material terms of each of the agreements and does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to each agreement, copies of which are attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibits 10(c) (4) and 10(c) (6), and each of which is incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Belford's employment agreement provides that he will receive an annual base salary of $390,000.00. Mr. Cannon's employment provides that he will receive an annual base salary of $340,000.00. The Executives' annual base salaries may from time to time be increased by the Company's Chief Executive Officer subject to approval of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The employment agreements provide that each of the Executives will be eligible for discretionary annual incentive bonuses and to participate in the Company's Long-Term Capital Accumulation Plan, in each case as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company.

The Company may terminate each Executive's employment with or without cause (as defined in the employment agreement). Each Executive may terminate his employment with the Company upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice. Each Executive may also terminate his employment with the Company in connection with his retirement after January 1, 2007 provided that the Executive gives written notice of his retirement at any time after July 1, 2006. Each Executive's employment will terminate automatically upon his death or permanent disability.

In the event of an Executive's termination of employment without cause or in connection with an Executive's retirement, the Company will continue to pay the Executive's base salary and provide him with certain benefits for a period of two years. During such salary continuation period, the Executive is obligated to provide certain limited consulting services to the Company. In the event an Executive dies while employed by the Company, the Executive will receive an amount equal to two times the Executive's then current annual base salary.

Pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement, each Executive has agreed not to compete with the Company during the term of the employment agreement, while receiving salary continuation payments, if any, and for a period of two (2) years thereafter. The employment agreements also contain provisions related to return of Company property, non-disclosure of Company confidential information and other restrictive covenants related to non-solicitation of Company employees, agents and customers.
