WagerLogic extended the marketing appeal of tournaments with the introduction of its exclusive online Super-Satellite Tournament Structure, Land-Based Online Qualification Series (LOQ). LOQ enables its customers players to qualify online, all-year-round for not just one, but their choice of 20 premier poker events around the globe. From the World Series of Poker to major land-based tournaments in the Caribbean and across Europe to WagerLogic licensees own Caribbean Poker Classic , winners of a main online LOQ satellite tournament will be awarded the entry fee for the tournament of their choosing, as well as travel, accommodation and spending money. The introduction of My Poker Points (MPP) tournament option also allows players to compete in online tournaments using poker points accumulated while playing, or use their points to pay for the fee portion of a tournament buy-in for selected tournaments.

By understanding and anticipating the wants, needs and wishes of the online player, our software is offering something for every type of Internet poker player. Players can now speed up their ETA to possible victory by playing Thunder Tournaments, they can LOQ up their seat to 20 different land-based tournaments throughout the year, and they continuously get rewarded especially with the introduction of MPPs, said Andy Goetsch, CryptoLogic s Vice President, Poker Software Development.
