Edgar Filing: GREENE COUNTY BANCORP INC - Form 8-K

(e) Employment Agreements. On November 26, 2008, The Bank of Greene County (the "Bank"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Greene County Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into an employment agreement (the "Agreement") with Stephen E. Nelson, Senior Vice President and Chief Lending Officer of the Bank, effective July 1, 2008. The Company also executed the Agreement for the sole purpose of guaranteeing the Bank's financial performance.

The Agreement provides for a base salary of $112,500 per year. The term of the Agreement is 24 months from July 1, 2008. Commencing on July 1, 2009, and continuing on each July 1 thereafter, the Agreement shall renew for an additional year such that the remaining term shall be two years, unless written notice is provided to the executive at least ten days and not more than 60 days prior to any such anniversary date that his employment shall cease at the end of 12 months following such anniversary date. Prior to each notice period for non-renewal, the disinterested members of the Board of Directors of the Bank will conduct a comprehensive performance evaluation and review of the executive for purposes of determining whether to extend the Agreement.

Under the Agreement, the executive's base salary will be reviewed annually, and the base salary may be increased but not decreased. In addition to the base salary, the executive will be provided all such other benefits as are provided uniformly to permanent full-time employees of the Bank. The executive will also be entitled to incentive compensation and bonuses as provided in any plan of the Bank in which the executive is eligible to participate.

The Agreement provides for termination by the Bank for cause at any time. If the Agreement is terminated for cause, the executive will not receive any compensation or other benefits from the Bank or the Company. In the event the executive's employment is terminated by the Bank for any reason other than for cause, disability or retirement, or if the executive voluntarily resigns from his employment upon, among other things, failure to reappoint the executive to his office, a material diminution of the executive's duties, relocation of his place of employment by more than 30 miles or a breach of the Agreement by the Bank, then the Bank will be obligated to pay to the executive a lump sum equal to his then current base salary. The executive will also be entitled to continued life insurance and non-taxable medical and dental coverage for 12 months following termination. If the payments to be made to the executive are determined to constitute an "excess parachute payment," the amounts would be reduced to avoid this result.

In the event the executive retires, he will be entitled to any vested benefits under any retirement plan of the Bank. The Agreement provides that, following termination of the executive's employment as a result of which the Bank is paying the executive termination benefits (other than termination upon a change in control), the executive will not compete with the Bank for a period of one year in any city or county in which the Bank has an office or has filed an application for regulatory approval to establish an office.
