shares Fund Inc., a Maryland Corporation ("Mutual Shares Fund"), the investment adviser of which is FMA, has delivered written notice to the Secretary of the Company of its intent to nominate for election to the Board at the 2002 Annual Meeting Messrs. Richard H. Koppes, Robert W. O'Leary and Randy H. Thurman (the "Shareholder Nominees"). We believe the Shareholder Nominees are highly qualified individuals based on their extensive business and professional experience. For more information regarding the Shareholder Nominees, see "The Election of Directors - The Shareholder Nominees" below.

The Board currently consists of 12 directors divided into three classes. In accordance with the Company's Bylaws and an agreement dated October 19, 2000 to which the Company is a party (the "October 2000 Agreement"), the Company has agreed to reduce the size of the Board to nine members divided into three classes by no later than the 2002 Annual Meeting, and that three directors are to be elected at the 2002 Annual Meeting.

At the Company's annual meeting in 2001 three shareholder-nominated directors were elected to the Board. If the Shareholder Nominees are elected at the 2002 Annual Meeting, for the first time a majority of the Board would be comprised of directors nominated directly by shareholders of ICN.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT SO PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND MAIL YOUR WHITE PROXY CARD AT YOUR EARLIEST CONVENIENCE.

"IT'S LIKE DEJA VU ALL OVER AGAIN"

The Shareholder Group

Both members of the Shareholder Group are well-known institutional investment managers.

Iridian Asset Management LLC ("Iridian") is a registered investment adviser and manages approximately $11 billion for institutional clients, pension funds, charitable foundations and endowments.

Franklin Mutual Advisers, LLC ("FMA") is a subsidiary of Franklin Resources, Inc., a publicly-listed global investment organization operating as Franklin Templeton Investments. Franklin Templeton, which provides global and domestic investment management services through its Franklin, Templeton, Mutual Series and Fiduciary Trust subsidiaries, has over 50 years of investment experience and more than $266 billion in assets under management.

The members of the Shareholder Group own on behalf of their clients approximately 8.5 million shares of ICN, representing approximately 10.22% of the outstanding ICN shares, an investment with a market value as of April 17, 2002 of over $239 million.

Edgar Filing: ICN PHARMACEUTICALS INC - Form PRRN14A

The Shareholder Group's financial adviser, Providence Capital, Inc. ("Providence"), is an independent NASD-registered broker-dealer and investment bank founded in 1991 specializing in corporate governance and shareholder matters. Providence was also a member of the 2001 Committee (described in the next section).

A Brief Background

Almost one year ago, a group of ICN shareholders, the ICN Committee to Maximize Shareholder Value (the "2001 Committee"), nominated three individuals (Messrs. Steven J. Lee, Edward A. Burkhardt and Ronald R. Fogleman) to stand for election to ICN's Board and solicited proxies in favor of their election.

The 2001 Committee's proxy solicitation was premised, according to its proxy materials, on a belief that ICN's shares traded at a significant discount to ICN's intrinsic value and that this undervaluation resulted both from ICN's corporate structure and from investors' lack of confidence in the leadership of ICN's founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Milan Panic.

The 2001 Committee urged that these concerns be addressed by dividing ICN into three completely separate companies, Ribapharm, ICN International and ICN Americas, each independently managed with truly independent boards of directors - with a much reduced role for Mr. Panic. This solution was reflected in a restructuring plan that had been announced by ICN on October 20, 2000 ("ICN's October 2000 Press Release"), as part of the October 2000 Agreement which ICN had entered into with SSP--Special Situations Partners, Inc. ("SSP"), another member of the 2001 Committee.

It's worth recalling ICN's October 2000 Press Release. In addition to reaffirming ICN's intention to proceed with initial public offerings of minority interests in Ribapharm and ICN International, it informed ICN's shareholders that, among other things:

- o ICN's Board was committed to ensuring that each of ICN, Ribapharm and ICN International would be completely separated from each other as soon as possible with separate managements and truly independent Boards;
- o ICN's Board was committed to accomplishing this separation through tax-free distributions to ICN shareholders of ICN's entire remaining interest in Ribapharm and ICN International; and
- o Milan Panic would assume a reduced management role at ICN. He was to have no management or board positions at Ribapharm, would serve only as a non-executive Chairman of ICN Americas and become Chairman and CEO of ICN International.

In May 2001, the 2001 Committee, in urging ICN shareholders to vote for their nominees, argued that:

"the incumbent management and board of directors of ICN have failed to make genuine progress in implementing the [restructuring plan] and that [revisions to the plan announced by ICN in Spring 2001] raise[d] the specter of a significant retrenchment from their public commitments."

The 2001 Committee also urged ICN's shareholders to consider that:

"[d]espite the protestations of ICN and its Chairman that they remain committed to implementing a restructuring, almost one year has passed and the promised restructuring of ICN not only remains unfinished, it has to a large extent not even begun. . . As of today [May 2, 2001], ICN has not delivered to its stockholders any tangible results from its

October [2000] commitments."

We believe that the result of the ICN 2001 annual meeting of shareholders clearly demonstrates that the concerns expressed by the 2001 Committee resonated with ICN's shareholders. In the face of determined opposition by ICN, the Company's shareholders delivered a resounding message to ICN's incumbent management and Board, electing all of the 2001 Committee's three shareholder-sponsored nominees to the Board. Each 2001 Committee nominee received more than twice the votes cast for any of the Company's nominees - the favorable votes of more than 65% of the shares represented at the meeting.

One Year Later - Insufficient and Grudging "Progress"

We became shareholders of ICN after the 2001 annual meeting in the belief that ICN's management and Board would get the message delivered so clearly by its shareholders in the 2001 election and move rapidly to deliver on its commitments.

But almost another full year has gone by since that message was sent - almost eighteen months have passed since ICN's October 2000 Press Release was issued - more than two years have elapsed from the date ICN first announced that it had engaged Warburg Dillon Read (today UBS, and still the Company's banker) to "explore strategic alternatives in order to increase shareholder value."

And yet, despite the passage of time and despite the continuing assurances from ICN and its Chairman that they remain committed to the restructuring and are "on plan," we find the situation substantially unchanged and we find ourselves still sharing the same concerns expressed by the 2001 Committee one year ago.

- o We believe ICN shares continue to trade at significant discounts to the Company's intrinsic value, a view shared by other investors and analysts as well as by ICN itself.
- o We believe ICN should complete as soon as possible a full restructuring of ICN, similar to the one ICN committed to in its October 2000 Press Release. It should divide the Company into three separate and wholly-independent businesses, each managed by separate, qualified management under the direction of a truly independent and responsible board of directors. Each business should also have corporate governance structures in place to enhance investor confidence and to ensure irreproachable levels of accountability.
- o We believe the continuing role and influence of Milan Panic in the management of ICN is viewed negatively by current and potential investors. We believe his presence at the helm of the Company, his dismissive attitude toward shareholders and his controversial reputation are among the chief reasons ICN's market valuation lags those of its peers and fails to adequately reflect the Company's fundamentals. In our view, one of the chief benefits of completing ICN's announced restructuring will be to address this issue by substantially reducing the role Mr. Panic plays in the active management of ICN.
- o We believe shareholders will share our profound skepticism and suspicion at the sight of the Company and its long-time chief executive, facing a proxy contest, suddenly rallying to the cause and invoking the spirit of good corporate governance. We recall that only last year Institutional Shareholder Services cited ICN's "checkered governance history" in its report recommending that shareholders vote against the management slate and Fortune magazine declared the Board to be among America's worst boards of directors - calling it "an absolute joke" which turned "a blind eye to Panic's shenanigans."

What little movement toward its restructuring ICN has made to date over the past year has been, in our view, insufficient and made only grudgingly against a background of persistent pressure from shareholders and the investment community. Consider the following:

The Ribapharm IPO - A Long Time Coming

ICN has finally completed an initial public offering of Ribapharm. But even this first tangible step toward restructuring took close to two years to complete from the date the Company first trumpeted its intention in June 2000 - two years which also included one threatened proxy contest, one successful proxy contest and the appearance of a second shareholder challenge. Barron's noted that, as of April 8, 2002, "[Ribapharm had] been poised for sale for more than 660 days, making it the fifth-longest wait for an initial public offering in better than five years, according to Dealogic."

The Ribapharm Spin-Off?

In our view, the critical element of ICN's restructuring is not the public offering of Ribapharm but the complete separation of the three businesses as soon as possible. We believe that only the full spin-off of Ribapharm will achieve the goal of creating a completely separate and independent company over which Mr. Panic has no influence.

But there has been no "spin-off" of Ribapharm to date and ICN's actions continue to leave us doubtful about the depth of its commitment to undertake this crucial step in its restructuring without further delay.

- o Although ICN has repeatedly reiterated its "commitment" to complete a Ribapharm spin-off within six months of a Ribapharm public offering, it has been careful to underscore that this "commitment" is not a legally binding obligation (and thus, presumably, ICN could change its mind, just as it did with the ICN International spin-off).
- o Ribapharm has recently disclosed that ICN might choose to condition the spin-off on receiving shareholder approval, despite the fact that ICN has been advised this is not legally necessary. Some might conclude such approval - indeed something stronger than "approval" - was implicitly given by the Company's shareholders when they voted at the 2001 annual meeting. If ICN really wanted shareholder approval for a spin-off, why wasn't it on the ballot in May 2001? Will this be an excuse for further delay?
- o ICN did not file its request for the tax ruling necessary to effect the Ribapharm spin-off until March 12, 2002 - conveniently within days of learning of the formation of the Shareholder Group - despite the fact that Milan Panic told shareholders five months earlier (in mid-November 2001) that the filing was expected "within a few weeks" and despite the fact that shareholders have been urging the Company to take this crucial step since at least May of 2001.
- o Completion of ICN's debt tender offer and consent solicitation was expressly conditioned by the Company on, and delayed pending, completion of the Ribapharm initial offering - despite the fact that the completion of the debt tender offer and consent solicitation is also a crucial pre-condition to a spin-off of Ribapharm. If, as it has said, ICN had more than enough cash to eliminate this obstacle (for example, Milan Panic, told shareholders during ICN's earnings conference call on November 1, 2001, "ICN has the cash to repurchase the remainder of the bonds") - why didn't ICN get it done and set the stage for the spin-off?

- o While ICN may seek credit now for successfully refinancing its outstanding senior debt and obtaining consents to clear the way for a restructuring, it was the 2001 Committee who urged the Company in May 2001 to take this step at a time when ICN was "flatly maintain[ing] that the Company's bondholders will not restructure."

Strongly as we support a timely spin-off of Ribapharm, we believe equally strongly that Ribapharm must be managed by qualified executives under the direction of a responsible board of directors, both wholly-independent, in substance as well as form, from the influence of ICN's incumbent management. As you will read below, we question whether this is now the case. In our view, the goals of the restructuring will not be achieved, and no spin-off (or transaction in contemplation of a spin-off) should be allowed to move forward, until ICN's Board takes measures or retains the authority to ensure that Ribapharm is truly independent.

Independence for Ribapharm--Form over Substance?

In ICN's October 2000 Press Release, ICN committed that Ribapharm, ICN International and ICN Americas would each have separate managements and truly independent boards of directors and that Milan Panic would have no management or board position with Ribapharm.

We question whether the spirit of this commitment is being honored and how much influence ICN's current senior management will continue to have at an "independent" Ribapharm.

Ribapharm's Management and Board Structure

Of the seven Ribapharm board members, at least four - a majority - are either current officers of ICN (Johnson Y.N. Lau) or former ICN directors (Roger Guillemin, Roberts A. Smith and Kim Campbell). Incredibly, one of these (Ms. Campbell) joined the ICN Board by appointment to a vacancy on November 2, 2000 and became a "former" director seven months later when ICN shareholders overwhelmingly rejected her candidacy for the ICN Board the first time she stood for election.

Until March 21, 2002, Ribapharm was to have had another officer and director, Mark Taylor, who is a current ICN executive as well as the former stepson of Milan Panic (although this particular fact was not at the time disclosed in Ribapharm's registration statement). In addition, Mr. Panic is, we understand, the godfather of the chief financial officer of Ribapharm (a fact that went undisclosed in the Ribapharm registration statement).

Of the three remaining "independent" directors, one (Arnold H. Kroll) previously served as ICN's investment banker and another (Hans Thierstein) served for nine years (from 1971-1980) as an officer of ICN (a fact Ribapharm's registration statement neglected to disclose until after the date we brought this fact to the attention of two of ICN's outside directors). ICN has disclosed no connection between the remaining "independent" director (John Vierling) and ICN or its current management. We note, however, that he is a member of the board (and a past chairman) of the American Liver Foundation, an organization which has been the recipient of grants and donations from ICN. We think shareholders would be curious to know how and by whom these directors were identified and selected to serve on Ribapharm's board.

It is also notable that none of the directors of Ribapharm appears to have any experience serving on the board of a publicly-listed United States company other than ICN itself. According to the Ribapharm registration statement, Mr. Kroll is a director of National Airlines (currently operating in Chapter 11) and ShareSpace Inc., both of which are private companies, and Mr. Thierstein is a director of Serono, S.A., a family-controlled Swiss company with U.S.-listed ADRs.

Ribapharm's Intended Option Grants

In an amendment to Ribapharm's registration statement dated March 21, 2002, Ribapharm disclosed that it intended to grant options to acquire 7.9 million shares of its common stock to a group of "officers and employees of [ICN] who are not one of [Ribapharm's] directors, officers, employees or consultants," and that these intended grants would include the grant of an option to purchase five million shares to Milan Panic. These options, which were to have fully vested immediately, would have represented over 5.2% of the shares to be outstanding following the offering and would have had a fair market value of over $53.7 million, with Mr. Panic's share representing 3.3% of the outstanding shares and a fair market value of $34 million.

Ribapharm's registration statement contained no discussion whatsoever as to how Ribapharm formulated its "intent," or which decision-making bodies (if any) or individuals were responsible for this process, or what safeguards, if any, were employed against possible self-dealing and conflicts. Despite the magnitude of the intended grant to Mr. Panic and the fact that he was both the president and one of two directors of Ribapharm as well as the Chairman and chief executive of ICN, Ribapharm's sole shareholder, no mention was made as to what role he may have played in - or how he was insulated from - the decision-making processes at Ribapharm that led to the formulation of Ribapharm's "intention" to give him securities valued at $34 million.

We expressed our strong opposition to these intended grants both publicly and privately to ICN and members of the ICN Board. Thereafter, on April 10, 2002, ICN announced that its Board had "voted to drop the granting of Ribapharm stock options to ICN directors and management." However, ICN announced at the same time that, to replace the intended option grants, the Board had approved payments upon completion of the Ribapharm offering to the same group of ICN directors and management from a "cash bonus pool" of $50 million in the same proportions that the options were to have been granted, apparently resulting in a payment to Milan Panic of approximately $30 million in cash.

ICN said in its press release that "[t]his change [to a bonus pool]... removed the concern expressed by shareholders from the Ribapharm IPO." This change does not, however, address our concerns. We continue to believe these awards - however structured - are wasteful of corporate assets and an unjustified enrichment of ICN's directors, officers and employees at the expense of ICN's shareholders.

We think shareholders will ask themselves - as we do - how much influence was exerted by Mr. Panic in the formulation of Ribapharm's original intent and how much influence will he continue to exert at Ribapharm, even following a spin-off?

We believe that Ribapharm requires and deserves to be managed by qualified executives under the direction of a responsible board of directors, both wholly-independent of the influence of ICN's incumbent management and with the experience, and supported by corporate governance structures, necessary to bolster investor confidence and to ensure irreproachable levels of accountability.

Whatever Happened to an Independent ICN International?

In March 2001, ICN abruptly announced a change in its plans for ICN International, scrapping any suggestion that this business would be spun-off and proposing instead to sell a 40% interest to the public - which would leave ICN International as a controlled subsidiary of ICN - contrary to the commitments in ICN's October 2000 Press Release. In the March announcement, ICN also said this offering was expected to be completed (subject, of course, to market conditions) in the second quarter of 2001 - conveniently after the 2001 annual meeting. To date, we note, no offering of ICN International has been consummated.

"No matter how cynical you get, it's impossible to keep up."

We find ourselves, amazingly, another year later, asking many of the same sorts of questions raised during last year's election contest.

- o Does ICN's management actually intend to complete a restructuring that will separate its three businesses into wholly-independent businesses, managed by separate, qualified managements under the direction of truly independent and responsible boards of directors?
- o Can investors recognize the full value of ICN's businesses so long as those businesses remain under the ultimate control of ICN's incumbent management led by Milan Panic and supervised by a Board chaired by him, on which directors put forward and elected by shareholders constitute only a minority?
- o When, if ever, does Milan Panic intend to relinquish the reins at any of ICN's businesses?

Shareholder Nominees

The Shareholder Nominees are individuals of integrity with substantial business experience, including extensive experience as senior managers and directors in the pharmaceutical and medical services industries. They are independent of Mr. Panic and ICN's current management and are committed to the highest standards of corporate governance and accountability and to the maximization of shareholder value. The nominating committee of the ICN Board has found each of the Shareholder Nominees to be "qualified" to serve on the Board. See "The Election of Directors - The Shareholder Nominees" below.

ICN shareholders should be aware that ICN has disclosed in a public filing that if the Shareholder Nominees are elected "[t]his would trigger change of control provisions in . . . some compensation arrangements" (emphasis added). (1) ICN has also disclosed in the same filing that "if [ICN] experience[s] a change of control under employment agreements with [its] Chairman and several key senior executive officers, [ICN] would be obligated to pay amounts totaling approximately $27,800,000, based upon present compensation." (The Shareholder Group does not know whether the reference to "some compensation arrangements" quoted above is a reference to all or only some of the specified employment agreements under which change of control payments would total approximately $27.8 million.) Additionally, according to Ribapharm's public disclosures, if the Shareholder Nominees are elected, this may also trigger change of control provisions under employment agreements between Ribapharm and certain Ribapharm executive officers, pursuant to which Ribapharm may be obligated to pay amounts totaling approximately $3 million, based upon present compensation. (2)

If elected, the Shareholder Nominees are committed to acting in the best interests of ICN's shareholders. They will, subject to their fiduciary duties as directors of ICN and working with the remainder of the Board, pursue diligently and promptly actions to maximize shareholder value, including a restructuring of ICN into three separate and wholly-independent businesses.

The three shareholder-nominated directors elected in 2001 constituted a minority of the entire Board. This year the size of the Board will be reduced to nine and only three directors will be elected at the 2002 Annual Meeting. As result, if the Shareholder Nominees are elected, a majority of the Board will be comprised of directors nominated directly by shareholders of ICN.

Last year, the 2001 Committee asked ICN shareholders to send a strong message to ICN of the seriousness with which they took the Board's prior commitments regarding the enhancement of shareholder value. We believe you delivered that message in the strongest possible terms and we believe it fell on deaf ears. We think it is time for the shareholders, the owners of ICN, to deliver a clear mandate for change - by electing the three Shareholder Nominees and by creating a Board, the majority of whose members were not only elected, but selected and nominated, by shareholders.

THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board currently consists of 12 directors divided into three classes. In accordance with the Company's Bylaws and the October 2000 Agreement, the size of the Board is to be reduced to nine members divided into three classes by no later than the 2002 Annual Meeting. At the 2002 Annual Meeting three persons will be elected as directors of ICN to hold office until the 2005 annual meeting and until their successors have been elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. In accordance with ICN's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, Mutual Shares Fund has delivered written notice to the Secretary of the Company of its intent to nominate the Shareholder Nominees for election to the Board at the 2002 Annual Meeting.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, according to information provided by the Shareholder Nominees, none of the Shareholder Nominees is the beneficial owner of any securities of the Company.

The Shareholder Nominees will not receive any compensation from the Shareholder Group for agreeing to be nominated by the Shareholder Group or, if elected, for their services as directors of the Company. However, Iridian and FMA have agreed to indemnify each of the Shareholder Nominees against losses incurred arising out of or based upon being the Shareholder Group's nominee and related matters. Iridian and FMA also have agreed to reimburse each of the Shareholder Nominees for their reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred in connection with each such nominee's participation in the solicitation of proxies as described in this Proxy Statement and related matters.

It is expected that each of the Shareholder Nominees, if elected, will receive the Company's customary director's compensation. According to the Company's definitive proxy statement for the 2001 annual meeting of shareholders dated May 1, 2001, filed with the SEC on May 1, 2001 (the "ICN 2001 Proxy Statement"), under compensation arrangements then in effect, non-employee members of the Board were paid an annual fee of $30,000, payable quarterly, plus a fee of $1,000 for every Board meeting attended and an additional fee of $1,000 for every committee meeting attended. In addition, Board members were reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses in attending the meetings. Non-employee directors on each April 18 also were granted options to purchase 15,000 shares of Common Stock. It is also expected that each of the Shareholder Nominees, if elected, will be indemnified for his services as director of the Company to the same extent indemnification is available to directors of the Company under the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation or otherwise provided by the Company. In addition, it is expected that, upon their election, such nominees will be covered by the Company's officer and director liability insurance, assuming the Company has in effect a standard officer and director insurance policy.

Although the Shareholder Group has no reason to believe that any Shareholder Nominee will be unable to serve as a director, if any one or more of the Shareholder Nominees shall not be available for election, the persons to be appointed as proxies shall vote all proxies received by the Shareholder Group for the election of any additional nominees as may be proposed by the Shareholder Group. If required, the Shareholder Group intends to distribute to the shareholders of the Company supplemental materials. In addition, the Shareholder Group reserves the right to nominate substitute or additional persons if the Company makes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying any of the Shareholder Nominees. You are urged to carefully consider the Shareholder Nominees' qualifications and abilities to represent your interests.

2002 Annual Meeting

Voting and Revocation of Proxies

For the proxy solicited hereby to be voted, the enclosed WHITE proxy card must be signed, dated, and returned to Iridian and FMA c/o MacKenzie Partners, Inc. ("MacKenzie Partners") at the address set forth on the back page of this Proxy Statement, in the enclosed envelope, in time to be voted at the 2002 Annual Meeting. If you wish to vote "FOR" the Shareholder Nominees you must submit the enclosed WHITE proxy card and must NOT submit the Company's proxy card. If you have already returned the Company's proxy card, you have the right to revoke it as to all matters covered thereby and may do so by subsequently signing, dating, and mailing the enclosed WHITE proxy card. ONLY YOUR LATEST DATED PROXY WILL COUNT AT THE 2002 ANNUAL MEETING. Execution of a WHITE proxy card will not affect your right to attend the 2002 Annual Meeting and to vote in person.

Any proxy may be revoked as to all matters covered thereby at any time prior to the time a vote is taken by (i) submitting to the Chairman of the Board or us a later dated written revocation or duly executed proxy; or (ii) attending and voting at the 2002 Annual Meeting in person (attendance at the 2002 Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation).

Although a revocation will be effective if delivered only to the Company, the Shareholder Group requests that either the original or a copy of all revocations be mailed to Iridian and FMA c/o MacKenzie Partners at the address set forth on the back page of this Proxy Statement, so that the Shareholder Group will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when the requisite proxies have been received.

Shares of Common Stock represented by a valid, unrevoked WHITE proxy card will be voted as specified. Shares represented by a WHITE proxy card where no specification has been made will be voted "FOR" the Shareholder Nominees. Except as set forth in this Proxy Statement, the Shareholder Group is not aware of any other matter to be considered at the 2002 Annual Meeting. If you return a WHITE proxy card and any other matter is presented at the 2002 Annual Meeting, the persons named on the enclosed WHITE proxy card will vote your shares in accordance with their best judgment concerning such matter.

If any of your shares were held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, bank nominee or other institution on April 9, 2002, the Record Date, only that institution can vote your shares and only upon its receipt of your specific instructions. Accordingly, please promptly contact the person responsible for your account at such institution and instruct that person to execute and return the WHITE proxy card on your behalf. You should also promptly sign, date and mail the voting instruction form (or WHITE proxy card) that your broker or banker sends you. Please do this for each account you maintain to ensure that all of your shares are voted. If any of your shares were held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, bank nominee or other institution on the Record Date, to revoke your proxy you will need to give appropriate instructions to such institution. IF YOU DO NOT GIVE INSTRUCTIONS TO YOUR BROKER OR OTHER NOMINEE, YOUR SHARES WILL NOT BE VOTED.

Record Date and Voting Power

Only holders of record as of the close of business on April 9, 2002, the Record Date for the 2002 Annual Meeting, will be entitled to vote at the 2002 Annual Meeting. If you were a shareholder of record on the Record Date, you will retain your voting rights for the 2002 Annual Meeting even if you sell such shares after the Record Date. Accordingly, it is important that you vote the shares you owned on the Record Date or grant a proxy to vote such shares, even if you sell some or all of your shares after the Record Date.

Edgar Filing: ICN PHARMACEUTICALS INC - Form PRRN14A

The shares of Common Stock are the only shares of capital stock of ICN entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the 2002 Annual Meeting. According to information publicly disclosed in the ICN 2001 Annual Report, there were 82,677,075 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of March 21, 2002. Every holder of shares of Common Stock is entitled to one (1) vote for each share of Common Stock held.

Quorum and Required Vote

In accordance with ICN's Bylaws, at the 2002 Annual Meeting, a majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. For the election of directors, nominees receiving a plurality of the votes cast at the 2002 Annual Meeting in person or by proxy will be elected as directors. "Plurality" means the nominees who receive the largest number of votes cast. Shares not voted will have no effect on the election of directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes in connection with the election of directors shall have no effect on such matters since directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the 2002 Annual Meeting. "Broker non-votes" are shares as to which a broker indicates on a proxy that it does not have discretionary authority and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner on a particular matter. Given that this is a contested election, we do not expect that there will be any broker non-votes.

Inspectors of election that are appointed by the Board or, if no such appointment is made or such inspectors fail to appear or act, by the Chairman of the 2002 Annual Meeting (appointed in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company), will tabulate the votes cast at the 2002 Annual Meeting.
