PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT!
VOTE THE ENCLOSED WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY!

Dear Fellow Shareholder: April 30, 2014

The Board of Directors (Board) of Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. (TDS) strongly urges all holders of TDS Common Shares to vote in favor of your Board s four highly qualified nominees for election at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, to be held on Thursday, May 22, 2014. Please vote TODAY by telephone, Internet or by signing, dating and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card in the business reply envelope provided. We urge you to DISCARD ANY BLUE PROXY CARD you may receive from GAMCO Asset Management Inc. (GAMCO), which is seeking to replace two of your Board s nominees with its own representatives.

THE GAMCO NOMINEES HAVE LITTLE RELEVANT EXPERIENCE. TDS NOMINEES ARE WORKING TO CREATE VALUE FOR ALL SHAREHOLDERS

We believe that GAMCO s nominees, Philip T. Blazek and Walter M. Schenker (the GAMCO Nominees), lack the experience and skill sets that would add value to the Board. In 2009, TDS added two persons designated by GAMCO, Clarence A. Davis and Gary L. Sugarman, to the TDS Board. These two experienced and qualified persons continue to serve on the TDS Board and have been very engaged and effective. On the other hand, we do not believe that the new GAMCO Nominees have experience or qualifications comparable to that Mr. Sugarman, Mr. Davis or the other two TDS Board nominees.

TDS Board members have been very active in urging meaningful action and helping TDS pursue changes for sustainable, profitable future growth. We believe that a change in TDS Board composition risks disruption in TDS ability to effect planned changes and would result in a loss of valuable expertise, in return for new members with no meaningful relevant business experience compared to the TDS Board s nominees. Based on the information in GAMCO s proxy statement, information provided to TDS by GAMCO and the GAMCO Nominees and other information, we believe that:

The GAMCO Nominees have minimal public-company board experience. The GAMCO
Nominees have no experience as directors of publicly-traded companies except that Mr. Schenker
was recently appointed as a director of a small public company. Each of the TDS Board Nominees has experience as a director of TDS, which is a Fortune 500 company, ranging from about 5 to 17 years, and have various other public company board experience as noted below.

The GAMCO Nominees have no meaningful experience in the telecommunications or other businesses in which TDS is engaged.

Neither GAMCO nominee has any experience as a director or officer of, or any operational experience with, a telecommunications or similar company.

The GAMCO Nominees have no meaningful experience with the businesses in which TDS is engaged (wireline, wireless, cable and hosted & managed services).

Each of the TDS Board Nominees has experience with these businesses as a director of TDS ranging from about 5 to 17 years, and has various other experience as noted below.

GAMCO declined to make the GAMCO Nominees available to be interviewed by members of the TDS Board. GAMCO was twice requested to make the GAMCO Nominees available for a phone interview to allow members of the TDS Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and/or TDS Board to thoroughly evaluate the GAMCO Nominees before making any recommendation or nomination for the TDS Board in 2014. Both times, GAMCO declined to make the GAMCO Nominees available to be interviewed for this purpose in 2014, even though members of the TDS Board had interviewed GAMCO's nominee in 2013 for the same purpose.

Mr. Schenker consented to a settlement of an SEC enforcement proceeding. In 2007, an SEC Complaint alleged that Walter M. Schenker and related persons violated Section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with twenty-six unregistered securities offerings (commonly referred to as "PIPES"), and that the defendants locked in approximately $887,000 in ill-gotten gains as a result of the violations. The SEC Litigation Release relating to the settlement of this complaint stated that without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, the defendants consented to the entry of a final judgment permanently enjoining them from future violations of Section 5 of the Securities Act and ordering them to pay a total of $1,195,060 in disgorgement, prejudgment interest, and civil penalties. Specifically, the final judgment ordered Mr. Schenker to pay a $75,000 civil penalty.

In comparison to the above matters relating to the GAMCO Nominees, attached is a summary of the significant business, finance and managerial expertise and qualifications of the TDS Nominees.

We urge you to support your Board's highly qualified and experienced nominees for election by voting the WHITE proxy card and discarding any BLUE proxy card you may receive from GAMCO.

Please vote in favor of ALL FOUR OF your Board's nominees TODAY.

Thank you for your continued support.

Very truly yours,

Walter C.D. Carlson
Chairman of the Board of Directors

LeRoy T. Carlson, Jr.
President and Chief Executive Officer
