Item 4.

Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

On January 14, 2019, MNG made an offer to acquire the Issuer for $12.00 per share in cash, representing a 41% premium to the Issuer's year-end closing price (the "MNG Offer"). On February 4, 2019, before even meeting with MNG to discuss its acquisition proposal, the Issuer announced that the Board had rejected the MNG Offer. MNG and its advisors met with the Issuer and its advisors on February 7, 2019 to address a set of questions the Issuer had set forth regarding the MNG Offer. At the meeting, MNG and its advisors provided a clear path to completing an all-cash transaction on the proposed terms, including a path to financing the transaction and analysis on antitrust matters and pension liabilities. MNG and its advisors assuredly demonstrated that neither issue would be an impediment to closing. MNG also shared its perspective on leadership for the combined company and on the importance of valued employees to the long-term sustainability and success of the newspaper business.

The Issuer's deadline for stockholder nominations of director candidates for election at the Issuer's 2019 annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") was also on February 7, 2019. MNG's advisors had communicated to the Issuer's advisors days before the meeting their belief that mutual, good faith engagement towards a negotiated transaction would be more productive without the distraction of an unnecessary and costly proxy contest, and had proposed an interim solution whereby MNG would agree to a "standstill" if the Issuer agreed to extend the nomination deadline. On the morning of February 7, 2019, prior to the meeting, the Issuer's advisors informed MNG's advisors that the Board had determined it would not agree to extend the deadline for director nominations. Therefore, MNG's only option to preserve its rights was to submit a slate of director candidates on February 7, 2019 so that in the event the Issuer continues to refuse to engage in material discussions, MNG can take its offer directly to stockholders through the vote on directors at the Annual Meeting.

CUSIP NO. 36473H104

MNG is severely disappointed by the Issuer's press release issued on February 11, 2019 that grossly mischaracterized the meeting on February 7, 2019, as well as MNG's ability to close the proposed transaction. MNG responded publicly on February 11, 2019, stating that it expects to have fully committed financing in place within weeks and that the pro forma leverage profile of the combined companies would be very conservative relative to industry comparables. MNG also stated that it can complete its diligence within four weeks with the cooperation of the Issuer and has conveyed its willingness to consider potentially improving the terms of the MNG Offer should due diligence demonstrate greater value.

MNG believes that the Issuer's misleading public comments are designed to distract stockholder attention from the fact that management and the Board of the Issuer have no credible path to achieve a $12 valuation on their own. MNG notes that under Chairman Jeffrey Louis's watch, the Issuer's Adjusted EBITDA is down a staggering 31% and free cash flow has declined by a whopping 50%, resulting in the destruction of over 40% of the Issuer's value – all the while leveraging up to overspend on aspirational digital assets.

As the Issuer's largest active stockholder with a 7.5% ownership stake, MNG urges the Issuer to do the right thing and resume discussions with MNG towards a transaction, or in the alternative, immediately commence a strategic review process to maximize value for all stockholders of the Issuer.

In addition to the Board's refusal to engage in meaningful discussions with MNG, the Board has also refused, to date, to take any of the following actions that MNG requested in its January 14th letter to the Board:

- Hire an investment bank to conduct a review of strategic alternatives, including a potential sale of the Issuer;
- Commit to a moratorium on digital acquisitions; and
- Commit to a feasible, strategic and financial path forward before hiring a new CEO.

It remains MNG's singular preference to pursue a negotiated transaction, which it believes would be in the best interest of all stockholders of the Issuer. MNG has expended significant time and resources performing all the necessary analysis and notes that the only thing blocking a value maximizing transaction is the entrenched Board's self-serving refusal to engage.

As noted above, in light of the Issuer's refusal to consider a nomination deadline extension, on February 7, 2019, Opportunities delivered a letter to the Issuer nominating Timothy Barton, Heath Freeman, R. Joseph Fuchs, Guy Gilmore, Dana Needleman and Steven Rossi (collectively, the "Nominees") for election to the Board at the Issuer's Annual Meeting. The Reporting Persons believe that the Nominees have the qualifications, experience and skill sets necessary to serve as directors of the Issuer, as evidenced by their bios below.
