Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 22, 2006, Talk America Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), Cavalier Telephone Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Cavalier"), and Cavalier Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and an indirectly wholly owned subsidiary of Cavalier ("Merger Subsidiary") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement"). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Subsidiary will merge with and into the Company (the "Merger"), with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation.

Immediately prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement, the Company and Stocktrans, Inc. entered into an amendment (the "Rights Agreement Amendment") to the Rights Agreement dated as of August 19, 1999, as amended as of September 19, 2001 and December 13, 2002 (the "Rights Agreement").

The Merger Agreement

At the effective time and as a result of the Merger, (i) the Company will become an indirectly wholly owned subsidiary of Cavalier and (ii) each share of Company common stock that is outstanding at the effective time of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive $8.10 in cash (the "Merger Consideration"). Each outstanding option or warrant to purchase the Company's common stock of a per share exercise price lower than the Merger Consideration will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the Merger Consideration less the exercise price for such option or warrant, as the case may be, net of any applicable taxes.

The Company has made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period, (iii) to cause its stockholder meeting to be held to consider adoption of the Merger Agreement and (iv) subject to certain exceptions, for its board of directors to recommend adoption by its stockholders of the Merger Agreement. In addition, the Company made certain additional customary covenants, including among others, covenants not to (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions or negotiations concerning or provide confidential information in connection with alternative business combination transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of conditions, including (i) approval by the Company's stockholders, (ii) receipt of applicable consents from the Federal Communications Commission, (iii) receipt of applicable approvals from state public service or utilities commissions (or similar state regulatory agencies) that regulate the Company's business, (iv) expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period, (v) absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, (vi) the Company's meeting of a minimum financial performance measure for the quarter ending September 30, 2006 and (vii) subject to certain specified exceptions, the absence of any material adverse effect with respect to the Company's business.

The Company may terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including, prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders, if the Company's board of directors determines in good faith, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, that it has received an unsolicited bona fide "superior proposal", as defined in the Merger Agreement, and otherwise complies with certain terms of the Merger Agreement (including giving Cavalier the opportunity to make an offer that is at least as favorable to the Company's stockholders as such "superior proposal"). In connection with such termination, the Company must pay a fee of $6.25 million to Cavalier plus up to an additional $1.25 million as reimbursement for expenses. In certain other termination circumstances, the Merger Agreement provides for the Company to pay Cavalier the termination fee of $6.25 million or up to $1.25 million as reimbursement for expenses or both.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated by reference herein. The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors and stockholders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company or Cavalier. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties that the parties to the Merger Agreement made to and solely for the benefit of each other, and the assertions embodied in such representations and warranties are qualified by information contained in confidential disclosures that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. These representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, investors and stockholders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances, since they were only made as of the date of the Merger Agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosures.

The Rights Agreement

On September 22, 2006, prior to execution of the Merger Agreement, the Company amended its Rights Agreement to make the rights issued pursuant to the Rights Agreement inapplicable to the Merger and related transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof. In particular, neither Cavalier, Merger Subsidiary nor any of their affiliates shall be deemed to be an Acquiring Person (as defined in the Rights Agreement) solely by virtue of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby.

The foregoing description of the Rights Agreement Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Rights Agreement Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.
