EMPLOYEE SHAREHOLDERS

We recently mailed you important proxy material and voting instructions for Edison International's 2003 Annual Meeting. Support is extremely important and I strongly recommend that you take an active role in voting.

- o Vote "FOR" the election of directors; and
- o Vote "AGAINST" the shareholder proposal to redeem the Company's shareholder rights agreement.

In 1996 the Edison International Board adopted a Rights Agreement (which we refer to as our "shareholder rights plan") to enhance the ability of the Company to receive fair value for their investment in the event of an attempted takeover of your company. A substantial majority of non-management Directors, has reviewed our shareholder rights plan and believes that the rights plan is in the best interests of Edison International's shareholders and the future. Our shareholder rights plan is designed not only to prevent hostile, unsolicited takeover of the Company, but also to prevent the expense of fairness to the Company. Our shareholder rights plan is a "poison pill" only with respect to the Company.

Rights plans like ours are common among S&P 500 companies. I urge you to follow the Board's recommendation.

You should have received a proxy card in the mail to vote your shares. Alternatively, you may vote by Internet by entering your control number from the proxy card and following the instructions on the card. If you did not receive your proxy card in the mail within the next few days or have misplaced it, you may contact Joyce L. Goddard at (626) 302-4685 to obtain a new one. Your vote must be received by 2 p.m. (Pacific Time) on May 12, 2003.

If you also hold shares in a brokerage account and/or in your own name, you will receive a separate proxy card for each. Please be sure to vote these shares in addition to your employee plan shares. Be sure to vote on each card. If you have any questions, please call Jo Ann Goddard at (626) 302-2515 or Heidi Towns at (626) 302-4685.

By pulling together as a team you will help ensure the success of this year's meeting.

Thank you for your continued support.

/s/ John E. Bryson

*This communication is being sent to you on behalf of your Board of Directors. For more information on the above matters, and for other important information, we strongly encourage you to read the Edison International 2002 Annual Report, the Edison International Southern California Edison Company Joint Proxy Statement, filed with the S.E.C. on April 7, 2003.
