Internet Gold's Smile.Media and Israel's Channel 9 to Form Russian-Language
"Arutz 9" Internet Portal

Tuesday May 29, 4:10 am ET

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, May 29 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold, (Nasdaq NMS and TASE: IGLD) today announced that its 100% owned subsidiary, Smile.Media Ltd., has signed an agreement with Channel 9, Israel's only Russian-language television station, for the joint establishment of a new Internet portal. The new portal will offer a constantly-changing selection of Channel 9's rich Russian-language video and television programming, together with the content of www.zahav.ru, Smile.Media's leading Russian-language portal. Revenues will be generated from portal advertising and advertising packages sold jointly with www.zahav.ru.

"We are very pleased to join with Smile.Media in establishing Israel's most exciting Russian-language portal," said Mr. Leonid Blechman, CEO of Channel 9. "This step is in response to our viewers, who have been pushing us to move into additional media channels. It is also in line with our strategic plan for becoming the primary global source of Russian-language information about Israel. We believe the portal's attractive mix of content, including Channel 9's popular offerings and other features designed for the Internet, will enable it to build a large base of loyal viewers and make it an effective desirable advertising property. We look forward to benefiting from Smile.Media's state-of-the-art technological expertise, an advantage that will further differentiate Arutz 9."

Eli Holtzman, CEO of Smile.Media, added, "We have long recognized the importance of the Russian sector, which accounts for nearly 15% of Israel's population, as a marketing target. Our first step in targeting this segment was the establishment of zahav.ru, which has become Israel's leading Russian-language Internet portal. By combining forces with Israel's only Russian-language television station, we will be able to extend our leadership in this market and to assure a strong share of its interactive advertising budgets.

"In general, we continue to see steady growth in Internet advertising budgets targeting all Israeli sectors, much of which comes at the expense of older media. While Russian-language advertising is already a significant portion of the overall market, we believe our new portal will push it to a new level. In parallel, we believe the quality of the programming - especially the availability of reliable Russian-language news about the region - will result in a significant user base of Russian-speakers throughout the world who are interested in Israel, representing an additional lucrative target market for our advertisers."
