III. APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION
OF OUR COMPANY PROVIDING FOR THE REPLACEMENT OF ITEM No. 36
THERE TO AS AMENDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AMENDMENT No. 3 TO THE COMPANIES LAW REGARDING INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE OF THE COMPANY'S OFFICE HOLDERS (AS DEFINED IN THE COMPANIES LAW)
(Item 3 on the Proxy Card)

Amendment 3 to the Israeli Companies Law (the "Amendment") mandated changes to the indemnification, insurance and exemption of Office Holders. Office Holders are defined as a director, general manager, chief business manager, deputy general manager, vice general manager, any person filling any of these positions in a company even if he/she holds a different title, and any other manager directly subordinate to the general manager. The following are the main changes in the Israeli Companies Law regarding indemnification of Office Holders:

a) Duty of Care - a company may not exempt a director in advance from his/her liability towards the company for breach of duty of care in the event of distribution. According to the Israeli Companies Law definitions, distribution means giving a dividend or undertaking to give it, either directly or indirectly, and also acquisition; and for this purpose, "acquisition" - the direct or indirect acquisition or provision of financing for the acquisition - by a company, its subsidiary or another body corporate under its control - of the company's shares or of securities that are convertible into the company's shares that can be realized as the company's shares, or the redemption of redeemable securities that are part of the company's equity in accordance with section 312(d), and including an undertaking to do any of these things - all that on condition that the seller is not the company itself or another body corporate that is wholly owned by the company; b) Indemnification - In addition to the former provisions permitting indemnification, a company is now permitted to indemnify an Office Holder for reasonable litigation expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by an Office Holder due to an investigation or proceeding conducted against him/her by an authorized authority, and which ended: (1) without filing a claim against him/her and without a financial liability imposed upon him/her as an alternative to a criminal proceeding; or (2) which ended without filing a criminal charge against him/her but with a financial liability imposed upon him/her as an alternative to a criminal proceeding for an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent. c) Articles of Association - as a result of the Amendment, limitations were imposed regarding a company providing an undertaking in advance to indemnify an Office Holder in the case of a financial liability imposed on him/her, so that the Articles of Association of the Company must state that the undertaking to indemnify in advance shall be limited to events the Board considers as foreseeable in the view of the actual activity of the Company at the time of providing the indemnity undertaking and to an amount or a measure the Board prescribes as reasonable under the circumstances of the matter, and that such foreseeable events and the amount or the measure shall be indicated in the undertaking. d) Invalid Provisions - no indemnification regarding the breach of a duty of care committed intentionally or recklessly shall be valid, other than if committed solely through the negligence of the Office Holder.

At present, the Company's Articles of Association state as follows:

130. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Ordinance, the Company may enter into a contract for the insurance of all or part of the liability of an Office Holder, in respect of any of the following:
- (i) a breach of his duty of care to the Company or to another person;
 - (ii) a breach of his fiduciary duty to the Company, provided that such Office Holder acted in good faith and had reasonable cause to assume that such act would not prejudice the interests of the Company;
 - (iii) a financial liability imposed on him in favor of another person in respect of an act performed by him in his capacity as an Office Holder of the Company.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Ordinance, the Company may indemnify an Office Holder in respect of any of the following:
- (i) a financial liability imposed on him in favor of another person by a court judgment, including a compromise judgment or an arbitrator's award confirmed by a court, in respect of an act performed by virtue of his being an Office Holder of the Company;
 - (ii) reasonable litigation costs, including lawyers' fees, expended by an Office Holder or which were imposed on an Office Holder by a court in proceedings instituted against him by the Company or in its name or by any other person, or in a criminal charge from which he was acquitted, all in respect of an act performed in his capacity as an Office Holder or the Company.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 130(a) and 130(b), as from the date of the coming into force of the Companies Law, but otherwise, subject to the provisions of the Statutes with regard to such matters:
- (i) the Company may enter into a contract for the insurance of all or part of the liability of an Office Holder with respect to an obligation imposed on such Office Holder due to an act performed by him in his capacity as an Office Holder of the Company arising from any of the following:
 - (aa) a breach of his duty of care to the Company or to another person;
 - (bb) a breach of his fiduciary duty to the Company, provided that the Office Holder acted in good faith and had reasonable cause to assume that such act would not prejudice the interests of the Company;

Edgar Filing: RADVISION LTD - Form 6-K

- (cc) a financial liability imposed on such Office Holder in favor of another person;
- (ii) (aa) the Company may undertake, in advance, to indemnify, or may indemnify, an Office Holder in respect of, a liability or expense (as referred to in subparagraph (bb) below) that may be imposed on such Office Holder (due to an act performed by him in his capacity as an Office Holder):
- (1) that arises from those categories of events, and in respect of those amounts, as the Board may, at the time of the giving of such undertaking to indemnify, in its opinion deem to be reasonable in the circumstances; or
 - (2) that arises from an event that took place prior to the Company giving such indemnity;
- (bb) the liability and expense referred to in sub-paragraph (aa) above of this Article 130(c) (ii) are as follows:

compromise judgment given as a result of a settlement or an arbitrator's award which has been confirmed by a court;
 - (2) reasonable litigation costs, including lawyers' fees, expended by an Office Holder or which were imposed on an Office Holder by a court in proceedings instituted against him by the Company or in its name or by any other person or in a criminal charge on which he was acquitted or in a criminal charge on which he was convicted for a criminal offense that does not require proof of criminal thought (as such term is understood by the Penal Law, 5737-1977);
- (iii) the Company may release, in advance, all or part of an Office Holder's liability to the Company for damage which arises from the breach of his duty of care to the Company (as such term is understood by Sections 252 and 253 of the Companies Law, 1999).
- (d) The provisions of Articles 130(a), 130(b) and 130(c) above are not intended, and shall not be interpreted, to restrict the Company in any manner in respect of the procurement of insurance and/or in respect of indemnification (i) in connection with any person who is not an Office Holder, including, without limitation, any employee, agent, consultant or contractor of the Company who is not an Office Holder, and/or (ii) in connection with any Office Holder to the extent that such insurance and/or indemnification is not specifically prohibited under law; provided that the procurement of any such insurance and/or the provision of any such indemnification shall be approved by the Board.

In order to comply with the Amendment as aforesaid, the recommended amendments to the Articles of Association are as follows:

1. Paragraph (b) (iii) shall be added (in italic) .

Edgar Filing: RADVISION LTD - Form 6-K

2. Paragraph (c) will be deleted and will be replaced in its entirety (in italic).
3. Paragraph (d) will be added the last paragraph (in italic).

[Note: the amendments are additions to the former language]

The revised article 130 of the Articles of Association of the Company shall read as follows:

130. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Company may enter into a contract for the insurance of all or part of the liability of an Office Holder arising from his or her acts or omissions in such capacity, in respect of any of the following:
- (i) a breach of his or her duty of care to the Company or to another person;
 - (ii) a breach of his or her duty of loyalty to the Company, provided that such Office Holder acted in good faith and had reasonable cause to assume that such act would not prejudice the interests of the Company;
 - (iii) a monetary liability imposed on him or her in favor of another person.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Company may indemnify an Office Holder for liabilities or expenses imposed on or incurred by the Office Holder, concerning acts or omissions performed by the Office Holder in such capacity in respect of any of the following:
- (i) a monetary liability or expense imposed on or incurred by him or her in favor of another person by a court judgment, including a settlement judgment or an arbitrator's award approved by a court;
 - (ii) Reasonable litigation expenses, including attorney's fees, expended by an Office Holder in respect or as a result of an investigation or proceeding instituted against the Office Holder by a competent authority, provided that such investigation or proceeding concluded without a criminal charge filed against the Office Holder or the imposition of a monetary liability in lieu of a criminal proceeding, or concluded with the imposition of a monetary liability in lieu of a criminal proceeding for an offence that does not require proof of criminal intent (the phrases proceeding concluded without a criminal charge" and "monetary obligation in lieu of a criminal proceeding" shall have the meanings as defined in Section 260(a)(1a) of the Companies Law).
 - (iii) reasonable litigation expenses, including attorney's fees, expended by an Office Holder or which were imposed on an Office Holder by a court, in a proceeding instituted against him or her by the Company or on the Company's behalf or by any other person, or in a criminal charge from which he or her was acquitted or was convicted of an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent.

The Company may undertake to indemnify an Office Holder as aforesaid: (i) prospectively, provided that the undertaking according to Article 130(b)(i) above is limited to events which in the opinion of the Board can be foreseen, in view of the Company's then current activities, when the undertaking to indemnify is given, and to an amount or criteria set by the Board as reasonable under the circumstances, and (ii) retroactively.

- (c) The Company may, to the maximum extent permitted by the Companies Law, exempt and release an Office Holder in advance from and against all or part of his liability for damages due to, arising or resulting from a breach of his or her duty of care to the Company; provided; however, that the Company may not grant an exemption in advance to a Director from his or her liability to the Company for a breach of his or her duty of care in the event of a "distribution," as such term is defined in the Companies Law.
- (d) The provisions of Articles 130(a), 130(b) and 130(c) above are not intended, and shall not be interpreted, to restrict the Company in any manner in respect of the procurement of insurance and/or in respect of indemnification and/or exemption (i) in connection with any person who is not an Office Holder, including, without limitation, any employee, agent, consultant or contractor of the Company who is not an Office Holder; and/or (ii) in connection with any Office Holder to the extent that such insurance and/or indemnification and/or exemption is not specifically prohibited under applicable law; provided, that the procurement of any such insurance and/or the provision of any such indemnification and/or exemption shall be approved by the Board.

In the event of any change, after the date of adoption these Articles, in any applicable law, statute or rule which expands the right of an Israeli company to indemnify or insure or exempt an Office Holder, these Articles shall automatically be deemed to enable the Company to expand the scope of indemnification and/or insurance and/or exemption of Office Holders to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

The Board has unanimously approved the Amendment to the Articles of Association of the Company regarding indemnification of the Office Holders and recommends that the shareholders approve this proposal. Under the Company's Articles of Association, the affirmative vote of a majority of the ordinary shares represented at the Meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote and voting thereon will be necessary for shareholder approval of the indemnification of Office Holders.

The Board recommends a vote FOR the foregoing amendment to the Articles of Association of the Company.

IV. RATIFICATION OF THE COMPANY'S NEW INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS (Item 4 on the Proxy Card)

The Company's shareholders previously approved providing indemnification agreements (each an "Indemnification Agreement") to all of the Company's Office Holders. The Indemnification Agreement does not comply with the Amendment, and accordingly shareholders are being asked to approve providing a new

Indemnification Agreements to the Company's Office Holders which comply with the Amendment as aforesaid and the amendment to the Articles of Association provided in Item III of this Proxy Statement.

The amendments implemented in the Indemnification Agreements are changes mandated by the amendments to the Companies Law, in accordance with the amendments of the Articles of Association as follows:

a) Duty of Care - a company may not exempt a director in advance from his/her liability towards the company for breach of duty of care in the event of distribution. According to the Israeli Companies Law definitions, distribution means giving a dividend or undertaking to give it, either directly or indirectly, and also acquisition; and for this purpose, "acquisition" - the direct or indirect acquisition or provision of financing for the acquisition - by a company, its subsidiary or another body corporate under its control - of the company's shares or of securities that are convertible into the company's shares that can be realized as the company's shares, or the redemption of redeemable securities that are part of the company's equity in accordance with section 312(d), and including an undertaking to do any of these things - all that on condition that the seller is not the company itself or another body corporate that is wholly owned by the company; b) Indemnification - a company is now permitted to indemnify an Office Holder for reasonable litigation expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by an Office Holder due to an investigation or proceeding conducted against him/her by an authorized authority, and which ended: (1) without filing a claim against him/her and without a financial liability imposed upon him/her as an alternative to a criminal proceeding; or (2) which ended without filing a criminal charge against him/her but with a financial liability imposed upon him as an alternative to a criminal proceeding for an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent. c) Articles of Association - As a result of the Amendment, limitations were imposed regarding the Company providing an undertaking in advance to indemnify an Office Holder in the case of a financial liability imposed on him/her, so that the Articles of Association of the Company must state that the undertaking to indemnify in advance shall be limited to events the Board considers as foreseeable in the view of the actual activity of the Company at the time of providing the indemnity undertaking and to an amount or a measure the Board prescribes as reasonable under the circumstances of the matter, and that such foreseeable events and the amount or the measure shall be indicated in the undertaking. d) Invalid Provisions - no indemnification regarding the breach of a duty of care committed intentionally or recklessly shall be valid, other than if committed solely through the negligence of the Office Holder.

The Board has unanimously approved the ratification of the new Indemnification Agreements and recommends that the shareholders approve this proposal as well.

Under the Company's Articles of Association, the affirmative vote of the holders of majority of the ordinary shares represented at the Meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote and voting thereon will be necessary for shareholder approval of the ratification of the Indemnification Agreement.

The Board recommends a vote FOR the foregoing ratification of the Indemnification Agreement upon all the Company's Office Holders.

The other directors presently hold unvested options.

All of the option grants to the directors (referred to below as "Optionee") shall be subject to the following change of control provisions:

In the event of a "Change of Control" (for this purpose, the term "Change of Control" shall have the same meaning given to such term under the Company's Stock Option Plan), then stock options granted to the Optionee which have not previously expired shall immediately vest based on the following formula:

For each options grant made, upon Change of Control, the number of options from each grant, vested (exercised or not) on the "event date" will be doubled. The resulted total vested options

VI. INCREASE OF THE COMPANY'S AUTHORIZED SHARE CAPITAL (Item 6 on the Proxy Card)

The Company's current authorized and registered ordinary share capital is NIS 2,500,000 divided into 25,000,000 ordinary shares as follows: 24,984,470 Ordinary Shares of a nominal value of ten Agorot (NIS 0.10) each and 15,530 Deferred Shares of a nominal value of ten Agorot (NIS 0.10). The 15,530 Deferred Shares of a nominal value of ten Agorot (NIS 0.10) were ultimately cancelled leaving the Company today with 25,000,000 Ordinary Shares of a nominal value of ten Agorot (NIS 0.10) each. As of December 31, 2006 we have 22,251,552 Ordinary Shares outstanding and 3,449,430 Ordinary Shares reserved for issuance pursuant to existing options. Accordingly, we need to increase the Company's authorized share capital to permit the issuance of Ordinary Shares pursuant to existing options and to grant additional options under our 2000 Option Plan, as amended and to provide the Company with the ability to issue additional shares for general corporate purposes. The Board has unanimously adopted a resolution recommending that our shareholders increase our authorized Ordinary Share capital by NIS 2,000,000 divided into 20,000,000 ordinary shares of NIS 0.10 par value each (resulting in a registered ordinary share capital is NIS 4,500,000 divided into 45,000,000 ordinary shares) and amend the Company's Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association to reflect such increase.

It is proposed that at the Meeting the shareholders adopt the following resolution, which the Board believes to be in the best interests of the Company and of its shareholders:

"RESOLVED, that our Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association be amended to increase our authorized and registered ordinary share capital by 20,000,000 ordinary shares of NIS 0.10 par value each."

The affirmative vote of the holders of 75% of the Ordinary Shares represented at the Meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote will be necessary to approve the increase of the authorized share capital of the Company and the amendment of the Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association to reflect the same.
